Unpleasant.

A cold rain fell yesterday, rendering the atmosphere quite cool.

To the Public.

Mr. R. A. Brown is authorized to receive subscriptions and advertisements for the CHRONICLE.

Religious Notice.

Prayer meeting will be held at the Methodist Church, this morning, at 9½ o'clock. and preaching this evening, at 7½ o'clock.

Emory and Henry College, Va.

We have received an invitation to the celebration of the Thirtieth Anniversary of the Calliopean Society of Emory and Henry College, Va., to take place on the 7th proximo.

The Habeas Corpus.

We learn that Brooks, the murderer of Capt. Ragle, of Clinton, who is now boarding with Sheriff Gossett's pets, will apply for a writ of habeas corpus. He evidently don't like his quarters.

Personal.

Capt. Wm. Rule left this city yesterday for New York and the eastern cities on business connected with this office.

Capt. Jacques, of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad, also left yesterday on a trip east.

The Lecture Friday Night.

Prof. John Moffat's leoture, as announced some days ago, it will be remembered, will take place at Hoxsie's Hall on Friday night. The address will be literare; Subject, The Scottish Poet, Burns, with readings from his works. Mr. Moffatt being a countryman of the great bard, will do the subject ample justice.

Injured.

We regret to learn that Mr. M. A. Cliborne, of the police force, on yesterday received a severe fall, which it is feared will incapacitate him from duty for some time. Mr. C. is an efficient officer and the police force can ill afford to dispense with his services.

Beard-ed in His Den.

Those temperance men who met at the establishment on the corner of Cumberland and State streets last Monday night, yesterday were in the same category as the Irish soldier who was recovering from a twenty-four hours' leave—"sober, and sorry for it."

Accident.

On yesterday, Conductor Lyle, of the E. T., Va. and Ga. Railroad, stepped through a platform at one of the stations along the line, throwing his entire weight on one leg, and bruising it painfully. This is the first time Harry ever "put his foot in it."

Merited Compliment.

We saw yesterday a letter from one of the highest officials of the National Division, S. of T. of N. A., in which he speaks in the highest terms of the efficiency of Mr. Wm. Wood, late Grand W. P. of East Tennessee. Such a tribute is no more than Mr. W. deserves, and coming from the source it does, is as great a compliment as a temperance man could receive.

Pic-Nic of Colored Scholars.

The pic-nic came off yesterday pursuant to notice, and would doubtless have been a success had the weather permitted. A special train from Maryville arrived in the morning with a large number of scholars, who proceeded to the Church on Clinch street, where they were joined by the schools of the city. The procession was formed and marched to Gay street, down Gay to Main, and thence to East Knoxville. The turnout was large, and presented a very creditable display. Flags were carried at intervals in the procession, and all seemed to enjoy themselves on the way. The day was spent at Creswell's School-house, in the suburbs, the weather being too unfavorable for a day of outdoor enjoyment.

A Corn Stealer Caught.

On yesterday George Mason, alias George Baker, was arrested at the instance of Mr. Chas. Walker, charged with stealing corn, and brought before Esquire Jourolmon for trial.

Mr. Walker resides on Mrs. Baker's farm, about a mile and a half from this city, and George having been a habitue of the farm, knew the location of everything about the place, and helped himself to a lot of corn. On the trial he said he had purchased the grain from Mr. McClannahan, but that gentleman being appealed to denied all knowledge of the matter.

After hearing the evidence, the guilt of the prisoner was deemed conclusively established and he was sent to jail.

Farmers' Club.

The Monroe County Farmers' Club organized at Sweetwater, on the 30th ult., is, we are gratified to learn, likely to prove a great aid to the farmers in that vicinity. We hope our friends will keep us posted in regard to the workings of the Club. The following are the officers: E. A. Taylor, President; J. T. Lenoir and W. J. Fowler, Vice Presidents; C. B. Woodward, Secretary; G. W. Gaines, Treasurer.

The next meeting of the association will take place on the 4th Saturday of the present month.

In Working Order.

We learned yesterday from the Grand Scribe, Mr. B. J. Srephenson, that the Grand Division of East Tennessee, Sons of Temperance, was now considered in working order by the National Division of North America. We are glad to know this, and hope the brethren composing this body will themselves work and sustain it. They must sustain it until it is self-sustaining.

Shop-Lifting.

Yesterday afternoon, two colored juveniles entered the establishment of Barry & McDannell, and while one made a pretext of looking at some toys the other embraced the opportunity of filching a cocoanut, which was successfully taken off, but soon returned by one of her more honest colleagues, who disclaimed any complicity in the theft. Rogues stand no chance while Sproul's eagle eye is upon them.

"Three other persons are stated to have died up to the above date, but certificates of death not having been given for them, they are not included in this report.

"J. G. CABLE, M. D., President."

Letter from Greeneville.

GREENEVILLE, TENN., May 8th, 1870.

Editors Chronicle: In common with all true Republicans in East Tennessee, we of Greeneville rejoice that you have succeeded in establishing a first-class Republican Daily in Knoxville. Knoxville being the commercial metropolis of East Tennessee, the importance of having a central organ at that point has been long conceded; and now that we have such a newspaper, it is the duty of the people to give it a support which will justify the proprietors in making it one of the best papers in the State. After reading the partisan slang which comprises the greater portion of the editorials in the Whig and Press and Herald, it is a real pleasure to me to take up the CHCONICLE, and read its solid, truthful and dispassionate articles; and I hope and believe that it will continue to treat political questions in a sensible and truthful manner, leaving slang to those who have no better defense for the cause which they have espoused.

SUMMER RESORT.

As the time is now at hand when pleasure-seekers and invalids will be on the lookout for some rural retreat in which to spend the hot summer months, I have often thought that no good reason exists why Greeneville should not be made an acceptable and pleasant summer resort. Although we take pride in our town being a growing and a business place, the houses are not yet so high, or the rows of buildings so long as to be tiresome to the eye; and, even if our town should fail to amuse or interest the visitor, a well-fitted-up rig from the livery stable will, in a very few hours, place him among the ivy and laurel in the coves of the mountains, where Nature's work alone is visible. To the admirer of Nature, Greeneville presents many attractions at this season of the year. The green woods surround it like a belt; fields of growing wheat wave on the surrounding hills; the majestic mountains in the distance are the admiration of every visitor, and of every one who passes over our railroad.

THE JUDICIAL ELECTION.

The race for Circuit Judge for the First Judicial Circuit will be made by our present Judge, E. E. Gillenwaters, and Mr. A. J. Brown, of Jonesboro'. It is well known that the Conservative newspapers all over the State have had a great deal to say about selecting the best men, without regard to political opinions, to fill the Judicial offices of the State. We have not yet heard of a single Conservative newspaper, politician, or as much as a corporal's guard of Conservatives of any kind advocating the claims of a Republican for any position whatever. In this district we expect the Conservatives to vote, to a man, for Brown, though not one of them will pretend honestly to say that Judge Gillenwaters is not an honest and pure man, and in every respect far superior to Brown in intellectual and legal attainments. For Chancellor and District Attorney we have as yet no candidates, but it is supposed that Judge H. C. Smith will be a candidaie for re-election.

IRON FURNACES.

There are in Greene county two furnaces, which have been turning out daily from fifteen to eighteen tons of the best charcoal pig iron. These furnaces, with the land and all the improvements, have cost the company about two hundred thousand dollars, and they have employed regularly from one to two hundred hands. The new tariff bill, if it should become a law, will very seriously affect these manufacturers, and will probably compel these works to cease operations entirely. Indeed, the manager of one of these works said to me a few days ago that, under the proposed tariff bill, iron could not be manufactured in East Tennessee at all. There is now accumulated from twenty to thirty thousand dollars worth of metal, which it is impossible to sell at remunerative prices until it is ascertained what disposition will be made of the pending tariff bill.

FARMERS' ASSOCIATION.

Greene county farmers and mechanics have been very slow to appreciate the importance of organization. On last Monday, it being County Court day, a meeting was held at the court house for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps looking to the organization of a Farmers' and Mechanics' Association. It seemed, though, that the farmers, who have studiously tracked the footsteps of their fathers and grandfathers, without any improvement and unconscious of the fact that the world moves, looked upon the concern with suspicion, as though they took it to be a catch-penny trap of the sharpers. The professional men, who are able to do nothing but talk, entered into the work with commendable zeal, and a few of our enterprising farmers gave to it their hearty endorsement, and to these last we must look for the success or failure of the enterprise.

QUINCY.

To the Voters of Knox County.

Fellow-Citizens: Believing that I received a plurality of the legal votes cast in the late election for Trustee in your County, and Capt. James S. Boyd having received a certificate of election from the Commissioner of Registration, I saw proper to [illegible] with him the right to hold the [illegible] brought before your County C[illegible] after one day's deliberation, decided, [illegible] the consent of Capt. Boyd and myself, th[illegible] the election should be declared void, and ordered another election, to be held on Saturday, 14th instant. I am a candidate before the people for re-election. I have held the office for two years, and have always endeavored to discharge the duties thereof with honesty and fidelity. I thank my friends for support in the past, and respectfully solicit a continuance of their favors. The people must judge between my competitor and myself, and to their decision I will gracefully submit.

FINANCIAL.

Knoxville Quotations of Money and Stocks.

OFFICE KNOXVILLE CHRONICLE,
Thursday, May 9, 1870.

The quotations of Government Bonds thus far this month have changed but little, (the reduction of 3 cents on the issue of '62, '64 and '65 being caused by the payment of the six months interest due this first), while the latter part of April they advanced from 3 to 5 cents. The week ending April 30th was one of great activity on the Stock Exchange in New York. Government Bonds were the great feature of the market. Heretofore the purchases have been made almost entirely for investment. They are beginning, however, to attract the attention of speculators, who have commenced buying for the purpose of holding large lots for higher prices. Last year 1862's were selling over 1.25, and 1867's over 1.23. The money which would naturally have been invested in them last January, but for the disturbances of public confidence by the introduction of Boutwell's Funding bill into Congress, has been held over, and now, when all probability of the passage of it has been removed, this uninvested capital, which has been increasing daily, is being invested in Government Bonds as fast as they are offered, while the amount of these bonds placed permanently out of the market has been increasing much faster. Bonds, therefore are scarce, and in short supply. The following statement (estimated) of how the national debt is held, will throw considerable light on the future course of the bond market:

Total amount of Government bonded debt,		$2,100,000,000
Amounts held in Europe,	1,200,000,000
In Sinking Fund,	110,000,000
Banking Dep't at Washington,	400,000,000
With permanent investors,	150,000,000
With savings bank, insurance, trust, and other financial companies,	90,000,000	$1,950,000,000
Total amount of bonds unaccounted for,		150,000,000

Out of this balance of $150,000,000, which we will suppose are in the market, the government will probably buy and cancel during the remainder of this year $75,000,000. If Europe takes the usual amount, say $80,000,000, then the prices must advance to very high figures to induce investors to sell.

Knoxville Wholesale Market.

Review of the Market for the week ending Monday, May 9, 1870.

Corn very scarce and in great demand; worth 1.17½ to 1.20, sacked in depot; shippers charging 1.22½ to 1.25 per bushel by the car load.

The bacon market fairly active at 14 to 14½; from wagons; packed and delivered in depot, 15 to 15½ for hog round; clear sides, packed, 17 to 17½; shoulders, 13½ to 14.

Lard, none on the market; worth 17 to 18 from wagons.

Flour firm at previous quotations; only a local demand prevails.

Wheat, but little offering, and no demand for shipment. The growing wheat crop promises favorable. Oats not doing so well. The fruit crop promises well. We are therefore hopeful for the future, and anticipate a plentiful harvest and prosperous trade.
