—On an excursion train returning recently from Wichita Falls W. O. Perry, editor of the Seymour News, was slapped in the face by a brakeman and resented with a suit for $10,000 damage. That was, perhaps the most prudent course and will perhaps turn out to be the most profitable, but all newspaper men are not so patient and forbearing and would have gone through that brakeman like a dose of salts.

There is a rising discontent among the colored contingent of the g. o. p. in Indiana that can only be allayed by the judicious distribution of a few slices of political pie.

The alien land law is raising a terrible hue and cry over the state and, after reading it carefully, as well as the comments upon it, aside from perhaps a slight temporary embarrassment, we cannot see much danger likely to accrue from it. The United States can doubtless furnish all the money that Texas wants to borrow, and it is a fact, having been demonstrated time after time that where there is a section of country plastered with mortgages of foreign syndicates it is an impoverished section, and when these syndicates, by virtue of their unpaid mortgages, become alien owners, a system of peonage and landlordism ensues that is detrimental to the best interests of the country. The law, with some slight modifications, we believe would be a good one.

A Wholesale Grocerman, Mr. T. D. Meador of the firm of Oglesby & Meador, thinks it is just as important to fortify against the sudden attacks of the bowels, as against the robber that invades the household. He says that Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial is a weapon, a "dead shot" to bowel troubles.

It is sad to think that Nebuchadnezzar after his gay life had to go to grass, but sadder the thought, that so many men of promise are able to find early graves by carelessness in not checking a cold in its early stages by the use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which can be bought for 25 cents.

—A well at Henrietta that usually has seven feet of water goes dry when the wind gets in the north and begins to blow from that direction.
