

Successful Success

Young man, would you succeed? Then start a bank account. There are many degrees of success, but after all is said none succeed like the financial success. Whether you be doctor, lawyer, merchant or musician, you will never reach the fullness of success until you have become a financier. To be a financial success two things are necessary: First, to make money; second, to save money. A good education and plenty of brawn will help you to make it. From your parents and your companions you learn morality. Schools, colleges and experience broaden your general knowledge and intellect. The bank is only able to teach you financing. Would you be a financial success? Then start a bank account.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN THE DISCARD

Law Enacted as National Measure Repealed Over President's Second Veto

The daylight-saving law became inoperative at 2 o'clock last Sunday morning. Clocks were turned back one hour and the country went back to standard time. The present temper of congress indicates it will stay there.

The daylight-saving law, which passed congress almost unopposed, was repealed recently with almost as much enthusiasm, despite two vetoes by the president. Farmers opposed it, saying it harmed their work.

The change gives one hour longer to slumber in the morning, but one hour later to work at night. The law accomplished some good but it will be sometime before congress will again attempt to enact it into law.

Mrs. Sarah Wilcox

Mrs. Sarah Wilcox died at her home in the Twenty-third district last Tuesday night at about 8 o'clock. She died from paralysis, having been stricken that morning at 9 o'clock. She was an aged lady, being about 82 years old. She was a most excellent christian woman and stood high in the community. Her husband has been dead a number of years and she is survived by five sons, Luther, who lives in Texas; Ben, whose home is in Senath, Mo.; Tom, Otha and Bolivar, all of whom reside in this county, and two daughters, Mrs. D. J. Hastings and Mrs. Lee Hastings, residents of this county. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of a large number of friends. The burial occurred yesterday at Long Rock, after funeral services conducted by Rev. W. E. Gibson.
