

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE.

VOL. XXII. NO. 11.

CAMDEN, TENNESSEE.

MARCH 8, 1901.

LEADS THEM ALL!
The New Royal Sewing Machine

$18 to $20.

SOLD BY

T. H. BATEMAN,

West Side, Camden, Tenn.

DEALER IN

MONUMENTS, TOMBS, TABLETS

Of the Best Quality American and Italian Marble and Granite.

FURNITURE.

Carpets, Rugs, Matting,

Wall Paper, Curtains and Fixtures,

PICTURES AND FRAMES,

Household Goods,

ETC., ETC.

CONSOLIDATED!

Claude Hudson & Co., proprietors of the "Bee Hive," have purchased the Fry & Corbitt stock of hardware and consolidated the two big stocks which form the greatest aggregation of bargains ever shown in Camden.

In this combination you will find clothing, drugs, hats, hardware, shoes, groceries, dry goods and Bob Ayres' tobacco.

At the "Stock Store" brick, up town.

Claude Hudson & Company, Proprietors.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS.

D. G. Hudson was in Nashville Tuesday.

Elihu Hudson is clerking for T. J. Lowry.

J. B. Vickrey went to Huntingdon Saturday.

Tom Pafford of Lexington was here this week.

B. F. Davidson of Way was in the city Monday.

The sarsaparilla season will be due in two weeks.

J. R. Davidson of Johnsonville was here Monday.

E. Tippett of Coxburgh was in the city this week.

J. F. Beaton spent several days in Nashville last week.

Gus Williams of Henry County was in the city last week.

Acklin Frazier of Lexington was over on business this week.

Miss Bettie Whitfield is visiting relatives in Henry County.

Eugene Morris of Nashville spent several days here this week.

Prof. John W. Blair of Christmasville spent Sunday here.

J. H. Whitfield of Camden was here last week.—Paris Press.

Deputy Sheriff Hannie Hilliard of Holladay was here Monday.

Mrs. T. C. Rye entertained the Sans Souci last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hall entertained the Jolly Sisters last night.

Miss Cora Maiden entertained a number of friends Saturday night.

Hon. J. A. Clement and family visited in the ninth district last Sunday.

B. F. Brown came down Sunday from Sugar Tree, returning Monday.

Misses Pearl Spellings and Joe Sullivan visited at McKenzie this week.

Mrs. J. B. Vickrey spent several days visiting in Huntingdon this week.

Mrs. J. D. Crocker spent a few days visiting in Hollow Rock last week.

Robert L. Phillips is behind the counter at the "Bee Hive" this week.

Misses Della Lockhart and Lucy Lockman visited in the country Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Fry of Sugar Tree visited relatives at this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will W. Atchison of Big Sandy visited relatives here this week.

Herbert A. Caraway and A. N. Lindsey of Big Sandy were in the city Monday.

Judge J. G. Robius who was indisposed for several days is able to be out again.

Miss Lou Clement has returned home after a few weeks visit in the ninth district.

Maj. E. T. McGill of Dickson is the guest of his son, Dr. W. P. McGill, this week.

Aunt Lizzie Thomas, an aged negress, died at her home north of Camden last week.

The telephone poles have been erected and if the switch board and boxes arrive this week Camden will enjoy a working exchange the latter part of next week.

Six prisoners are now registered at the county jail.

Master Bobbie Corbitt is quite sick with pneumonia.

The rank of page was conferred upon R. W. Ayres by the Knights of Pythias Monday night.

Presiding Elder J. W. Waters will deliver a sermon at the Methodist Church Sunday night.

Lewis Browning has sold his interest in the restaurant business and returned to the country.

Miss Cora Maiden has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. S. Weatherly, at Hardin, Ky.

Marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk G. B. Greer to Edgar Phifer and Emma Herndon.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eula Hudson last Monday morning. Mother and child are doing well.

Little Carlos Thompson sustained two broken ribs as a result of a fall from a fence Wednesday afternoon.

An effort is being made to secure a pardon for Carl Arnold, who is serving a sentence in the workhouse.

Mrs. E. M. McAuley, Miss Heister Bell, Walter Hudson and Virgil Holland spent Sunday at Big Sandy.

Ephram Williams of Manlyville was in town last week en route to Nashville where he has secured a position.

The arrival of a fine baby boy gladdened the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Totty of Nashville February 28.

John W. Arnold has returned to Camden and established a shoe and harness repair shop at Plant's livery stable.

Will M. Robins has resigned his position with Claude Hudson & Co. and accepted a position on THE CHRONICLE.

Lawson Beaton of the ninth district and formerly a sergeant of the First Tennessee Regiment was in the city Sunday.

A hunting party composed of G. W. Arnold, C. V. Hawley, Harvey Garrett and Eugene Morris spent yesterday in the field.

Robert Phillips and J. B. Vickrey of Camden were in Huntingdon last Wednesday on business.—Carroll County Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDaniel have returned home from Chalk Level, Mr. McDaniel's school having closed at that place.

First Monday was a good day for our local merchants. The splendid weather drew a large gathering and the streets were crowded.

Rev. B. C. Scruggs stopped in the city Tuesday while enroute to Selmer, where he is pastor, from a visit in East Tennessee.

Miss Ola Travis of Paris, who will assist Mrs. S. J. Travis in the millinery store this season, arrived in the city Tuesday evening.

W. S. Morgan, W. F. Harrison, John Scruggs, Blanty Holladay and Bud McCord were among the Holladay attendants at court Monday.

Nolie J. Cuff has secured a clerical position on the steamer Delta of the Arkansas River Packet Co., and sailed Tuesday for Vicksburg.

The students debate at Benton Seminary last Friday evening was largely attended and very interesting. The Claude Hudson Concert Band furnished music. These debates are entertaining and are held every Friday night.

Dr. and Mrs. Jeb Anderson of Huntingdon visited Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lashlee of the tenth district this week.

Mrs. A. Arnold and daughter, Miss Pearl, returned home yesterday from Tullahoma, where they have been spending several weeks visiting.

In the sale of the Fry & Corbitt stock of hardware to Claude Hudson & Co., Will S. Corbitt retained an interest in the business and will be glad to see his friends at the old stand.

The case of J. S. Hall against A. J. Woods and others, plea of debt, was disposed of by Justice T. E. Cuff Wednesday. Judgment was rendered for the complainant for $122.45.

The subject of the debate at the Benton Seminary to-night is "Resolved, That man is stronger intellectually than woman as proven by scientists." A warm discussion is anticipated.

Rev. J. M. Pickens, pastor of the Methodist Church, preached at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday night, the high winds making it unsafe to hold services at the Methodist Church.

The following students from out of town have entered Benton Seminary this week: Lem Thompson of Chalk Level, A. N. McKelvey and Finis Madden of Oakdale, and Miss Holland of Eva.

Robert Corbett and family moved to Tennessee City yesterday. Mr. Corbett has got the contract for carrying the mail from Tennessee City to Danielsville.—Dickson Home Enterprise.

The gentleman of the Sans Souci will entertain the club at the residence of Hon. T. C. Rye to-night. As it is near the close of the season, a disbanding banquet will be spread and preparations have been made for a very enjoyable occasion.

Vance J. Higgs, a McKenzie boy, who has been reading law in Judge Hawk's office at Huntingdon, has hung out his shingle, occupying rooms in the Wright Building. He is a very bright young man and we predict a successful future.—McKenzie Herald.

Capt. Leon Caraway of Big Sandy has applied for a commission in the regular army. He was captain of Co. I, First Tennessee Regiment and served eighteen months in the Philippines. Congressman Sims called on the adjutant general at Washington last Tuesday to urge the appointment.

Claude Hudson & Co. have purchased the Fry & Corbitt stock of hardware and consolidated it with the "Bee Hive" and the two stocks have been jammed together at the Stock Store Brick. Room is at a premium and goods will have to be gotten rid of in some way until more room is added. A chance to buy cheap.

Harrison Williams, a son of Gus Williams of Henry County, and who for some months has held a position as bookkeeper for the Southern Laundry at Nashville, shot four times at a young man by the name of Gaines, at their boarding place last week. The young man got into a difficulty over a young lady which resulted in Gaines receiving a wound in the arm by a bullet from William's revolver. Young Williams waived examination and gave bond upon a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. He is well known here and his many friends regret the occurrence.

Jesse T. Duff, of Company D, Thirty-seventh Infantry, returned Wednesday from San Francisco, after two years service in the Philippines with that gallant command, composed mainly of Tennesseans. He went through the service and endured all the hardship of soldiering, but escaped without a wound. He is now visiting relatives at Mansfield.—Paris Press.

J. F. Stockdale, jr., an old influential citizen, died at his home in the ninth district last Saturday very suddenly. He was 57 years of age, and leaves a wife and eight children. The remains were interred at the Stockdale Cemetery Sunday. The surviving wife is seriously ill and some doubt is expressed for her recovery. We join in tendering sympathy to the bereaved family.

Sheriff E. E. Fry returned from Union City Tuesday evening with Russell Scruggs who is wanted here on four charges—shooting craps, playing cards, house-breaking and larceny, and disturbing public assembly. The city also has a charge of fighting against him. Scruggs was serving a sentence at Union City for some misdemeanor. On default of bond he was placed behind the bars.

The regular meeting of the board of mayor and aldermen was held Saturday night. The usual routine work was transacted and nothing of special importance. A resolution requesting the property holders to plant shade trees along side walks of the square and over the city was adopted. Several have voluntarily set out trees, and it is hoped that every citizen will join in an effort to make Camden presentable.

Hubert Fisher died very suddenly Sunday evening, at his home in the fourth district, of apoplexy, and his remains were interred at Cross Roads Cemetery Monday. He was about 25 years of age and a most excellent young man, possessing a large circle of friends. He leaves a wife and one child, a mother, Mrs. Isabella Fisher, three sisters and one brother, Wallace Fisher of Bertrand, Mo., arriving Monday evening. THE CHRONICLE extends sympathy to the grieved family.

A meeting was held last Friday night at the court house for the purpose of considering plans toward the erection of a new Methodist Church. Six hundred dollars have been subscribed and Hon. J. A. Clement and A. G. McDaniel were appointed as a committee to solicit subscriptions. A. S. Justice, S. L. Peeler and Dr. W. P. McGill were appointed a committee to select a location for the proposed church. A. G. McDaniel was appointed to confer with the Baptist Church in regard to the two churches burning a brick kiln. Another meeting was held last night but we were too late to give the proceedings until next week.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Do you want to make money? Would you be satisfied with modest returns, say ten (10) per cent. per month on an investment of from $100 to $500? If so, write for my book on "How Money Makes Money." Sent free to any address on application. A postal card brings it. Address Ellis E. Beebe, Paris, Tenn.