

KNOXVILLE WHIG

KNOXVILLE, TENN. SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1859

FOR PRESIDENT JOHN BELL OF TENNESSEE

FOR VICE PRESIDENT EDWARD EVERETT OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLATFORM: The Constitution, the Union, and the Extension of the Law

PLATFOEM: The Constitution, the Union, and the Extension of the Law

From the present time until after the November election, the political battles of the country will be of absorbing interest.

Riotous Democracy in Baltimore. The "unfeeling" and "harsh" Democracy of these United States, through their chosen representatives, have been in session in Baltimore for SIX dreadful days, fighting, quarreling, drinking, swearing, Sabbath-breaking, and playing the Devil generally.

From the present time until after the November election, the political battles of the country will be of absorbing interest. The Union, and the Extension of the Law.

South-Western Convention, nominated James A. Hamilton, for Vice President.

Both of these tickets are sectional tickets, and the tickets of sectional parties, as such as is the ticket headed by Lincoln, and so Union ticket Democrats consistently support, although Mr. Hayes is a member of Buchanan's Cabinet.

When the integrity of the delegates had exhausted the vocabulary of epithets, and the language, they resorted to regular duels, and pistols, challenging each other to mortal combat, covering themselves with blood and blackguardism.

On Monument Square, at intervals, by day and by night, they were speaking in opposition to each other at the same time, in sight and in hearing—each claiming to have the biggest and the noisiest crowd.

Mr. Brantley is an Opposition man, and a Whig, and will do nothing to promote a corrupt and profligate Democracy. He owes it to himself, and to the party that has honored him heretofore, to do this much, and he is not the man to do this.

They never failed to insult High Heaven, and to mock God and his worship, by opening their sessions with prayer, by some red-mouthed Levitical preacher.

They have so changed their discipline, as to make it read that all slate-holding is a sin, effectively creating a new term of membership, as it makes all cases of slate-holding, under the General Rules of the Church, forbidden all harm.

The Richmond Whig, to produce the following article from the London Times, of February, 1859. It gives some fearful facts, which our farmers will feel an interest in the study of.
