THEY ARE HEADED FOR EAST TEXAS.

A gentleman just back from the western section of Texas tells the same tale that hundreds of others are telling, and that is that those who went into that country, investing their all in high-priced lands, and who have been run out, bankrupted and ruined through the drought and consequent crop failures, are headed for this part of the state. He says many of these people are penniless, and with large families on their hands. Everything has been sacrificed, and they are headed for this part of the state, where crops are grown, and where the people have plenty. It is distressing, he says, to find these people, who put the ready money they had into the $40 and $50 an acre land, pulling up and leaving, most of them trying to make it to East Texas via private conveyances, not having the money with which to buy railroad fare. He says there is much suffering, privation and starvation. But they are determined to get out, and back to God's country, where the big yam potatoes grow, where there are plenty of corn and peas, home-cured hams and bacon—in fact all necessary for comfortable living.

This gentleman says this section is on the threshold of a boom, for the cheap lands appeal to these distressed people; the hills and dales, gurgling streams and sparkling waters of perennial springs are beckoning to them. And he is one of the number running from the west. He said he is a native of Houston county, and he is going back; back to the hills, to the sandy-land, to the land of 'possums and 'taters; to the land where people live. He says this looks like paradise to him since three years in the west, where the plains—nothing but plains—as far as the eye can see, without a break, without an intervening hill or stream, or tree, or anything to break the monotony, gets on one's nerves; where water is the most priceless possession, and where water is so scarce.

Palestine is going to send a car load of young corn growers to Dallas Monday, headed by Secretary Sterne of the Board of Trade. The boy corn growers will be there from all over Texas, and they will have a good time, as Dallas has prepared to give it to them.

"Fine" expresses the condition of the weather. It could not be better. Puts new life into every one, and makes business good. Merchants report the demand for warmer clothing is quite brisk, and that the people have the money with which to buy it.

Our good neighbor, Navarro county, in its first exhibit at the Dallas Fair, took second place when the awards were handed around. And Anderson county could have had first place, if she had only gone after it. Fact.

The pastors of the city are using a half page ad. in the Herald in telling of the work they are endeavoring to accomplish. And the advertising is bringing results. Go to church tomorrow.

The Herald is as happy as a mud turtle in the sunshine this blessed Saturday night. A full week's business has been rounded out, and all is well. Go to church tomorrow.

If Palestine had a hotel of the right proportion, big and inviting, it would have a hundred traveling men Sundaying here, who could go to church with us tomorrow.

A French author says American women make poor wives. Yes they are soon poor after some of these dead-broke French counts marry them.

Herald columns are brim full of spicy ads, telling the store news of Palestine's progressive stores. Read them all, and go to church tomorrow.

Considering what most people are willing to do, for money, is it not queer there are not more millionaires?

Water is said to be very scarce at Dallas. But there is an abundance of beer.

Just try it once. It won't hurt you. Go to church tomorrow.

Heed the pastors' appeal, and go to church tomorrow.

They cannot all come back, but Wellman did.

SCRIPTURE.
Acts 2:14-24.

But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:
For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel:
And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:
And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.
Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death; because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

ANOTHER GOOD SERVICE

Rev. James Kilgore Preached Sermon at Presbyterian Church In Revival Series.

The auditorium of the Presbyterian church was comfortably filled last night with mostly church people to enjoy the revival services being conducted by the local pastors of the protestant churches. After a spirited song service conducted by Rev. W. Frazier Smith of the Grace Methodist church, Rev. Kilgore of the Centenary Methodist church preached a strong sermon, regarding the demand of some people for a physical sign of the presence of God, and the coming judgment when witnesses shall stand against the men and women who die in sin. The sermon was full of good thoughts and practical. The speaker said apparently most people were indifferent in a large measure to the real substantial things of life, and only gave heed and concern to the superficial things. The sermon made a good impression.

Tomorrow the several pastors will occupy their own pulpits, and all will discuss the reasons for and against church attendance. This is an important theme, and possibly all men have opinions about it. Just as an example; last night there were probably three hundred members of the protestant churches of the city at the meeting, while the rest of the more than three thousand members were at home. The pastors have worked hard for three weeks to start a revival in the churches that the church might be instrumental in saving others. It is not a good showing. Go out tomorrow and hear the subject discussed.

Cottage Prayer Meeting.
Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be held a cottage prayer meeting with Mrs. J. M. Fullinwider, and all ladies are invited to attend.
