THE SPENDING CRAZE.

One of the anomalies of the present situation is that almost everybody assumes a crash of some kind to be ahead, but those who say the most about it are doing the least to avert what can easily be turned aside if people generally will use a modicum of the common sense with which the genus homo is popularly supposed to be endowed.

But when forty to fifty thousand chauffeurs are employed in a single city at wages from twenty to forty per cent higher than during the war; when single families employ the services and absorb the lives of a dozen or sometimes forty to fifty servants; when flunkies by the thousands hang upon the return of their financial masters, waiting to jump at their words, whether sensible or senseless; when robust human energy at this rate is needlessly absorbed by the few for no other reason except the fact that they have the money with which to pay for it, while men are needed to work the land, to produce the food of the people and to provide something like adequate transportation; when theater tickets will sell at five dollars and up; when moving-picture relays stretch crowds out into the street, obstructing traffic both day and night; when furs are bought on the installment plan to be worn in August; when men by the hundreds are using Pullman sleepers who do not know how to turn on the water in the lavatories, but must ride in a Pullman or pay fines to the union; when boys who never earned a dollar are driving cars by the thousand or sporting twelve to twenty dollar silk shirts—when these things are going on unchecked week after week, month after month with no sign of retreating sanity, it is time to drive a stake and to inquire just how far we have progressed along the road to national oblivion—Country Gentleman.

Down with the flunky now, down the human appendix in all forms! Let every man dust his own clothes, open his own doors, yes, black his own boots and wash his own face for a while, and let every man forego expensive pleasure and everything that he cannot pay for. Let us do all this at least until we have succeeded in making a decent payment upon the interest of the debt that we have piled up as the result of war. It is this, or it is the alternative of national idiocy and national bankruptcy—Country Gentleman.

Adoption by the House of Representatives of the Tennessee Legislature Wednesday by a vote of 49 to 47 is taken as being the end of the long fight for ratification of the Susan B. Anthony Woman Suffrage amendment to the Federal constitution by which the right of the women to vote in all elections in the nation on an equal footing with men is granted. Tennessee is the thirty-sixth state to ratify the amendment and it is thought that Secretary Colby of President Wilson's cabinet will at once issue a proclamation declaring the said amendment a part of the constitution and binding on all the states. Both of Fayette county's representatives in the present legislature voted against ratification, Hon. J. B. Summers in the senate and Hon. H. P. Crawford in the house.

When approximately one hundred Southern Baptist missionaries sailed on the Canadian Pacific liner, the Empress of Japan, from Vancouver, British Columbia, Tuesday, August 17, for fields in the Orient, they formed the largest group of evangelists of the Christian religion that has ever been sent to foreign fields at a single time by a single denomination since the beginning of Christian missions.

A woman's fondest hope is to stay young. She often resorts to paints, powders and cosmetics to hide her years. Some women pay large sums to so-called "Beauty Doctors" in the belief that money will buy youth. Others wear girlish dresses, thinking they can fool the world about their age. But no one is deceived. The more you try to hide your age, the more it shows.

There is but one thing that holds old age back, and that is health. Sickness and weakness bring old age early in life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a building-up medicine for women. It makes them healthy and strong when they suffer from women's troubles. It keeps them looking young by keeping them well. It is a woman's tonic for the frail, the delicate and those who are nervous, dizzy and who have backache and dragging pains. Favorite Prescription is altogether vegetable and without a particle of alcohol. It is safe to take. Try it now. In tablet or liquid form at all druggists, or send 10c for trial package of the tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.

The papers tell us that prices of the necessities are tending downward and that things are going to cost less than in the past. But with that announcement are others, that coal continues to advance, freights are advancing, passenger costs advancing, street car fares, gas and electric charges advancing, wages advancing in nearly all lines, and about the only things we find that cost any less are the things that farmers produce. Cotton is declining, cattle, hogs and sheep already below cost of production so that growers are dropping out of the business and endangering the supply of these meats, grain going down in price, and all the time the meats, lards, etc., made from the live stock, the flour and meal made from the grains, and the goods made from the cotton are all costing consumers just about as much and in a few cases more than they have been costing. It appears to one who looks on that the farmers' stuff is declining in price while everything he must buy is increasing and everything everybody else has to sell increasing. Hides are down to less than half a year ago prices, but leather and shoes are no lower than last fall.

Live stock prices are lower now compared to prices in 1914 than prices of any of the other principal commodities. Hogs this month are about 63 per cent higher than they were in July of 1914, and steers are but 56 per cent higher than in July, 1914. But pig iron is 333 per cent higher than in July, 1914; building material, 132 per cent higher; cotton cloth, 327 per cent higher; crude petroleum, 249 per cent higher, and wages in New York factories 119 per cent higher. And if we take the average of the various commodities other than agricultural we find it to be 261 per cent higher than in July, 1914—Ex.

I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. I took a double dose of it according to the directions and went to sleep. At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping place a well man." adv.

The Empress of Japan, Canadian Pacific Liner, on which practically 100 Southern Baptist missionaries sailed from Vancouver, B. C., August 17, for China and Japan. Tennessee representatives on the boat were: Dr. Mary L. King (1), and son and daughter, Percy and Frances (2), Chattanooga, assigned to medical work at Pochow, China. The photographs of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Tompkins, Sparta, assigned to medical work at Yingtak, China, were not available.

When approximately one hundred Southern Baptist missionaries sailed on the Canadian Pacific liner, the Empress of Japan, from Vancouver, British Columbia, Tuesday, August 17, for fields in the Orient, they formed the largest group of evangelists of the Christian religion that has ever been sent to foreign fields at a single time by a single denomination since the beginning of Christian missions.

Christian doctors, nurses, teachers, scientists and women workers, and one expert in farming and stock raising. These will supplement the work of the evangelists in that they will seek to relieve bodily suffering, teach the boys and girls, pave the way for more efficient homes by interesting mothers in sanitary housekeeping, and by their good work create in the minds of the people a favorable attitude toward the Christian religion. The instructor in agriculture and stock raising will undertake to reach many Chinese farmers with better methods of production and thus prove that the Christian missionary is the farmer's friend. The majority of the missionaries were born on the farm.

World Program Is Planned. Ten foreign fields are occupied by Southern Baptists today in Africa, Asia, Europe, South America and Mexico. The work in all these fields will be strengthened and enlarged as a result of the larger funds made available for foreign missions through the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. New fields have been opened in Europe and the Near East and a million dollars has been appropriated for launching an intensive work in Russia the moment the doors of opportunity are opened there. The Board is greatly strengthening its work in Palestine and hopes ultimately to give the gospel to hundreds of thousands of people in the land which witnessed the earthly labors of Jesus Christ.
