MILAN EXCHANGE

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1885.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Mr. Joseph N. Alexander was commissioned as postmaster at Bradford, on the 9th inst.

Mr. Ed. Glass, a worthy and popular young man, 23 years old, was found dead in bed Saturday morning in Trenton. Cause of death unknown.

Humboldt Messenger: Hon. W. I. McFarland will run a red hot race for congress. He is in fine trim, and sanguine as to his nomination. Why should he not be? Who in this district can beat him? When the procession starts he will be in front and when it ends he will be in the lead.

Trenton Recorder: The Revenue Committee made a settlement last week with Trustee Ramsey for 1884. They found his books, accounts, etc., correct. Annual settlements have been made with the trustee for some time, and there has never been a deficiency in his accounts to the value of one cent.

Trenton Herald: While Duke Mitchell was going home last Sunday night his horse walked into an old well about 25 feet deep which had been covered over with brush. His cries for help brought Jerry Mitchell, a colored man, to the rescue, who, with the assistance of a rope, succeeded in landing him on terra firma uninjured. In trying to get his horse out its neck was broken.

Trenton Recorder: We have been charged with the crime of writing only the good things of Gibson county, but we endeavor to write what is true. On the first Monday in each month there congregates here many of the worst characters from this and surrounding counties, and almost universally night closes in on a scene of drunkenness and debauchery. On last Monday six men went home with their heads so badly gashed and bruised their parents could hardly recognize them. All of them were youths, or at least, very young men, but one. There is nothing very particularly wrong with the day, or with the men, but corn juice does the mischief.

"Elia" and Charles Lamb.

A unique genius, that of Charles Lamb. Just like nothing that ever appeared before them, or has since appeared, are the quaint and delightful "Essays of Elia," a new edition of which has recently been issued by Alden, "The Literary Revolution" publisher of New York. Turn to any of your cyclopedias and they will tell you that Charles Lamb was one of the most charming essayists that the English language has ever known, and also that his "Essays of Elia" are the choicest of his works. They are not merely the first work of their class, but, like "Pilgrim's Progress" and "Robinson Crusoe," they constitute a class by themselves. The volume is certainly one of the most delightful of the books described in Mr. Alden's 148-page illustrated catalogue, which he offers to send for four cents, or the 16 page catalogue, which is sent free. Address John B. Alden, Publisher, New York City.

Proper Treatment for Coughs.

That the reader may fully understand what constitutes a good cough and lung syrup, we will say that tar and wild cherry is the basis of the best remedies yet discovered. These ingredients with several others equally as efficacious, enter largely into Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup, thus making it one of the most reliable now on the market. Price 50c and $1. Samples free. Sold by Stewart & Danner.

Elephant Oil.—The Asiatic cure for neuralgia and rheumatism, at Henderson & Martin's.

Remember!

Illustrated papers on athletic sports, games and pastimes give full information on these subjects. There is nothing cheap about it but its price.

A weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits.—Brooklyn Union.

Harper's Bazar.

Illustrated.

Harper's Bazar is the only paper in the world that combines the choicest literature and the finest art illustrations with the latest fashions and methods of household adornment. Its weekly illustrations and descriptions of the newest Paris and New York styles, with its useful pattern-sheet supplements and cut patterns by enabling ladies to be their own dressmakers, save many times the cost of subscription. Its papers on cooking, the management of servants, and housekeeping in its various details are eminently practical. Much attention is given to the interesting topic of social etiquette, and its illustrations of art needle work are acknowledged to be unequalled. Its literary merit is of the highest excellence, and the unique character of its humorous pictures has won for it the name of the American Punch.
