

PLUCKY POLES PRESSING HORDES OF BOLSHEVIKI BACK FROM THE CAPITAL

IF CAN HOLD ADVANTAGE FOR THREE DAYS LONGER BARBARIANS WILL BE CRUSHED.

ENEMY IS BADLY BEATEN

However Gen. Pilsudski Has Used All of His Reserves in the Desperate Counter Offensive Made to Save Beleaguered Warsaw.

(By United Press.)

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Poles are reported as desperately pushing their newly won advantage over the Russians in a race against time. There have been continued Polish successes along nearly the entire 500 mile battle front. The fact has apparently been established that Gen. Pilsudski and Welyand have employed practically all of their reserves while on the other hand the reserves of the Bolsheviki are practically untouched. Military experts believe that the Polish victory must become even more pronounced within the next few days or conditions will be reversed and the reds will again assume the offensive.

(By United Press.)

PARIS, Aug. 19.—The Russians army will be completely defeated if the Poles can maintain their counter offensive three days more according to official advices received by the French foreign office from Warsaw. The military situation is described as continuing favorable and declared the right wing of the Bolsheviki army north of Warsaw to be in danger of being completely crushed.

Mrs. Friel attended all of the fashion shows while in the great fashion pace setting center of the Grand Old U. S. A. and states to her friends that the skirts will be even shorter this fall and winter than ever before.

CAKE MADE TO REPRESENT BIBLE FOR ANNIVERSARY OF HOPEWELL CHURCH

Probably as fine work of culinary art as has ever been done by a woman of Maury county was the cake made and displayed at the centenary of Hopewell church on Wednesday by Mrs. Thurston Neeley, of the Bigbyville section. The cake was one of the largest ever made in the county, but its proportions were exact and it faithfully represented the Bible.

The "Bible" was laid on a bed of perfect violets, which in shape proportions and colorings were an exact reproduction of the modest little flower that is always a harbinger of spring. They were fashioned in "vines." The Bible itself in its size, the accepted standard of proportions for the book of books being closely followed, its reproduction of the lines of that familiar book and its lettering

GOST OF RIGHTS OF WAY JACKSON HIGHWAY SMALL

FROM INDICATIONS AT THIS TIME ESTIMATE OF $50,000 IS GROSS EXAGGERATION.

LITTLE LITIGATION PROBABLE

Only Four or Five Suits at the Most Expected to Follow the Opening of Magnificent Highway—Benefits of the Road.

It is evident that there has been gross exaggeration in the talk about damage suits and claims for rights of way growing out of the construction of the state and federal highway to Spring Hill. An investigation of the situation shows that there is no ground for alarm and no reason to believe that the county will be "overwhelmed" with damage suits to the extent of $50,000 as charged in the county court by the opponents of the highways of the county.

County Attorney Hugh Todd Shelton is devoting a good deal of his time to a settlement of these claims and is generally successful. He has already settled several without any agreement to pay any money and he expressed the hope this morning that at the outside there would not be more than four suits against the county. Some of these will involve only the cost of new fencing for the rights of way, which is an inconsiderable item.

Several claimants will, it is confidently claimed, never press their claims after the road is completed. They will find that the advantages from the road so far offset any claims for damages that they will be more than satisfied. Several have agreed to grant the rights of way and to leave the question of any settlement open until after the highway shall have been finished.

From best information obtainable only a few suits for condemnation will have to be filed. One member of the county court was so reckless that he wanted to appropriate $50,000 to pay the damages for rights of way for the next quarter. There will have to be a decided change in the situation before anything like that sum will be necessary.

ANNUAL MEETING OF S. S. CONVENTION

WILL BE HELD AT THE BIGBYVILLE METHODIST CHURCH WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8.

Sunday schools of Maury county will hold their annual convention at the Bigbyville Methodist church on Wednesday, September 8, according to announcement made at Hopewell on Wednesday. Delegates are expected from churches all over the county. The state Sunday school secretary and a number of other well known speakers will be present. A big basket dinner, such as the people of that community usually serve on similar occasions, will be one of the attractions.

REPORT REDS ARE QUITTING VILLAGES

were all so artistically done as to bring forth volleys of praise from the admiring throng that viewed it.

The Bible made especially to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Mrs. Neeley's church, had this lettering, beautifully done, "Holy Bible, 1820-1920." The dates indicated the years spanned by historic Hopewell church.

Sixty-five eggs were used in the making of this cake and the other ingredients were in like proportions. The hundreds who attended the exercises at the church viewed with many exclamations of wonder and approval this evidence of Mrs. Neeley's unusual gift. She was literally showered with congratulations. A photograph of the cake was made.

Mrs. Neeley was a domestic science pupil of Mrs. D. L. Fry, of Columbia.

News Of Ratification Indignantly Received In All Parts Of State

Special to The Herald.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Messages from all parts of Tennessee show that news of the ratification of the woman's suffrage amendment by the house in violation of the constitution of the state was received with indignation and amazement, the people of the state were apparently dumbfounded. They had not believed that it was possible for the members of the legislature to so far forget their oaths of office as to perpetrate this outrage upon the state.

From Lincoln county comes the report that democrats are openly threatening dire revenge on Gov. Roberts and Gov. Cox for the part that they had in bringing about ratification. Similar outcroppings are heard in other quarters of the state. No where is it indicated that even the women of the state wanted the ballot, in fact many of the advocates of the amendment admit that the women of Tennessee do not want the ballot and that it has been thrust upon them without their consent.

Little hope is expressed that a reconsideration will be had in the house. The opponents of suffrage are apparently biding their time when at the polls revenge will be abundantly wreaked upon those who defied the constitution of the state.

BRIDGE WILL NOT BE CLOSED; HALF TO REMAIN OPEN

ARRANGEMENT MADE WHEREBY TRAFFIC TO AND FROM RIVERSIDE WILL BE CARED FOR.

EFFORTS OF COUNTY ATTORNEY

Contractors Agree That But One Side of the Structure Will Be Worked on at a Time and Tomato Crop Will Therefore Be Saved.

As a result of the activity of County Attorney Hugh Todd Shelton and other officials of the city and county the announcement that the bridge over Duck river would be closed to traffic has been withdrawn and the bridge will remain open during the period in which the repairs will be made, it is stated today.

The Gould Construction Company, which has the contract for the repairs on the bridge, agreed that the original plans would be changed and that the bridge would be so repaired that traffic would be continuous. Only one side of the bridge will be closed at a time and the repairs made. After one side has been completed the other side will be repaired. The bridge is not to be raised but new sills and floors will be placed under it.

The announcement made through The Herald that the bridge would be closed to traffic brought consternation not only to the people of Riverside, but to those of the city. The business interests of the suburb and the city are so closely interwoven that one can hardly live without communication with the other. A large portion of the meat that is daily eaten in Columbia is prepared for market in the slaughter houses of Riverside. In addition there are large acreages of tomatoes over the river that could not be hauled to the canning factory and marketed and would be a total loss, as they must be marketed where ripe.

The closing of the bridge would have stopped all of the school children in that section from school. It would have made it impossible for the great majority of the people to attend church or Sunday school. As soon as County Attorney Shelton and other officials heard of the intention to close the bridge they got active and after conference with road officials it was agreed by the latter that only half of the bridge would be closed at a time.

In agreeing to keep open one side of the bridge the construction company announced that it would post a sign that the bridge was closed, but that travel could go over it at the risk of the traveler. This will be done to protect the bridge contractors, although there will be really little risk to those using the bridge.

SUFFRAGE VOTE AT NASHVILLE CAUSES GLOOM

MERE MEN WHO INQUIRED FOR THE NEWS GENERALLY EXPRESSED DISAPPOINTMENT.

WOMEN ARE VERY INDIFFERENT

Miss Carolyn Williams, one of the Leaders in the Movement in This Section, Expresses Intense Gratification at the Result.

So far as one could judge by the expressions heard from "mere men" who inquired at The Herald office Wednesday for the news from Nashville the ratification of the federal suffrage amendment did not bring any great joy to the people hereabouts. General regret was expressed, although every one agreed that suffrage was inevitable. They based their opposition to the action of the legislature on the endorsement of the German plan of making a "scrap of paper" of the state constitution. Representatives Hays and Russell and Senator Clarke were highly commended for their firm stand on the constitution and their oaths.

The women as a general rule took little or no interest in the issue. This was especially true of women in the country. Not a single inquiry, so far as could be ascertained, has come to The Herald office from a woman outside of Columbia for the news about the fight at Nashville since it commenced. Scores of women interviewed on the subject at country gatherings in the county lately by representatives of The Herald frankly expressed indifference or frankly stated that they did not want the ballot. It is safe to say that a majority of the men of the county are against it, although there are a great many more men for suffrage than there are women. It is a frequent thing to hear a man state that he is for suffrage but that his wife is against it.

Miss Carolyn Williams, one of the original advocates of equal suffrage in Columbia and an officer of the state organization, expressed intense gratification over the result when informed of the action of the house on Wednesday. Miss Williams has been one of the most ardent supporters of equal suffrage for a long time and the news from Nashville, she felt, was the happy culmination of the long struggle.

Now will the women vote? That is the subject of most of the discussion. Not unless tremendous pressure is brought to bear upon them, is the usual answer. For no one can deny that this great privilege of the ballot has been literally forced upon the women of Maury county.

BUILDING UP FINE HERD JERSEY COWS

J. BENSON REDDING FIRM BELIEVER IN DAIRY INDUSTRY FOR MAURY COUNTY.

J. Benson Redding, of Cullerka, is building a real herd of registered Jerseys. Mr. Redding recently topped the Fairiss-Ballantyne sale when he purchased the great young bull Pogis 29 of Hood Farm 50th at $750. Mr. Redding has a large herd of Jerseys and it is his plan to have them all registered within a short time. To that end he is in the market for a few royally bred, high class individual cows to add to his herd. Mr. Redding is an enthusiastic advocate of the dairy industry. He has made money in it and he believes that it is the most profitable line that the farmers of this section can follow. He is building up his farm all the time and is also receiving a regular income.

HOPEWELL CHURCH OBSERVES 100TH YEAR OF BIRTH

GREAT CROWD TO DO HONOR TO NOTED ORGANIZATION OF COUNTY.

BIG BASKET DINNER SPREAD

Interesting History of The Church Given by Squire Matthews and Appropriate Address are made by Number of Well Known Speakers.

With appropriate exercises and in the presence of hundreds of people, gathered from all over the county, the centennial of the organization of Hopewell Associated Reform Presbyterian church was duly celebrated at that historic church on Wednesday. It was an inspiring occasion and one filled with hallowed memories for scores of the older men and women who had been baptized and raised in this church. Many who have moved away from the community and even from the state, some of them joining other denominations, were present to pay their tribute of respect to the old mother church that had first guided their footsteps in the path "by ancient worthies trod."

This church founded in 1820 by the hardy pioneers who helped to fill the forest and settle that section of the county, has had a splendid career. It has contributed notably to the fine citizenship that has made the community noted everywhere for its sterling qualities and its intense patriotism. Many of the present members of the descendants of the families that first gathered in a rude log house to found the church.

The big auditorium of the church was filled to its capacity and there were many present who did not attempt to get into the building, when the services were opened with a splendid address of welcome by the pastor, Rev. W. T. Simpson, who acted as the master of ceremonies.

A very interesting and carefully compiled paper giving the organization and history of the church was read by Squire Albert R. Matthews, clerk of session. In the 100 years of history of the church there have been nine regular pastors, Rev. J. H. Peoples serving longest, for a period of twenty two years.

The principal address of the morning services was made by Rev. John R. Edwards, of Fayetteville, who spoke on "What the Associated Reform Presbyterian church stands for." While a doctrinal address it was at the same time a plea for Christian fellowship and for an adherence to the fundamentals of the Christian religion. (Continued on Fifth Page.)

NEW ELECTION LAWS MAY BE NECESSARY

OPINIONS DIFFER AS TO STATUS OF WOMEN UNDER PRESENT LAWS.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 19.—Gov. Thos. E. Kilby, of Alabama, is expected to decide during the next few days whether he will call a special session of the legislature to enact election laws which will limit suffrage to men and women who come under the educational and property requirements of the state constitution.

Constitutional lawyers differ in their opinion of the present laws. Many say the same laws now applying to men would apply to women under the nineteenth amendment, adopted by the Tennessee legislature today, while others maintain that the bars would be lowered to all females in the state.

Gov. Kilby has been out of the state several days but is expected to return to Montgomery tomorrow night. He will ask the legal department for an opinion regarding the present election laws.

DEFEATED REDUCTION OF TAXES

(By United Press.)

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 19.—The republican oligarchy in the senate is directly responsible for the unsettled conditions throughout the country, democratic candidate for president, charged in the first stump speech of the campaign in Indiana here today.

He was speaking to an immense crowd on the public square when he directed heavy fire at the "reactionary" republicans asserting that they prevented a reduction in the cost of living by blocking tax reductions in hope of placing blame on the democrats. He said normal conditions will return with the ratification of the peace pact. "If the league covenant had been ratified months ago exchange would now be stabilized," said the candidate.

PROF. H. B. BLISS, EXPERT IN ENGINEERING, SPENDING THREE DAYS IN THE COUNTY.

Prof. H. B. Bliss, engineering specialist of the division of extension, University of Tennessee, is here today from Knoxville to give practical lessons in terracing, ditching and drainage. Prof. Bliss is today out on the Murphy settlement on the Cullerka pike. Tomorrow he will be down in the tenth district and on Saturday he will give an all day demonstration at James Ridley's place on the Mt. Pleasant pike. The terrible rains of this year, which have done immense damage in washing lands in the county, make the terracing problem one of unusual interest to the farmers of this section.
