FARM EXPERTS TO VISIT CITY THURSDAY 14TH

LARGE DELEGATION COMING HERE TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF AGRICULTURE.

MAKING TOUR OF MIDDLE BASIN

Meeting Will Be Held at 1 O'Clock and Large Attendance of the Farmers Is Urged—Live Stock Industry to Be Featured.

(From Tuesday's Daily Herald.)

The counties in Middle Tennessee, to be visited by representative farmers, business men of the Commercial Club, specialists of the division of extension, University of Tennessee, and others interested in promoting and improving farm conditions, is listed below that complete preparations may be made and publicity given to these great agricultural gatherings.

The counties to be visited and the dates for the meetings are as follows.

Maury county, at Columbia, July 14, Marshall county at Lewisburg, July 15.

Lincoln county at Fayetteville, July 15.

Williamson county, at Franklin, July 14.

Giles county, at Pulaski, July 14. Lawrence county, at Lawrenceburg, July 15.

In addition to the above dates, a meeting is planned for Davidson county on June 16, 1 p. m., at which time representative business men of the Commercial Club, farmers and live stock men will be urged to attend.

In all probability, all the meetings will be held at 1 o'clock on the dates given. However, the local management in each county will be left exclusively to the county agent and members of the county council.

A list of all the speakers will be published later. It is the purpose of the management to use every person who is interested in the problem of adjustment of farm conditions to a post-war condition. Farmers and business men who are interested are urged to volunteer their services for a day or two to assist in these meetings.

The entire force of specialists of the division of extension, University of Tennessee will assist in the campaign, including J. M. Dean, district agent, Middle Tennessee, L. A. Richardson, live stock specialist, C. A. Hutton, dairy specialist, J. C. McAmis, soil and crop specialist, Capt. F. Peck, commissioner of agriculture, Dr. K. C. Davis of Peabody College, M. O. Cooper, secretary of the Tennessee Beef Breeders' Association and J. A. Brandon, president of the Tennessee Sheep Breeders' Association will also cooperate in the drive, and leading dairymen and hog raisers and all others interested in working out this important problem will be urged to lend their assistance.

The plan of the campaign is to assign three speakers to each county, a farmer, a business man and an agricultural expert. The speakers will give one entire day exclusively to each county, they being arranged in teams and assigned to certain counties.

By this campaign it is hoped that the farmer may be interested and encouraged in getting his farm to operating on a post war basis, which in the light of new conditions and new problems is quite different from what it was previous to 1914.

It is also hoped that from the discussions planned some points of practical value to the farmers which will enable them to meet their problems more satisfactorily will be derived.

Another point which it is hoped will be worked out is the rehabilitation of the live stock enterprise in order that the farmer may more satisfactorily meet the profitable marketing of his hay, grain and roughage produced on the farm through live stock. Too, this will naturally involve a proper balancing of crops and live stock which have an interdependent relationship in the management of any successful farm.

Further details in regard to the specific problems to be taken up at these meetings will be furnished the speakers at the management of the meetings.

I ought to know — I grow tobacco

You can't beat a Camel, because you can't beat the tobacco that goes into Camels.

That's why Camels are the choice of men who know and love fine tobacco. They know what makes Camels so smooth, so fragrant and mellow-mild.

They'll tell you that the expert Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos makes a cigarette smoke you can't equal—no matter what you pay.

But it doesn't take an expert to tell Camel quality. You'll spot it the very first puff. Try Camels yourself.

OLD FASHIONED FOURTH OF JULY

NOTABLE CELEBRATION OF NATION'S BIRTHDAY WILL BE HELD AT LAWRENCEBURG.

(From Tuesday's Daily Herald.)

J. I. Finney, editor of The Herald, will deliver the patriotic address at the big picnic and celebration to be held at Lawrenceburg, on next Monday, the fourth of July. Elaborate plans are being made by the capital of Lawrence to duly observe the nation's birthday. It will be an old-fashioned fourth, the kind that men in the "earlier and better" days of the American republic enjoyed. There will be sack races and potato races and a prize for the fat woman and the ugliest man, etc. The day is being extensively advertised. It will be held partly under the auspices of the county council of agriculture and speakers will extol the virtues of that organization.

MISSOURI SHORTY WANTED ELSEWHERE

Extradition papers have been signed by Governor Taylor for C. S. Shaw, alias Walter Murray, alias Missouri Shorty, who is being held at Mobile, charged with attempting to blow open the postoffice safe at Jackson, Ala. It is understood that "Shorty" is also wanted in many other sections of the country, and a special guard has been ordered placed over his cell by Mobile officials.

Three O'Clock Closing Hour

The Banking Department has issued instructions prohibiting the acceptance of business by banks after the regular closing hour 3 P. M.

Notice is here given to the patrons of the undersigned banks to bring to the banks all of their business prior to the closing hour, which is now done by the great majority of the customers of the banks.

It may not be understood by the public that, under the rules of the Banking Department to place on the books of the bank all business transactions of each day on the day received, it requires several hours after the bank closes to book the day's business; hence the necessity of the early closing hour by banks.

We solicit the co-operation of the public in carrying out these instructions.

ANDERSON AND POGUE SEEKING SECOND TERMS

CIRCUIT COURT CLERK AND REGISTER WILL HAVE NO OPPOSITION NEXT FALL.

MADE VERY EFFICIENT OFFICERS

Have Been So Obliging, Accommodating and Faithful That by Common Consent They Have Been Again Chosen for Responsible Places.

(From Friday's Daily Herald.)

Two candidates announced today who will have no opposition, the only two who will submit their claims to the democratic primary on November 12 of whom that can be said. It is a fine tribute to the records they have made and the friends they have enlisted to have them freely conceded second terms without even the formality of a contest.

Joe T. Anderson, circuit court clerk, and J. J. Pogue, register, today formally announced that they would seek a re-nomination and re-election and would submit their claims to the democratic primary on November 12.

Mr. Anderson is one of the best known and most popular officials that ever served Maury county. Before his election to a county office he had served as a member of the board of aldermen and had been engaged for many years in the mercantile business. Four years ago he was a candidate for the office that he now holds and was triumphantly elected. Although he had two popular opponents Mr. Anderson received nearly twice as many votes as the combined vote of his two opponents. No official that this county ever had was more attentive to his duties, more obliging and more accommodating than Mr. Anderson. He can always be found at his post of duty. He is efficient and faithful.

James J. Pogue in his race for register in the primary four years ago established a new record at Kampshire, his home. His friends and neighbors thought so much of him that they made a voter failed to go to the polls and mark their ballots for their friend and neighbor. It was a signal tribute to a man who had the confidence of those who knew him best.

Mr. Pogue made two races in the primary of 1917, having to go into the runoff, but in that contest, despite a bitter cold day, he received a large majority and carried every poll of 170

KANNON TO HEAD ELECTION BOARD

DEMOCRAT NAMED CHAIRMAN AND TAYLOR, REPUBLICAN, IS ELECTED SECRETARY.

(From Saturday's Daily Herald.)

Maury county's election board was organized today by the election of Col. James H. Kannon, of Collico, as chairman and Thomas H. Taylor, of the second district, the republican member, as secretary. This is the same division politically that has been observed in the county for many years, the chairman being a democrat and the republican member being secretary.

Only two of the three members were present, Col. Milton E. Allen, the other democrat, having notified Col. Kannon that he had resigned. It has been talked in political circles ever since Mr. Allen's re-appointment that he would decline to serve.

The question of proceeding with an organization at this time, without waiting for the new member to be appointed, was discussed, but in view of the uncertainty as to when the state board would meet and the necessity for arranging for the general biennial registration during the next five weeks, it was decided that the board should not delay.

The board adjourned to meet next Monday when registrars will be elected for the third, seventh and ninth districts.

Mr. Moore married in 1899 and left Columbia, being succeeded as superintendent by J. S. Robinson, the incumbent.
