Christian Endeavorers Elect Officers for 4 Months. New Pastor Called.

Agricultural College, N. M., Jan. 16.—The two games of basketball at Hadley hall proved a marked success. The games were very exciting throughout.

The officers of the Christian Endeavor society for the ensuing four months were elected last night at their business meeting as follows: President, S. Egbert Merrill; vice president, Claude Henry; secretary, Henry McCowan; chairman of committees as follows: Prayer meeting, Miss Frances Hinds; social, May Buell; missionary, Hazel Miller; flower and relief, Orris Longbottom; music, Grace Scott, and lookout, Claude Henry.

Dr. Gass, in charge of the Presbyterian work in New Mexico, filled the pulpit in the church at Mesilla Park both morning and night. He stated that the local Christian Endeavor was the best he had seen in New Mexico.

The Bible study met yesterday with the teachers of the Y. M. C. A. classes to arrange plans for the last semester of the year.

Some of the lateral roads leading out of Mesilla Park are being graded where they are exceedingly bad. Several select parties were held at the hall by the girls Saturday night, and was a birthday party, another a tacky party, and the third was fraternal party.

Rev. Mr. Duncan Mathieson, of Albuquerque, and formerly assistant pastor in Tacoma, Wash., has been selected to fill the pulpit for the next two months at the Presbyterian church at Mesilla Park.
