"The Snuff Stricken Reader" will be on Mr. Pugh's Chautauqua program this season, together with other rollicking comedy sketches, impersonations, dialect numbers and a sprinkling of serious interpretations.

Those who hear Jess Pugh will hear one of the most popular of the Lyceum and Chautauqua entertainers of today.

RIVES NEWS.

Recent visitors with Mrs. Callie Smith were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Curley and Miss Buna Tillman from Greenfield.

Mr. Carmi Davis was an end of the week visitor in Memphis.

Mr. Raleigh Pearegin, of Columbus, Kentucky, last week was a visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cruse.

Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Hornbeak, of Trimble, were guests here Saturday and Sunday with Mesdames Leslie Shore and Wayne Woody.

Mrs. Wayne Woody is visiting in Dyersburg, a guest of Mrs. John Gosnell.

Mrs. Burt Hooper and Mrs. Leslie Hooper are in home, the former from Paducah, the latter from Trenton.

Carl Witherspoon is in the Kansas wheat section.

T. C. Callicott is attending the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly in Greenville, Tenn.

Mesdames W. H. Cravens, Roscoe Kitchell, T. P. Palmer, Mamie Phebus and Misses Ruby Skiles and Euline Cummings attended the teachers meeting in Union City last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Vaden and Miss Essie Nelle Forrester went up to Salem Saturday for decoration services.

Miss Missie Harris is convalescent of a recent operation for removal of tonsils.

The High School baseball team wound up a victorious season in a grand banquet at Groves Hotel Saturday night. To accommodate representative citizen fans seats were placed for thirty-three. The menu was elaborate and served very satisfactorily. Speakers of the evening in optimistic mood were Hon. T. C. Callicott, Henry Head, Claude Botts and Claude Callicott. The last mentioned is pitcher of the team, with points for other laurels in college sports.

The closing exercises of the school included two nights, Thursday and Friday of the past week. A full house was out for the High School play, "Borrowed Money." Door receipts were seventy-six dollars more or less. The program Friday night moved off without a hitch. Even the curtain and lights gave no apprehension.

Prof. J. T. Warren, president of Hall-Moody Normal, ably addressed the graduates, subject, "Investments." Mr. Warren, in the school room for years, has a ripe experience in forward outlook, pleading with the young people to make their plans practically. That education is well worth while when measured in these terms. County Superintendent B. A. Vaughn, previously to distributing the diplomas and eighth grade certificates, reminiscently spoke of his former school days here when we were housed in a three-room building, with W. H. Cook as principal. Mr. Vaughn also spoke of his pleasurable official association with our present faculty. Only five of the graduates, Mary Nelle Kitchell, Mamie Osborn, Jennie Holloway, Lillian Barker and Claude Callicott were present, E. W. Stovall still being absent and in the hospital in Memphis. His absence was a poignant sorrow thruout the social and executive functions of his class. Both on Sunday previous and Friday evening he was fitly represented by his venerable father, Mr. Lish Stovall, resident of the seventh district. This class has the honor to have certificates for a year to teach in this county. Those of the eighth grade receiving certificates were Virginia Houser, Joe Harper, Oliver Coates, Clyde Usery, Leone Callicott, Eunice Crocker, Fairy Mai Carter, Delma Reeder and Edward Smith. Several medals of excellence were given, Elizabeth McNeill receiving two for best average, first, in sixth grade, given by her teacher, Miss Holloway, second one given by Mrs. Mamie Phebus for best average in sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Other winners for attendance were Clifford Witherspoon, Joe Clark and Alberta Kitchell. Alberta is the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Kitchell, and in five years has not missed a day from school.

Messrs. Dorence Woody and W. H. Cravens were business visitors Monday and Tuesday at Hornbeak.

Now is the time to cut the weeds and otherwise put on a campaign against the outbreak of diseases.

A Card.

The Commercial, Union City, Tenn.—Dear Sirs and Friends: I want to write just a few lines in order to express in a small way my sincere appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the good people of Union City during the meeting last week. There is a tender spot in my life and heart for the old home town and the paper there and it was a great joy to labor among you in the service of our Lord and Master. May God bless each one in His wisdom and grace.

Sincerely yours,
