MEMPHIS: Tuesday Evening, Aug. 25, 1874. Mr. J. C. NEELY has taken charge of the city circulation of the Ledger.

Democratic and Conservative Party. For Treasurer, JAMES D. PORTER, of Henry County.

THE WAR OF RACES. The attempt of Radical journals to make the Northern people believe that a war of races has been inaugurated in the South.

The cry of "a war of races" arises from those who have an interest in precipitating it. We know such a war can't be raised in the South.

THE ELECTIONS OF 1874. Here is a brief abstract of the elections which have thus far been held in 1874.

A Japanese Race. A Japan correspondent of the Cleveland Herald writes: "On the outskirts of Yeddo there is a race course where twice a year the upper crust and much of the lower stratum of the city and surrounding country assemble to witness the 'Derby' and 'Saratoga' of the Orient."

A NASHVILLE JOURNAL takes a sensible view of local affairs, and advises that the best man be sent to the Legislature.

A VERY important decision has just been made by Judge J. C. Guild, judge of the Sumner County Circuit Court, in the case of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company vs. the State of Tennessee and Sumner county.

THE antiquated maiden, Susan B. Anthony, denies emphatically the testimony given by "Bessie" (Theodore Tilton's girl) that she (Bessie) had discovered Susan sitting in Theodore's lap.

MR. GEORGE C. HARDING, of the Indianapolis Sunday Herald, who shot the alleged seducer of his daughter in that city on Thursday, is one of the most prominent of Western journalists.

A BOX FOR by Robert Toombs is announced by another noted Georgian. When asked what he thought of the Beecher-Tilton scandal he replied: "Well, by the gods! I am too old now to become interested in bawdy house literature."

It is a tale of Idaho. There are youngsters in the West as well as in the East; and two of them, who are fond of the chase, have had a romantic adventure.

PROFESSOR ORTON, of Vassar: "The advocates of women's educational rights (and I am one of them) have raised expectations which will rarely be realized."

A clergyman in one of the rural towns of Maine, who had preached almost two hours the other Sunday, was interrupted by one of his hearers, who remarked in a very loud voice: "There, there, you have preached long enough! If you preach any longer we shall forget the subject of the text!"

NEW YORK. Three Young Men Drowned—Arrival of Three Hundred Menonites—Hydrophobia. New York, August 25.—Yesterday afternoon a steam tug was proceeding down East river, having in tow five coal barges.

FOREIGN. PARIS, August 25.—Carlism advices state that two hundred Republican volunteers, who were marching to the relief of Purycado, were captured by the royalists.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Over the Ohio valley high barometer and lower temperature than on Monday, winds mostly from northeast to southeast and clear weather.
