

County Correspondence

RENTON.

Farmers here have had splendid rains. There is a good season in the ground. Crops are growing rapidly as the weather is what is needed to make it grow. Irish potatoes, beans and cabbage are in and we lack some yet of starving.

Protracted meeting began at the Presbyterian church here, yesterday. It will be conducted by the Presbyterian and Methodist pastors, assisted by other denominations. Meetings will be at Presbyterian church.

The many friends of 'Squire N. B. Dunn regretted to hear of his death, Friday evening. Mr. Dunn was for many years a member of the Polk county court and was an influential member of that body and was chairman of the county court several terms.

Next week circuit meets here. There are several cases to be tried at this term.

We learn that Perry Athens a crippled boy, got badly hurt at Zion. He went to church with his brother, in a buggy, drawn by a mule. The mule got scared and turned the buggy over, and it is thought that the boy's shoulder was broken.

Several from here attended the funeral of N. B. Dunn, at Etowah.

A number from here spent the 4th of July visiting Chickamauga park and the interned German sailors there.

The Federal exemption board consisting of J. D. Nuchols, Joe E. Williams and A. E. Love have made out the list of those registered for military service in Polk county and have sent it to the war department of war. The names will likely be drawn there and the board will likely pass on their physical qualifications and recom those to be exempted.

Sheriff Abe Lillard is recovering rapidly and will soon be out again.
