

KNOXVILLE WIRE

KNOXVILLE, TENN., SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1863.
Docks! Docks! Docks!!!
I have on hand a book of 200 pages, well bound, containing a full and complete history of the slavery question between myself and Pope, an abolitionist, which I will send you for 10 cents, or two copies for 100 cents.

UNION MASS MEETING
Knoxville
LET THE PEOPLE TAKE COUNSEL TOGETHER!
The Union Mass Meeting at Knoxville, Tenn., on Monday, 22d day of April, 1863, was a grand success.

Proclamation by the President.
Resolutions were read here last evening to the effect that the President had issued a Proclamation, concerning an extra session of Congress, on the 4th of July.

Our Border State Conservatives.
We border State men, who stand up for the Union, against the combined hosts of the seceding States, have a hard time of it, meeting with little encouragement from the North or South.

Our Government.
The history of all the Governments ever formed, from the days of ancient Rome down to the present time, furnishes no parallel to the fortunes which the Government of the United States has, up to this period, shown.

Insolent Boasting.
The notations Wigfall, delivered on his recent speech, had a very striking point, in that it was so confidently cheered by the traitors in Charleston.

Have we a Government?
Although this country ought not to be involved in civil war, it absolutely seems necessary to determine this question.

Browlow Training Secessionist.
We have taken occasion, during the two weeks past, to express, in the most significant terms, our contempt of the appointment of leading secessionist abolitionists, and many incendiaries, to the office of high rank and position in the Confederate States.

Another Richmond in the Field.
Dr. Brownlow, of West Point, Mo., is being considered as a candidate for the position of Governor of Missouri.

Major General Beauregard.
Gen. G. T. Beauregard was born near West Point, Mo., on the 24th of December, 1815.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.
We are pleased with Lincoln's judgment, in selecting his Cabinet, and we are sure that his selection of his Cabinet will be a great blessing to the Union.

What Shall Tennessee Do?
We have saved the labor and trouble of saying that we would not support Lincoln, by our corresponding "No" in which we have called the attention of our fellow citizens to the fact that we are not in favor of Lincoln.

The Mass Meeting.
All persons favorable to the purpose of maintaining the Union, against all the forces of the South, and all within the limits of Tennessee, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Knoxville Going over to Secession.
Those who get up operations and parties, in the name of the Union, and who are in the habit of calling themselves Union men, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Treason and Perjury.
Every Senator and Representative in Congress of the United States, who has sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, is hereby notified that he is in violation of his oath.

Tennessee Volunteers.
THE SECRET COMING OUT!
Under the caption of "Tennessee Volunteers," the Nashville Union, the organ of Secession, has published an article.

The First Seceder.
The Devil was the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known.

What Shall We Do?
The war of the section has commenced, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section.

Partisans of the Bombardment.
We have perused a detailed account of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, given in the Richmond papers, and it amazes us in substance to this: Maj. Anderson surrendered before his quarters and barracks were destroyed.

Secession Brokers.
We have just received a letter from a gentleman residing in Middle Georgia, inquiring the money to renew his subscription to our paper, a man of sense and character.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.
We are pleased with Lincoln's judgment, in selecting his Cabinet, and we are sure that his selection of his Cabinet will be a great blessing to the Union.

What Shall Tennessee Do?
We have saved the labor and trouble of saying that we would not support Lincoln, by our corresponding "No" in which we have called the attention of our fellow citizens to the fact that we are not in favor of Lincoln.

The Mass Meeting.
All persons favorable to the purpose of maintaining the Union, against all the forces of the South, and all within the limits of Tennessee, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Knoxville Going over to Secession.
Those who get up operations and parties, in the name of the Union, and who are in the habit of calling themselves Union men, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Treason and Perjury.
Every Senator and Representative in Congress of the United States, who has sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, is hereby notified that he is in violation of his oath.

Tennessee Volunteers.
THE SECRET COMING OUT!
Under the caption of "Tennessee Volunteers," the Nashville Union, the organ of Secession, has published an article.

The First Seceder.
The Devil was the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known.

What Shall We Do?
The war of the section has commenced, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section.

Partisans of the Bombardment.
We have perused a detailed account of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, given in the Richmond papers, and it amazes us in substance to this: Maj. Anderson surrendered before his quarters and barracks were destroyed.

Secession Brokers.
We have just received a letter from a gentleman residing in Middle Georgia, inquiring the money to renew his subscription to our paper, a man of sense and character.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.
We are pleased with Lincoln's judgment, in selecting his Cabinet, and we are sure that his selection of his Cabinet will be a great blessing to the Union.

What Shall Tennessee Do?
We have saved the labor and trouble of saying that we would not support Lincoln, by our corresponding "No" in which we have called the attention of our fellow citizens to the fact that we are not in favor of Lincoln.

The Mass Meeting.
All persons favorable to the purpose of maintaining the Union, against all the forces of the South, and all within the limits of Tennessee, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Knoxville Going over to Secession.
Those who get up operations and parties, in the name of the Union, and who are in the habit of calling themselves Union men, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Treason and Perjury.
Every Senator and Representative in Congress of the United States, who has sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, is hereby notified that he is in violation of his oath.

Tennessee Volunteers.
THE SECRET COMING OUT!
Under the caption of "Tennessee Volunteers," the Nashville Union, the organ of Secession, has published an article.

The First Seceder.
The Devil was the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known.

What Shall We Do?
The war of the section has commenced, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section.

Partisans of the Bombardment.
We have perused a detailed account of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, given in the Richmond papers, and it amazes us in substance to this: Maj. Anderson surrendered before his quarters and barracks were destroyed.

Secession Brokers.
We have just received a letter from a gentleman residing in Middle Georgia, inquiring the money to renew his subscription to our paper, a man of sense and character.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.
We are pleased with Lincoln's judgment, in selecting his Cabinet, and we are sure that his selection of his Cabinet will be a great blessing to the Union.

What Shall Tennessee Do?
We have saved the labor and trouble of saying that we would not support Lincoln, by our corresponding "No" in which we have called the attention of our fellow citizens to the fact that we are not in favor of Lincoln.

The Mass Meeting.
All persons favorable to the purpose of maintaining the Union, against all the forces of the South, and all within the limits of Tennessee, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Knoxville Going over to Secession.
Those who get up operations and parties, in the name of the Union, and who are in the habit of calling themselves Union men, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Treason and Perjury.
Every Senator and Representative in Congress of the United States, who has sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, is hereby notified that he is in violation of his oath.

Tennessee Volunteers.
THE SECRET COMING OUT!
Under the caption of "Tennessee Volunteers," the Nashville Union, the organ of Secession, has published an article.

The First Seceder.
The Devil was the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known.

What Shall We Do?
The war of the section has commenced, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section.

Partisans of the Bombardment.
We have perused a detailed account of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, given in the Richmond papers, and it amazes us in substance to this: Maj. Anderson surrendered before his quarters and barracks were destroyed.

Secession Brokers.
We have just received a letter from a gentleman residing in Middle Georgia, inquiring the money to renew his subscription to our paper, a man of sense and character.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.
We are pleased with Lincoln's judgment, in selecting his Cabinet, and we are sure that his selection of his Cabinet will be a great blessing to the Union.

What Shall Tennessee Do?
We have saved the labor and trouble of saying that we would not support Lincoln, by our corresponding "No" in which we have called the attention of our fellow citizens to the fact that we are not in favor of Lincoln.

The Mass Meeting.
All persons favorable to the purpose of maintaining the Union, against all the forces of the South, and all within the limits of Tennessee, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Knoxville Going over to Secession.
Those who get up operations and parties, in the name of the Union, and who are in the habit of calling themselves Union men, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Treason and Perjury.
Every Senator and Representative in Congress of the United States, who has sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, is hereby notified that he is in violation of his oath.

Tennessee Volunteers.
THE SECRET COMING OUT!
Under the caption of "Tennessee Volunteers," the Nashville Union, the organ of Secession, has published an article.

The First Seceder.
The Devil was the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known.

What Shall We Do?
The war of the section has commenced, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section.

Partisans of the Bombardment.
We have perused a detailed account of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, given in the Richmond papers, and it amazes us in substance to this: Maj. Anderson surrendered before his quarters and barracks were destroyed.

Secession Brokers.
We have just received a letter from a gentleman residing in Middle Georgia, inquiring the money to renew his subscription to our paper, a man of sense and character.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.
We are pleased with Lincoln's judgment, in selecting his Cabinet, and we are sure that his selection of his Cabinet will be a great blessing to the Union.

What Shall Tennessee Do?
We have saved the labor and trouble of saying that we would not support Lincoln, by our corresponding "No" in which we have called the attention of our fellow citizens to the fact that we are not in favor of Lincoln.

The Mass Meeting.
All persons favorable to the purpose of maintaining the Union, against all the forces of the South, and all within the limits of Tennessee, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Knoxville Going over to Secession.
Those who get up operations and parties, in the name of the Union, and who are in the habit of calling themselves Union men, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Treason and Perjury.
Every Senator and Representative in Congress of the United States, who has sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, is hereby notified that he is in violation of his oath.

Tennessee Volunteers.
THE SECRET COMING OUT!
Under the caption of "Tennessee Volunteers," the Nashville Union, the organ of Secession, has published an article.

The First Seceder.
The Devil was the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known.

What Shall We Do?
The war of the section has commenced, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section.

Partisans of the Bombardment.
We have perused a detailed account of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, given in the Richmond papers, and it amazes us in substance to this: Maj. Anderson surrendered before his quarters and barracks were destroyed.

Secession Brokers.
We have just received a letter from a gentleman residing in Middle Georgia, inquiring the money to renew his subscription to our paper, a man of sense and character.

Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.
We are pleased with Lincoln's judgment, in selecting his Cabinet, and we are sure that his selection of his Cabinet will be a great blessing to the Union.

What Shall Tennessee Do?
We have saved the labor and trouble of saying that we would not support Lincoln, by our corresponding "No" in which we have called the attention of our fellow citizens to the fact that we are not in favor of Lincoln.

The Mass Meeting.
All persons favorable to the purpose of maintaining the Union, against all the forces of the South, and all within the limits of Tennessee, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Knoxville Going over to Secession.
Those who get up operations and parties, in the name of the Union, and who are in the habit of calling themselves Union men, are earnestly requested to meet here on Monday next, at a grand Mass Meeting to be held.

Treason and Perjury.
Every Senator and Representative in Congress of the United States, who has sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, is hereby notified that he is in violation of his oath.

Tennessee Volunteers.
THE SECRET COMING OUT!
Under the caption of "Tennessee Volunteers," the Nashville Union, the organ of Secession, has published an article.

The First Seceder.
The Devil was the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known, and he is the first Secessionist ever known.

What Shall We Do?
The war of the section has commenced, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section, and it is a war of the section.

Partisans of the Bombardment.
We have perused a detailed account of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, given in the Richmond papers, and it amazes us in substance to this: Maj. Anderson surrendered before his quarters and barracks were destroyed.

Secession Brokers.
We have just received a letter from a gentleman residing in Middle Georgia, inquiring the money to renew his subscription to our paper, a man of sense and character.