

SPRING OPENING

Thursday March 15

All ready for Spring! This is the condition in our store. You will be ready too, soon after inspecting the values we have prepared for you. We know your wants, and have worked hard for weeks past to get in shape to fill them. We succeeded so well, and our purchases for Spring were so fortunate, that we have a pleasant surprise for you. Better do your Spring buying now. Why not have the things so you can enjoy them at the opening of Spring, especially when it will be so hard to get the kind of things you like later.

MUCH EXTRA WORK IN MARCH

It's between seasons now when few persons respire as much as health demands. The result is double work for the kidneys, for the kidneys must throw out waste matter from the system that is eliminated through the pores when persons respire. Overworked, weak or disordered kidneys need help now. B. H. Stone, Reading, Pa., writes: "Whenever I need a kidney remedy I rely on Foley Kidney Pills. They have been worth their weight in gold to me." - For Sale by L. B. Anderson, Gainesboro.

COFFEY - WHEELER.

A wedding of unusual interest was that of Mr. J. C. Coffey, of Lewisburg, Tenn., and Miss Bell Wheeler, Gainesboro R. 4. The wedding occurred at the home of bride's Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Rev. W. N. Wheeler, of Nashville, brother of the bride, officiating. A number of friends were present. The bride is one of the choicest young ladies of the county, and the groom is one of the leading and influential farmers of Marshall county and judging from what the bride is worthy of he is a good and noble man. Mr. and Mrs. Coffey left immediately for Lewisburg, near where they will reside. The Sentinel extends congratulations.

Lieut. Frank Richmond Married in Maryland. FOSTERBURG, Md., March 10. -Leaving the Colburn home ostensibly for walk shortly after midnight tonight, after having been playing a family game of bridge, Lieut. Joseph Franklin Richmond, Tenth U. S. calvary, and his wife Suzan Haroselle Colburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blackstone Colburn went to the Presbyterian church and were married by the Rev. J. N. Beall. The surprise was complete when the couple returned home and announced their marriage. Lieut. Richmond is a son of Joseph F. Richmond of Cookeville, Tenn. He was with his regiment in Mexico all summer. -Nashville Tennessean.

One of our citizens who occasionally wipes the dishes for his wife, became tired of the job and refused, saying that "it is not a man's work." Not feeling disposed to lose his help she brought the bible out to convince him of his error and read as follows from 2nd Kings, 21: 18. "And will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down." It is needless to say that he is still doing his occasional stunt.
