About the time a fellow thinks he's a "big gun," someone comes along and fires him.

An optimist is a fellow who loans a guy $10 when said guy already owes him $20.

Looks as if a lot of the girls were actively participating in the "paint up" campaign.

Maybe the reason the ocean is blue is because it has so many things thrown up to it.

When a man is so cheap he won't buy a pair of glasses he makes a spectacle of himself

The fellow who watches the clock can hardly expect to be but one of the hands.

After traveling across the continent you wonder how Columbus could avoid discovering America.

A fellow's best girl may not care much about the future, but it seems as if she is always ready for the present.

If a man would only put as much "pep" in his work as he does in his cussin, there would be more rich folks.

Some times a fellow gets pretty well along in years before he realizes that brains were given him not solely for hair fertilizer.

What has become of the old fashioned boy who used to take pride in telling how many cords of stovewood he could saw in a week?

The way to help people is not so much being good to them as being good with them, a sort of co-operative kindness.

There are some men who make it a point to treat every other man's wife well but their own—have smiles for all but their kindred.

The influence which you start today in the home, the neighborhood, or the social circle, be it ever so small, will roll forward through the ages, growing wider and deeper and stronger with every passing hour, and blighting or blessing as it rolls.

In unity there is strength. This is never more true than in home. A home strong to meet adversity and the most adverse circumstances in life is where there is union of the hearts and union of hands. There will be joy in such a home despite dark days and peace despite the turmoils of life.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McCauley, of Algood, spent Saturday night as guests of Mr and Mrs. J. L. McCauley. Rev. McCauley delivered an interesting sermon at the M. E. Church that evening, his subject being "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." The singing was under the direction of Orley Warren, of Cookeville. They left Sunday morning for Red Springs, where they will conduct a revival meeting.

★ Bible Thoughts for the Week

GREATOR WORKS.—Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the work that I do, shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do.—John 14: 12.

IF YE ABIDE:—If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.—John 15: 7.

RAISING THE DEAD:—Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?—Acts 26: 8.

NOT BE AFRAID:—Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid; for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.—Isaiah 12: 2.

JOY OF SALVATION:—With joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of Salvation.—Isaiah 12: 3.

WATCH:—What I say unto you I say unto all Watch.—Mark 13: 37.

Team Die From Result of Bee Stings.

T. M. Ragland, of Flynn's Creek, one of the leading farmers of that section, lost a fine mule and horse last Thursday, death resulting from stings inflicted by honey bees. Mr. Ragland had been hauling wool and had left his team to get a drink of water, and while he was gone the team moved up several yards and rammed the wagon tongue through the fence, upsetting two hives of bees. In trying to rescue the team from the raging bees, Mr. Ragland was severely stung about the face and body and twice in one of his eyes. His condition is improving and it is hoped that he will soon recover.

The mule lived an hour and a half and the horse about 7 hours.

Fashion Show Big Event.

The autumn fashion show put on by Draper & Draper Co., last Thursday, was a big feature of the week. The Red Springs band furnished music for the occasion and everything passed off pleasantly. Both the afternoon and night shows were attended by large crowds, many of them from the rural sections. Some of the most beautiful garments ever shown in this town, were attractively displayed and modeled to a queen's taste. Under the direction of Misses Lellie Draper and Blanch Darwin. Miss Bonnie Shoulders was awarded the prize for being the best model. The prize was offered by a number of traveling men who were here for the night
