President Davis. From the Herald, April 10th, 1864. We have been permitted to make the following abstract of the life and character of our late illustrious Chief Magistrate, from a private letter addressed to one of our friends. It will be worth a perusal to all our countrymen.

As he is more misapprehended than any man I ever saw, often thought of as a madman and a fanatic; as a man who looked for the overthrow of the Republic, and the establishment of a despotic government; as a man who looked for the overthrow of the Republic, and the establishment of a despotic government.

All England is at present terrified and indignant at the perpetration of an act which the London Times denounces as one of the most ghastly displays of barbarism.

The Deacons and the Wasps. A worthy deacon in a town of Maine was remarkable for the facility with which he quoted scripture on all occasions.

BY AUTHORITY. PUBLIC ACTS. First Congress of the Confederate States. Passed at the fourth session, which was begun and held at the city of Richmond, in the State of Virginia, on Monday, the seventh day of December, A. D. 1862, and ended on Thursday, the eighteenth day of February, 1864.

CONFEDERATE MONEY WANTED. For sale, a desirable lot in this city, containing some two small residences and other necessary buildings, well adapted for a residence.

TO COTTON OWNERS. THE Haystack Warehouse belonging to the undersigned, in the city of Griffin, has been partially taken for hospital purposes, and on this account, I think the owners of cotton stored in the above named warehouse will do well to remove it to some place where it will be more safe.

REPORT OF MEN ADMITTED INTO HOSPITALS AT GRIFFIN, GA., JULY 17TH, 1864. The following named soldiers were admitted into hospitals at this post to-day: CAVALRY HOSPITAL.
