REGITALS. DANCES.

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the week was that given Wednesday evening at the St. Regis, by the faculty and senior class of Providence hospital, when they entertained their friends at the graduating class exercises.

The class colors of red and green were effectively developed in the decorations, and long ribbon badges in the same colors were worn by the young women, and also adorned the dance programs.

Dr. M. P. Schuster presented the diplomas to the graduating class, which included: Misses Hazel Belknap, Joe Mitchell, Jessie Anderson, Emiline Morrison. The young women, who were becomingly attired in the nurses' costume of white, were presented with beautiful bouquets of American beauty roses and carnations from the hospital faculty, and also received many presents from outside friends.

M. P. Schuster was assisted in receiving and entertaining the many guests by the wives of the physicians, and of the members of the hospital board, who were: Mesdames H. E. Stevenson, F. P. Miller, J. A. Pickett, Hugh White, M. O. Wright, W. R. Bray, W. L. Brown, I. J. Bush, George Brunner, J. W. Cathcart, G. B. Calnan, R. B. Homan, G. H. Higgins, Mattie I. Hill, C. M. Hendricks, E. H. Irvin, W. C. Klutz, S. P. King, J. D. Love, J. E. Kilmner, N. T. Moore, W. H. Pickles, R. L. Ramey, J. A. Rawlings, Rodarte, J. M. Richmond, H. T. Safford, E. B. Rogers, J. A. Samaniego, Burleson Staten, Howard Thompson, G. Verley, Hugh White, M. O. Wright, W. R. Smith, L. G. Witherspoon, R. D. Robinson, W. B. Worsham, A. R. Kilen, Frank Lynch, French S. Cary, Robinson, Bosworth.

Punch was dispensed and at the close of the program refreshments of ices and cake were served, which further emphasized the color plan of red and green.

The under graduate class of nurses, gowned in dainty blue and white costumes, assisted in the serving.

The following program was rendered, and those taking part in it were presented by the hospital faculty with exquisite bouquets of American beauty roses, as an expression of appreciation.

School motto, "Semper Fidelis." Class colors, green and red. Invocation, Rev. C. L. Overstreet. Piano solo (selected), Mrs. J. M. Richmond. Address, Dr. Howard Thompson. Vocal solo (selected), Miss Caroline Payne.

Presentation of diplomas, Dr. M. P. Schuster. Vocal solo (selected), Miss Jennie Lynn Propat. Address to class, Dr. J. M. Richmond. Vocal solo (selected), Miss Helen Cooper.

Piano solo (selected), A. F. Sievers. Dancing, for which music was furnished by the Fort Bliss band, terminated a very delightful evening.

An event in musical circles will be the sacred concert to be given Sunday afternoon at the Country club.

Dr. C. P. Brown and Mrs. W. R. Brown are in charge of the program. Those taking part in the program are: Mrs. J. J. Kaster, Mrs. Lella T. Moore, Mrs. Gertrude M. Coffin, Mrs. Robertson, Miss Baringham, Miss Gertrude Ellis, Parvin Witte, H. H. Miller.

JONES IS COMING

Madero May Be Here, But Jones is Coming. Do you know Jones? Then, on May 4th you want to go and see what happened to him. The Knights of Columbus, assisted by their young lady friends, give their annual entertainment May 4th, and it is "What Happened to Jones." Rehearsals are getting along nicely. There is only one drawback. The actors and actresses get so occupied in laughing at each other's lines that they forget to say their own. Still, the stage manager has hopes of remedying this before the curtain rises. Tickets to the performance are now selling, at Ryan's Drug Store. The price is only $1.00 and the Knights of Columbus, collectively and individually, guarantee a show easily worth $2.00.

The members of the Terpsichorean club entertained Wednesday evening at the Elks' club with the last of the series of dances that have been given during the winter.

A large number of the members and their friends were in attendance, and the affair was one of the most successful of the season. The program held 12 dances with four extras, for which excellent music was furnished by the Kindig orchestra.

Punch was served between dances, and at midnight refreshments were served in the dining room. The guest list included: Misses Hattie Mae Loreta, Lucille Pierce, Mueller, McCullough, Jane Lindsey, Lucille Daniels, Sarah Cobb, Krause, Ethel Brown, Frances Mayfield, Karma Dean, Wood, Anderson, Lillian Lindsey, Adine Noake, Rena Caldwell, Kate Warren; Messrs. R. W. McCandless, Leon Miller, Doris, Stone, Hugh Dunn, Ben Cowan, Tom Mayfield, Davis Mayfield, Bacon, Jervis Deane, Bob Blair, T. Blair, Dr. B. P. Chittler, Douglas Gifford, E. C. Heid, Lehman, K. L. Sinclair, Callisher, Chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore, Mr. and Mrs. Le Veaux, Mr. and Mrs. Platt.

The El Paso Social club entertained on Friday evening at the Toltec club with the last of the series of four dances, which have been given during the winter.

Excellent music was furnished for the dancing by the Fort Bliss band, and at midnight a delightful supper was served.

Among those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Turney, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown, Capt. and Mrs. William Glasgow, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Happer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fomeroy, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Pickett, Mrs. Robinson Bosworth, Misses Henrietta Buckler, Frances Clark, Ruth McCurdy, Anne Lee Gaines, Anna Shelton, Helen Longuemare, Gertrude Ellis, Janie Ellis, Virginia Semple; Messrs. J. B. Kilpatrick, Dr. J. B. Vance, Gunther Leasing, Noel Longuemare, Fagin, Robert Martin, Dr. J. M. Ridley, Francis Moore, W. K. Marr, Lieuts. C. A. Thuis, E. W. Brabson, Ray Coles.

EL PASO SCHOOL FOR GIRLS Gives Interesting and Enjoyable Recital of Music Pupils, Piano and Violin.

The pupils' recital at the El Paso School For Girls, given by some of the music students Thursday afternoon at the school on Terrace street, was a gratifying success in every way. Piano pupils of A. F. Sievers, Francis Moore, and Miss Hermione Hawkins, and a violin pupil of H. H. Miller, gave proof of excellent instruction and careful training. The pupils, both beginners and advanced students, showed good technique, excellent tone and adequate understanding. The program included selections mainly from modern composers of many schools, including: Kulak, Godard, Van Gael, Grieg, MacDowell, Priml, Tschalkowsky, Chopin, Nevin and Guriltt.

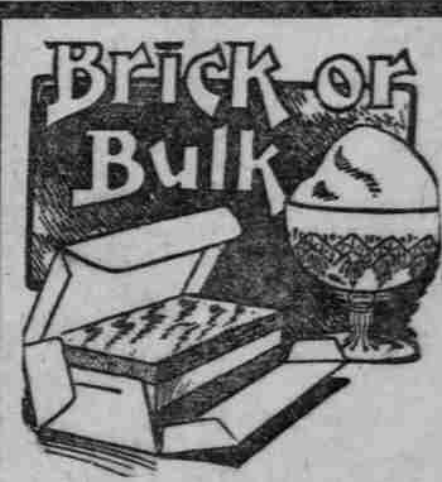

Need Glasses? ASK SEGALL

There are three steps in the correct fitting of glasses. First, the correct examination and diagnosis of what is wrong, second the proper corrective lenses, and, thirdly, properly adjusted frame. If any one of these is at fault, the glasses are wrong and are liable to work grave injury to the eyesight. That is why you should come to us to be fitted with glasses. Since 1901 we have demonstrated our ability to fit glasses—to make no mistake in the examination, the lenses or the adjusting of the frame.

DINNERS.

One of the most beautiful affairs given in honor of Miss Kathleen Myles and her bridal party was the dinner on Wednesday evening at the Toltec club, given by the groomsmen, Messrs. Garnett King, Dr. J. B. Vance, Frank Murchison, J. D. Wellett, J. E. Peyton. The floral decorations of the table were particularly attractive. American beauty roses in the central position providing a touch of brilliant color that was very effective. Each of the hand-painted place cards held illustrations typical of the guest to whom it belonged, and added much to the mirth of the occasion. Tiny silver bride's slippers were at each cover, holding the almonds, while that at Miss Myles' place was much larger and of handsome sterling silver design. The ice course was served in heart shaped boxes of white satin, ornamented with orange blossoms. The young women of the party included only the bride's attendants, Misses Henrietta Alice Myles; Henrietta Buckler, Ethel White, Anne Lee Gaines, Frances Clark. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myles chaperoned the party.

MODART CORSETS

"THE IMPROVED FRONT LACED"

ONLY TWO DAYS MORE

Monday and Tuesday

The Modart demonstration closes Tuesday evening. You must not fail to attend this demonstration some time Monday or Tuesday. Mrs. L. C. Redding, in charge, has an intimate knowledge of corsets. Consult her—tell her your corset troubles—and let her prescribe the proper Modart model for you.

The Aim of the Manufacturers of "Modart" Corsets

Modart is a new corset. It has been on the market but a short time but its merits quickly found favor. The manufacturers of Modart desired a corset that would give a woman the stylish lines she desires and be thoroughly comfortable at the same time. This was attained through the improved front lacing principle. The front of the body varies from day to day. Then, the corset should be adjusted also. Having the laces in front, a woman can easily adjust her corset herself.

Remember that Mrs. Redding can be with us only two days more. You must take time to consult her—Monday, if possible—failing that, Tuesday.
