Union City Fair.

The Union City Fair will be held on September 25 to 28 inclusive. The Fair was rained out last year and it is hoped that they will have better weather this year. The catalogue is a nice piece of work, and contains a well prepared list of premiums. Union City does things not by halves—but in the right way.

The promoters deserve success and will attain it if the weather is suitable. Hickman will send a delegation. R. A. Tyler offers some special premiums, as follows: Best Alfred G. yearling, $30; best Alfred G. foal of 1907, $30; best Handy Andy yearling, $10; best Handy Andy foal of 1907, $10.—Hickman Courier.

Sears Hotel Changes Hands.

On September first Mrs. Rowland will take charge of the boarding house conducted for several years by Mrs. A. D. Sears. This house has for several years been more liberally patronized than any private boarding house in the city. During this time Mrs. Sears has made many warm personal friends among her patrons who very much regret to see her retire from business. Mrs. Sears and Mr. and Mrs. John Pitte will keep house, occupying the Moss cottage on Second street, near the Training School.

Ice Cream Supper.

The Second Regiment Band gave an ice cream supper last Tuesday night at the band rooms on Washington avenue. A very large crowd of the band's friends was present who enjoyed the affair immensely. The band executed a very interesting program of music. The supper was the revenue feature of the occasion. A voting contest was held and Miss Lucile Morris selected as the popular young lady of the occasion. Afterwards an impromptu hop was given, a number of visitors joining in the dances.

IT HELPS YOUR CREDIT

A BANK ACCOUNT

will do more to help a man's credit than other one thing, and a checking account is indispensable to the business man. It enables him to keep his funds far more securely than in his house or office safe, and it places at his disposal all the facilities of the bank for handling his financial affairs without risk and annoyance of making payments in currency.

Joint Will Close.

Fulton, Ky., Aug. 16.—The notorious "Ino" joint, owned by R. S. Murphy, Jr., and operated on the Tennessee side of the city, is to be closed shortly, according to a statement made by Mr. Murphy. It was in this place that Bert Blackford shot and killed Charlie Martin last Monday. The people of the town will be heartily glad when the den is closed. Some talk of closing it by force was made, but when Murphy agreed to close as soon as his stock of goods was disposed of no action was taken.
