

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS

TRANSACTION BY THE LOCAL TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL AT THEIR MEETING HELD LAST EVENING.

An important meeting of the Palestine Trades and Labor Council was held last night at the Maccabee Hall, with a large number of delegates present. Much business of interest to organized labor was transacted by the Council.

A. M. Cohen, former secretary of the Council, was nominated and recommended for the position of vice-president and a member of the executive board of the Texas State Federation of Labor, to represent this district, and also as district organizer for the American Federation of Labor. Both positions are the most important within the gift of the Council, and quite an honor to the member receiving them.

Plans are being shaped for the purpose of organizing an assistant federation of the A. F. of L. for the local Council, which will include the mechanical departments of the International and Great Northern railroad only. Committees are now working on the proposition, which has proven quite a success in other railroad cities.

The poll tax payment question was again thoroughly discussed, and a determined effort will be made to get members of organized labor in this city to pay their poll taxes for the coming year.

Donations were made to the Garment Workers' Union of Chicago and the four unions on strike on the Missouri Pacific railroad.

E. R. Smith tendered the Council a box of union-made cigars, and a vote of thanks was extended him for the compliment.

A communication was read from the Austin Labor Council, calling attention to the following resolutions passed at a meeting of their council held last month:

"Whereas, during the administration of Governor Thomas M. Campbell there have been enacted twenty-eight laws for the protection and benefit of labor, and many measures inimical to the interests of the wage-earners of this state have been defeated, and

"Whereas, Governor Campbell has at all times and on all occasions shown his friendship for the toiling masses, and

"Whereas, the early retirement from public life of Governor Campbell brings to our mind that it is much more appropriate to give flowers to the living rather than to the dead; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the Austin Trades Council, that a committee of three be appointed to solicit funds from the various labor organizations in Texas to be turned over to the joint labor legislative board with which to buy a suitable token of the esteem held by organized labor in Texas for Governor Campbell upon his retirement to private life in January, 1911."

A donation to the above cause was unanimously made, and several other local unions have also sent in contributions. Many words of praise were spoken by members in behalf of Governor Campbell, and quite a number of members of organized labor will go to Austin from here for the presentation, which will take place at a joint labor mass meeting to be held the evening preceding the inauguration of the incoming governor.

The presentation will be made by the joint legislative board, which has the following to say of Governor Campbell's administration in its last report:

"In this connection we wish to say that the working people of Texas owe a debt of gratitude they can never repay to the governor for the strong support he has given to all measures for their betterment. His office has been open at all times to members of our board, and he has always been ready to meet and confer with us on matters of legislation, and in countless ways has advised and assisted us. He has proven himself a true friend of the masses of the people, and has stood courageously by their cause in all matters."

An effort will be made by members of the local Council to prevail upon the board to let Representative Z. Broughton make the presentation speech. He is a member of the local Council and an active member of organized labor.

Other business was transacted, when adjournment was taken until the next meeting, when the election of officers for the Council takes place.

NEWS FORECAST OF THE INCOMING WEEK

SOCIAL SEASON AT THE WHITE HOUSE BEGINS NEXT THURSDAY—CONGRESS HAS NOTHING STARTLING ON PROGRAM.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 10.—The whole field of human activity, except that devoted to business, will begin to slow up during the week, public affairs will be allowed to take care of themselves and public problems, even the high cost of living, will be forgotten for the moment, while the people prepare for the enjoyment of the holiday season.

The proceedings of congress do not promise much of interest until after the holiday recess. In Canada the parliament will adjourn Wednesday for the holidays and will not reassemble until January 10. In England, however, the progress of the election campaign will make the week one of unusual public interest and excitement.

The social season at the White House will begin Thursday evening with the customary dinner given by the President and Mrs. Taft in honor of the cabinet members and their wives.

A distinguished list of speakers headed by President Taft have consented to make addresses at the conference of the American Society for the Judicial Settlement of International Disputes, which will assemble in Washington Thursday for a three-day session.

Another notable gathering that Washington will entertain during the week will be the annual convention of the American Civic Association, a national organization devoted to the beautifying of American communities and the preservation of their natural scenery.

Of interest in Catholic church circles will be the coronation of Rev. Maurice P. Foley as bishop of the diocese of Tuguegarao, Philippine Islands, which is to take place Thursday in the cathedral in St. Augustine, Fla.

A thousand or more representative farmers of Canada are to meet in Ottawa Friday to meet the members of the Dominion government and parliament and present their claims on the tariff question and several other matters of importance to the farmers of Canada.

Notice.
The annual meeting of the shareholders of the First National Bank of Palestine, Texas, for the election of directors for the ensuing year will be held on the second Tuesday in January, 1911, at the offices of said bank in Palestine, Texas.

Who Are "They?"
(By a Staff Correspondent.)

We all have a way of saying "they say" this or that of some person or some thing and accepting it ourselves as authentic when some one says "they say" to us.

But if we stopped to inquire into the exact source of the information, either we would be unable to trace it back to any one other than the elusive individual, "They Say," or we will find back of it the unkind gossip of some enemy.

And just because "they say" fails to put the blame of a falsehood on any one person's shoulders it really is the most dangerous of statements and one of the hardest to refute.

So let us beware of believing "they say" stories. Let us treat lightly all gossip introduced by the words "they say." Or if this gossip makes us suspicious of its object—and it is natural and human that it should at times—let us suspend judgment until we KNOW. In other words, let us do the object of "they say" the justice to investigate until we find some one who is in a position from actual knowledge and whom we can trust, to make a positive statement over his own name as to the truth or falsity of the "they say" story.

The writer has been led to pen this little lesson in practical fairness by reading a little book issued by the Coca-Cola Company of Atlanta, Ga., entitled "The Truth About Coca-Cola." That truly delicious and wholesome beverage has for so long been the subject of "they say" stories in which all manner of untrue and detrimental things about Coca-Cola have been circulated that the manufacturers have been forced to issue their book giving authentic information about this beverage. And the information therein contained does not rest its case on any "they say" statements, but bases its arguments on analysis and statements of chemists and scientists occupying the highest positions in America.

This is a most interesting book—a fine study in dignity in refuting falsehoods—and a book of information that all should read. You will find it well worth your while to write and ask the Coca-Cola Company, Atlanta, Ga., to send you a free copy.
