this morning, as the cases were being prepared for trial. The offenders and their friends who gathered to witness the "fun" almost filled the assembly room of the city hall. Among those present was Mayor Cherry, who announced that he had come as the attorney for the arrested violators of the traffic ordinances, and that he was going to recommend that all those charged with this offense, with the exception of speeding, be permitted to go with a warning.

After a consultation with those cited for trial, City Attorney J. Shelby Coffey announced that all parties had submitted their cases and agreed to accept a minimum fine. Mr. Coffey explained that the police commission had recommended a minimum fine for the first offense, accordingly each one who submitted was required to remit $2.49 to cover the offense.

Among the number appearing for trial were several of the most prominent citizens of the town and county. In many cases the arrests were made for parking on the wrong side of the street, heading into the curbing instead of backing in, and failure to turn to the right in passing the "silent policemen" on each corner.

Mayor Cherry said that he believed the minimum fine was assessed today that it did not mean that there was to be any let up on the part of the police to enforce the laws, as required by the commissioners.

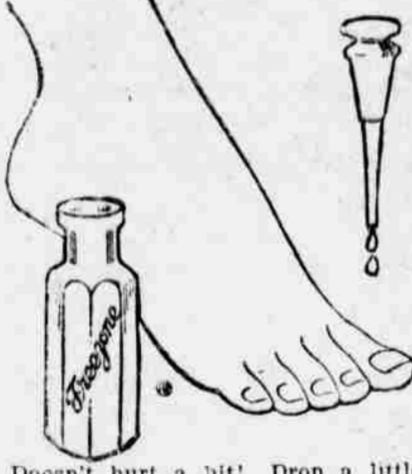

The police commission was satisfied with the manner in which the cases were disposed of this morning. They realize that it is impossible to have the ordinance enforced to the letter for several days, but the start had to be made somewhere.

GETTING READY FOR PAYMENT OF INCOME TAXES

ALL PARTIES SHOULD FURNISH INFORMATION TO THE GOVERNMENT AT ONCE.

BLANKS ARE COMING THIS WEEK

Will Not Differ Materially in Form From Those of Last Year, the Most Gratiating Feature Being Reduction of Rate.

Every person, firm or corporation who during the past year paid to any individual or firm or corporation a thousand dollars or more for salary, annuity, rent, interest or other purpose, is required to make report of that fact to the commissioner of internal revenue at Washington on or before March 15. If the persons who should make these reports have not yet received the information blanks upon which to make them they should write at once to the office of E. H. Craig, collector, Nashville and obtain them. A penalty is provided for failure to make these reports.

Deputy Collector Robert Irving Peebles, of this district, stated this morning that he expected the taxpayers to receive their blanks for making returns for the past year's taxes this week. He has already received a sample of the new report which he states does not differ materially from that of the previous year. Unless the taxpayers, and every one knows whether or not he is a taxpayer, receives his report blank soon he should make application to Mr. Craig for it.

Every person whose income during the past year was a thousand dollars is expected to make one of these reports, although they may not all be taxpayers.

The most gratifying feature of the income tax this year is that the rate this year will be only about two-thirds of that of last year for individuals and the rate on corporations will also be reduced.

TAPS SOUNDS FOR WM. A. CALDWELL

ANOTHER GALLANT OLD CONFEDERATE ENTERS "FAME'S ETERNAL CAMPING GROUND."

Taps sounded for another gallant old Confederate soldier this morning, when at 2 o'clock the death angel visited the home of William A. Caldwell, five miles out of Columbia on the Nashville pike. Mr. Caldwell was eighty-one years of age, and one of Maury county's most highly respected citizens.

Immediately after war was declared between the states, Mr. Caldwell cast his lot with the lost cause, and served with honor in his country and distinction to himself for four years. At the close of the war he returned to Maury county, where he had been born and reared, and since that time has made his home in the county, and has a legion of friends here who will learn with deep regret of his passing.

Mr. Caldwell had been a member of the Methodist church practically all his life, and was regarded as a splendid law-abiding citizen. Mr. Caldwell is survived by four children, Walter Caldwell and Mrs. W. J. Bean, of Columbia, and George B. Caldwell and Mrs. W. T. Edwards of Tullahoma, Texas. He is also survived by three brothers, James, Lem and Bruce Caldwell, and one sister of Texas.

The funeral will be conducted at the residence at 10 o'clock Sunday morning by the Rev. C. P. Givens, interment will be in the Dainwood cemetery.

CHEAIRS FARM AT SPRING HILL SOLD AT $200,000

LARGEST FARM DEAL PROBABLY EVER MADE IN THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTY.

NEW OWNER IS A MILLIONAIRE

Expects to Spend Not Less Than $75,000 in Improving the Place Making It Probably the Most Attractive in Tennessee.

Probably the largest deal in Maury county farming lands ever made was consummated Monday when Col. William M. Cheairs sold "Rippovilla," his magnificent estate of 887 acres near Spring Hill to J. G. Whitfield, millionaire oil man of Birmingham, Ala.

The farm, the farming implements and tools were all sold together, the consideration being $200,000. But the transaction involved even more than this because in addition Mr. Whitfield purchased all of the live stock on the place from Mr. Cheairs. It was a cash transaction, and acreage considered sets a new record price on Maury county farming lands. The consideration for the farm was above $200 an acre.

Mr. Cheairs will retire from the farm and expects to spend the major portion of his time in the future in Columbia.

Although Rippovilla is already one of the show places of the Dimple, a farm for its acreage without a superior, with a magnificent colonial residence set in a great forest of native trees, with the negro "quarters" not far distant, the new owner plans to spend not less than $75,000 in making improvements. Changes, additions and modern equipments for the great and commodious old residence, will, it is said, involve an expenditure of not less than $35,000.

Roads and boulevards will be constructed all through the farm at a cost of several thousand dollars. A great fishing and hunting lake will be constructed and the entire front lawn will be handsomely fenced. New and modern additions will be made to the barns. New "quarters" for the hands and help on the place will be built. An immense greenhouse steam heated, will be constructed where flowers and vegetation will be grown all the year around. Mr. Whitfield will make this the show place of all Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield will be distinct additions to the social life of the community and county. They are public spirited citizens, prominent in social, religious and welfare work. They will move here at an early date. Mr. Whitfield expects to devote his entire time to the farm, engaging in general farming. He has made an enormous fortune in the cotton oil and fertilizer business and also in the oil fields of the west.

FOR REDUCTION OF NUMBER SCRUB SIRE

COMMITTEE WILL VISIT FIFTEEN COMMUNITIES OF COUNTY IN FEBRUARY.

"We are going to put the scrub sire out of commission in Maury county this year," said James R. Williamson, of Old Homestead Farm, chairman of the general campaign committee of the organization recently perfected to bring about the laudable result. During the second week of February the committee plans to visit every community in the county where there is a scrub sire, about fifteen in number. When the committee visits a community they will take recruits from that place to the next community to be visited. That program will be carried out in the visit all over the county.

Mr. Williamson stated that he, together with the other members of the central committee, would devote the entire second week of February to the work of the organization. They hope during the year to reduce the proportion of scrub sires in Maury county to an inconsequential number.
