THE OLD, OLD SUBSCRIBE

How dear to my heart are the old things in general, With fond recollection presents them to view. Old Pewter, old tin, old Friends and old china. Old books and old songs are far better than new. And old shoes for comfort (We need new ones badly) The old corns, I shall always hold dear. But the old, old subscriber, I mention him gladly. Ever faithful and true, he renews the year. The old, old subscriber, the dear old subscriber, The faithful old friend who renews every year. Old wine and old sweetbreads, the other the better. The old folk at home - wiser in home without them! The old swimming hole - it must not be forgotten - The Jewel of Memory's whole domain; Old times and old customs, e'en the old - times (We'll have to admit we cannot turkey trot) But of old institution, if one must take chances, The old, old subscriber's the best of the lot. The old, old subscriber, the dear old subscriber, The paid up subscriber's the best of the lot.
