Headed for Bryan.

The New York Hearald is at last inclined to the belief that Mr. Bryan is going to be elected president in November. The Herald concedes Maryland and declares that both Indiana and Illinois are headed for the Nebraskan. West Virginia is also put in the Bryan column. Of the situation in Illinois the Herald says:

It is well known that the republicans are weak in Chicago because of the strike of the building trades unions there. The canvass of the state indicates forcibly that the republican majority outside the city of Chicago may be insufficient to overcome the democratic majority of that municipality.

Another cause for anxiety at repubican national headquarters is the insufficiency of the campaign fund, Where a dollar was spent four years ago, the managers can now spend only half as much.

The fact that 12,000 people stood, or sat, for three hours listening to and cheering Bourke Cockran in Chicago, shows that trouble is on in Illinois for Hanna. The further fact that the republican campaign manager is keeping the track hot running back and forth between New York and Chicago indicates that both states are in danger .-Chattanooga News.
