CLEVELAND IN IT.

Congressman Herbert, of Alabama is of the opinion that Cleveland will get the New York delegation. He has recently been in New York where he had an opportunity to study the situation and he says Cleveland is daily growing in favor.

Referring to the criticisms against Mr. Cleveland because of his alleged letter on the force bill, Mr. Herbert said: "This false criticism is a fair sample of the methods employed to beat down the greatest man in the democratic party. Mr. Cleveland did lift his voice against the force bill at the time when the measure was pending in the senate and when public opinion regarding it was being formed. His speech denouncing it was one of the most eloquent I ever heard. I want to see Cleveland re-nominated."

There is said to be great grief in Washington at the prospective discharge of 1600 clerks from the census bureau. It is quite likely that the grief will be strictly confined to that locality. The prospect that the census of 1890 is to be completed before the end of the century is positively cheerful.
