PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION!
We need the money, and must have it.

The Worlds Fair will close, Oct. 31st. Are you going? If not, you ought to.

Walter Craig, and T. C. Eastman of Summertown, gave us an appreciation call Wednesday.

Dr. Tabler, has moved into the residence on Joiner street, formerly occupied by J. B. Gaither.

Miss Mary Schade, who has been very ill for several weeks is, we are glad to say improving nicely.

Jas. T. Dunn, and sisters have returned from Chicago, and report a nice time while in the windy city.

Joe McDougal, who has been quite sick for some time, we are glad to note is very much improved.

We desire to thank Joe B. Schade, of the Lawrence Union, for assisting us this week while our printer was sick.

SALT! SALT! A car load of Salt at Barnett & Schlatters. Special rates in quantities, or to merchants.

Sam Ellison, of Green Hill Ala. was in the burg Monday, and gave us a pleasant call while in town.

Misses Lucile and Grace Gilbert, left Tuesday, to enter the Conservatory of Music at Nashville.

H. B. Sowell, and C. M. Berg, have been in Louisville, for several days, in the interest of an excursion to this place.

We have upon our desk, a correspondence from Seven, and one from St. Joseph, which want of space forbids us publishing this week, but they will appear in our next issue.

We are sorry to note the death of Miss Tenie Fleeman of New Prospect. She died in her sixteenth year, just as the bud of youth began to blossom into womanhood, she was called to regions beyond the stars.

All parties desiring to aid or assist in a suit of Mandamus against the county court of Lawrence county, to compel them to levy a rail road tax as required by section 1269 of the code of Tennessee, should see P. Buchanan, F. M. Lincoln, or R. H. Harvey. All of these gentlemen will be in town next Monday.

Married.

Will Lumpkins of this place and Miss Mattie Springer, of Waynesboro, were united in marriage last Wednesday. Mr. Lumpkins is one of Lawrenceburg enterprising business men and Miss Springer is one of Waynesboro's fairest young ladies. May their union be a happy one and their future be successful.

Rates To World's Fair.

May be too high for some of our people, but if you want Cooking and Heating Stoves, House-Furnishing Goods, Granite-ware, Stone and Queensware, Cutlery, Lamps, and Lamp Goods, at Rock Bottom prices, call at Schade & Son's. Their selected stock for 1893-4 is the best ever offered this side of Nashville.

You will regret it, if you don't patronize them when needing any thing in their line.

SALT! SALT! A car load of Salt at Barnett & Schlatters. Special rates in quantities, or to merchants.

Up to the hour of going to press, Will Richter, who was shot by Joe Simms, is still alive, but no hope of recovery. His physicians say that death is inevitable.

Legal blanks of all kinds for sale at the DEMOCRAT office.

Mrs. Kittie Johns, of Nashville is visiting Mrs. Dr. Tabler, on Joiner Street.

To The Citizens Of Lawrenceburg, And Vicinity.

Brethering and Friend-

Believing that we all realize the great need of a revival of pure religion among all denominations in our midst, and among all classes; and beholding as we do, the wreckage and ruin being wrought among us every day by sin of every degree. I, therefore, in the name of our Heavenly Father, the immortal souls of men, of home and of the highest interest of our commonwealth; beg that we wipe out all lines of distinction, and lay aside every hindrance, and come together as one man, to the help of the lord against the mighty, and work together as Christians for the salvation of souls and the glory of the Master.

Under the leadership of Rev. W. M. Leftwich, D. D. who will begin a series of services next Sunday Oct 1st, at 11:00 A. M. at the Methodist Church. Doctor Leftwich is one of the finest preachers, and most earnest divines in the south, this is indeed a rare opportunity for us all to do something for the moral and religious elevation of our community.

May God help us all to do our whole duty.

Of course, all ministers living outside the town, will receive a cordial welcome when they can come; but those who live in the town, are hereby besought, and I do plead with you Brethren and Pastors of our sister churches, be present at every service, and help in this great work.

Your Servant,

W. B. Pattie.

Pastor

Had you heard of it? or do you know the man that wrote "Tara-boom-de-ay." "The Man in the Moon," or "After the Ball is over?"

If you have not, if you owe M. S. McDougal any thing, call and settle your account, and he will tell you all about it, or write you a new piece—A Receipt.

Kronk keeps saddles, and sells them cheap. Give him a call.

Go to W. W. Kronk's if you want a nice dinner set.

CROWSON.

ED. DEMOCRAT:

Death has again invaded our neighborhood and left us to mourn the loss of another friend. On last Thursday at 8:00 P. M. Thomas Powers passed quietly away, surrounded by friends and loved ones. He was a devout member of the M. E. Church south, and was sixty five years of age. For many years he was an invalid, and his sufferings were borne with christian fortitude.

Uncle Tommie has gone from our midst. His eyes are closed, his lips are sealed, his aged hands are folded upon his breast, and he sleeps his last long sleep on the hill side.

When the spring comes, the oak and maple will put on their green garniture again, the flowers will unfold their many-tinted beauties to the sun, and the willow will go on sighing to the end; but his heavy eye-lids will never lift again that his eyes may brighten at the sight of beauty, or moist at the sound of a sigh.

He lies shrouded in death's cold embrace, but is that the end? Does life end at the grave? We believe "there is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the beautiful little stars will be spread out before us like the islands that slumber on the ocean; and where the beautiful beings that pass before us like visions, will stay in our presence forever."

Kind words, friendly smiles, thoughtful actions and generous deeds, marked the every day life of our departed friend.

He has left a noble example for the emulation of those who remain. He leaves a noble wife and several children who have our sincere sympathy in their bereavement and sorrow.

A Friend.

Lawrenceburg Institute Notes.

W. C. Spence, W. T. Nixon, W. R. Smith, J. M. Gilmore, Judge J. A. Simms, of our town, Capt. J. B. Bond, of Summertown, and G. T. Hughes of Columbia, came to see us Tuesday morning. Capt. Bond and G. T. Hughes made interesting talks to the students. We appreciated their visit and trust they will come again.

J. C. Stewart, J. M. Gilmore, J. M. Alford, Polk Comer, and Bro. Paris Simms were with us Thursday morning. Bro. Simms opened school for us.

The visitors volunteered to say many pleasant things about the school, its discipline, and its method of imparting instruction.

One man said the children could not help learning if they wanted to. We thank them for their encouraging presence and for their enthusiastic words.

More students have entered and there are others on the road. Let every body come and see us.

W. T. Chafin, prin.

A proverbial "quill driver" gets off the following, and from the tone of his expression, it is reasonable to suppose that he has made a miserable mistake, and is trying to vent his "spleen" by hurling bitter epithets at the fair name of lovely woman.

"Women are wise on sudden, and fools on reflection.

Women laugh when they can, and weep when they please.

A foolish woman is known by her finery.

A melon and a woman is hard to choose.

A bag of flea's is easier to watch than one woman.

A young wife is an old man's post horse to the grave.

A widow is as dangerous as a horse that has cast its rider.

A gossiping woman talks about every body, and every body talks about her.

Who takes an eel by the tail, or a woman at her word, holds nothing.

A house full of daughters, is a cellar full of sour beer.

A deaf husband and a blind wife, make a happy couple.

One hair of a maiden's head pulls harder than ten yoke of oxen. Maidens want nothing but husbands—then want everything."

The Nashville American will be the most important Democratic newspaper published in Tennessee during the present year. It will contain all the political news from Washington, giving the names of persons appointed to office in the departments at Washington and to positions in Tennessee; will give the general news from all parts of the world, and will be of greater value in many ways to citizens of Tennessee than any other paper. The price of the Weekly American is $1 a year. Subscriptions received at this office. We will furnish the American and the LAWRENCE DEMOCRAT at $1.65 a year, in advance.

I will sell my entire Photograph Gallery to any one, and learn them the trade free of charge. Call and see me at once, for I will leave town in ten days if I do not sell.
