PUBLIC LEDGER.

Office, No. 13 Madison Street. LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

MEMPHIS: Monday Evening, March 5, 1866.

SECOND VOLUME PUBLIC LEDGER.

We enter to-day upon the second volume of the PUBLIC LEDGER, the first having closed on Saturday last.

Words that are better than jewels. It is now time of peace, and let us have peace, let us enlarge the Constitution.

THE MANLIAN CODE.

Thus truthfully does the Louisville Journal assail those whose thirst for Southern blood is still unquenched.

THE COUNTY ELECTION.

This event is over, and we are glad of it. Many good men have been defeated, but then, all good men cannot hold office.

FASHION ON A THRONE OF GOLD.

A New York reporter, describing a recent ball in Gotham, says: Fashion sat upon a throne of gold.

EXPECTED PROCLAMATION.

The President's proclamation declaring the war ended and the States restored to their full constitutional relations to the Union.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

The Indian Agent and Superintendent at Santa Fe, New Mexico, in his report to Commissioner Cooley, dated February 10th, 1866.

A TEXAN SPEAKS.

The Galveston (Texas) News says, we can see no other reason for refusing to Southern people the privilege of emigrating to Brazil or Mexico than a disposition to punish them.

the legislation of this session operate as a punishment upon the South, and can not bear to see persons escaping from the contemplated torture.

THE IMPERIAL FORCES.

Saturday evening's Washington Star says: We have information from an officer recently in the service of Maximilian, in Mexico, to the effect that in January his force was in numbers as follows: French, 30,000; Austrians, Belgians, Egyptians, etc., 10,000; Mexican guerrillas, 5,000; making a total of about 45,000 men.

LOFTY PUNCTUATION.

WORDS THAT ARE BETTER THAN JEWELS. It is now time of peace, and let us have peace, let us enlarge the Constitution.

MR. DAVIS.

The New York Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent states that JEFF DAVIS pretended to be surprised that the National vessels in the harbor fired a gun for each of the States, including the lately rebellious ones.

SMUGGLING.

The Commissioner of Customs has received late advices from Montana Territory, stating that large quantities of goods have been and are now being smuggled into the vicinity of the mines from Canadian provinces.

D. D.

The Washington Star states that a letter passed through the postoffice of a city recently, addressed to "JOHN W. FORNEY, D. D.," and supposes that "D. D." stands for "Dead Duck."

SECRETARY McCULLOCH.

Secretary McCULLOCH has determined to reduce the clerical force of his department, and it is expected that from five hundred to seven hundred clerks will be discharged as rapidly as the interests of the service will permit.

MR. BUCHANAN.

MR. BUCHANAN has not yet written a letter in support of President Johnson's veto and his speech to the rebel mob of Washington, but one may soon be expected.

MR. NIX.

MR. NIX said lately in the United States Senate, that he was no more a friend of the North than the South. He is a violent Radical, and this remark of his proves that he would deprive the North of civil liberty, if he could.

tory none will question. The interests of the East and West are too dissimilar to be under the same municipal laws or regulations.

NEGRO TESTIMONY.

An interesting case lately came before Judge King in the Court of Common Pleas at Baltimore. It was a suit brought by a negro landlord against a white tenant, in which it was sought to introduce a colored witness.

VOORHEES.

The New York Express says the expulsion of Mr. VOORHEES has created considerable indignation there. It is regarded—as it undoubtedly was—a most unjust and impolitic affair.

MR. DAVIS.

The New York Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent states that JEFF DAVIS pretended to be surprised that the National vessels in the harbor fired a gun for each of the States.

of THAD. STEVENS and his gang. If hating such unmanly men be disloyal, then the South is hopelessly disloyal.

A letter from Rome says that at the next consistory a Bishop of America will receive a Cardinalship.

ANOTHER PRESIDENTIAL TALK.

The last Presidential talk was on Saturday to a Committee of Baltimoreans, who waited upon Mr. Johnson and presented him a copy of the resolutions adopted by a recent meeting in that city.

GENTLEMEN.

GENTLEMEN: I cannot make any speech in reply, but in response to what has been said I will simply remark that the spirit of which you have alluded, my policy, which is before the country, was not announced as the result of impulse, nor was it thrown out for any ad captivum purpose.

THE COTTON STORAGE ESTABLISHMENT.

The cotton storage establishment of S. C. Johnson, extending from Bridge street through to Pearl street, was destroyed by fire this morning.

THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

The Treasury Department has received from Charleston a new counterfeit fifty dollar compound-interest note.

THE IRISH BISHOP.

The Irish Bishop McCloskey had caused a protest against this meeting to be previously read in all the Catholic churches.

IT HAPPENS SOMETIMES.

IT HAPPENS SOMETIMES in the best of families—if I may be permitted to use the illustration—that there are differences and feuds, but when these differences are understood and arranged and the feuds subsided, the parties can approach each other feeling more kindly toward those from whom they had been estray than they did before; then I do not think we are doing wrong if we, while maintaining principles, while trying to preserve the Government, we have succeeded in convincing them of their error and bringing back to the folds of their fathers those who strayed.

IF I KNOW MYSELF.

IF I KNOW MYSELF my only object is to preserve the Government. I want it to continue in loyal hands and none others. I hope that the time will soon come when the country will be thoroughly reconciled, but to secure all that is necessary for this purpose will require a severe struggle.

LET IT BE UNDERSTOOD.

LET IT BE UNDERSTOOD that, so far as making candidates for the future is concerned, I have nothing to do with it. If I can be instrumental in accomplishing the great work we have undertaken to bring about peace and harmony and reconciliation among all our people, and again place this Government upon its firm basis, I shall feel that I have reached the summit of my ambition.
