OKLAHOMA TO SEND SPLIT DELEGATION

Wilson and Clark Each Got Ten Delegates on Compromise.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 22.—Contest for control of the Oklahoma delegation to the national convention waged between Champ Clark and Woodrow Wilson campaigners, resulted in a compromise agreement at a meeting this morning whereby a split delegation will be sent to Baltimore. The convention adopted the report of the Wilson floor leader, pledging 10 delegates for Wilson and 10 for Clark.

An amendment to the compromise resolution, providing endorsement of Clark, was lost by a vote of 214-122. The convention took a recess till 10 o'clock.

The compromise was reached after a contest lasting practically all night, state politics frequently obstructing the way to a decision on the character of the Oklahoma delegation.

The turning point came when the amendment endorsing Clark was defeated, as the vote showed plainly to Clark adherents, that nothing remained but compromise.

whereupon the Murray resolution was adopted.

It is contended by party leaders that the division of the delegation provides any Oklahoma votes being cast for Harmon at the Baltimore convention. Oklahoma's entire strength will be thrown either to Clark or Wilson as soon as one of them shows a decided lead.

Senator Thomas P. Gore heads the list of 10 Wilson delegates to attend the national convention at Baltimore. The agreement made last night to elect 10 delegates pledged to Wilson and 10 instructed for Clark was carried out without a hitch.

Robert Galbreath, of Tulsa, was elected committeeman over John Doolin, of Oklahoma City by a vote of 407 to 148.

Galbreath was put forward by senator R. L. Owen.

Galbreath has been noncommittal as to the presidential aspirants.

PLENTY OF ROOM; PRICES ARE LOW

Cowmen Can Sleep All They Want, at No Increase in Price.

"We are ahead of the game and still going." (Big laugh). That is John Fisher's report on the condition of affairs for the March meeting of the Cattlemen's association, as far as his important part, the housing of the visitor, is concerned.

John—Mr. Fisher—says he has 250 rooms listed and that there will be plenty of room for the cowmen if all the cowpunchers in the country, exclusive of the moving picture show variety, come to attend the doings here in March.

Mr. Fisher is chairman of the committee which has the listing of rooms in charge and he has been hitting the ball right on the seam since his appointment was published in an anxious-waiting world.

"And there will be no increase in prices in this little town, kid," Fisher said Friday. "We have the rooms and the rates listed and we are going to see that no one pays a cent more than reasonable as it can be made. The hotels are arranging to accommodate the visitors, even at the expense of regular patronage, and we have divided the town into two sections and have conducted a systematic canvass of every available rooming house, residence and hotel. Let 'em come, we are ready for them tomorrow as far as my committee is concerned."

TODAY'S MEN WETEN TOMORROW'S HERESY

Underwood Points to Conservatism of Washington, in Banquet Talk.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 22.—An eloquent eulogy of George Washington by representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, chairman of the ways and means committee of the House and Democratic floor leader, formed the chief address before the annual banquet of the State society of the Cincinnati club here.

While declaring Washington the greatest example in history of a "many-sided well-balanced noble man," he laid special emphasis on the conservatism which guided the "father of his country" throughout his public career.

"At times when so many of us are disposed to put upon the statute book nostrums for relief from our industrial and financial and economic ills," he said, "it will be well for us to call to mind the striking contrast between the moderate volume and the conservative character of laws enacted during his presidency and so much of our present day legislation of the experimental sort, reflecting often merely a fever today that is likely to be the heresy of tomorrow. And attempting to deal with the objectionable tendency before it is seen that it will not be arrested of itself, or before we have sufficient understanding of it to be in a position to know or apply the appropriate remedy."

"The recommendations and legislation of the Washington administration were not along guess work lines. He assured men that they should gather and be secure in the possession of the harvest of their labor."

Hints at Dictatorship.
A play upon the name of Roosevelt was seen by some in one of representative Underwood's statements, which warned against the possibility of a dictatorship.

"Observation and reflection have shown," he said, "how treacherously the transition from the concentration of government—which those of the Republican party set so much by and which a good many of us Democrats acquiesce in—to a personalization of government and then to usurpation of government. Washington in all his career made no greater mistake than when he declared that a constitutional government, under such circumstances, becomes almost, as a matter of course, a despotism."

Representative Underwood said in part:

"Washington's common sense and practical turn of mind served him well in the administration of his high office. Few, if any, mere generalities or glib schemes for action were suggested by him; but on the contrary, he seemed to be master of the underlying principles of the business needs of the country as he had been of the plans of his campaigns."

"We have problems of a serious nature confronting us for solution, and doubting they will increase as time goes on. We, as people have tolerated the doing of things which must be undone or made right and not condoned; we have at times set too much store by mere material success and judged as of minor consequence things which broaden and elevate and ennoble a nation; we have made compromise with things of evil import. We have, at times, been unmindful of the rights of others as we have hurried on the realization of ambitious plans; and in our indifference to the demands of good citizenship, we have not afforded the most concerned listeners; for unchecked unrest is likely to breed discontent, and discontent is a sure sign of social disorder. And, unless we frankly recognize this, we shall have no reasonable hope of correcting the conditions which arouse, if they do not altogether justify, those expressions, and which are a menace not only to our continuing prosperity but to our self respect and our repute in the world."

GO AFTER THE MAN FIRST, SAYS WILSON

Urges Dealing With Individuals Rather Than Corporations.

Topeka, Kas., Feb. 22.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, in an address to the Kansas Democratic club on "The relation of business to the government," advocated dealing with men rather than corporations in fighting combinations. He said in part:

"We look back today to a great example—the example set us by a great practical genius whose gift it was to look forward and plan the life of a nation. It is the singular distinction of Washington and his associates that they conceived their own fortunes and the fortunes of Virginia in the terms of the development of the nation. When we, in our generation, look upon the circumstances of America, we must try to see the facts as they are and to see them broadly. America is a business nation, a nation of material enterprise and commerce on a large scale."

"It is our duty, therefore, if we would heed the example of Washington and the men of his generation, to ask ourselves what must we do for America as she is?"

"The cry of the hour seems to be that business has grown so formidable in its independent organization as to have set itself up in rivalry to the government itself and that it therefore must be regulated; that the whole force of government must be bent to the restraint of business. I venture to suggest that what we are really after, it is not the restraint of business, but the restraint of individuals who are putting business on a false and selfish footing."

"We do not wish to hamper the great process of our economic life, but to free them where they have been made wrong use of by men who have ignored the common interest and sought to promote their own private

Peculiar After Effects of Grip This Year

Leaves Kidneys in Weakened Condition.

Doctors in all parts of the country have been kept busy with the epidemic of grip which has visited so many homes. The symptoms of grip this year are very distressing and the system in a run down condition, particularly the kidneys which seem to suffer in most, as every victim complains of lame back and urinary troubles which should not be neglected, as these danger signs often lead to more serious sickness, such as dreaded Bright's Disease. Local druggists report a large sale on Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, which so many people say soon heals and strengthens the kidneys after an attack of grip. Swamp Root is a great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, and, being an herbal compound, has a gentle healing effect on the kidneys, which is almost immediately noticed by those who try it. Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., offer to send a sample bottle of Swamp Root, free by mail, to every sufferer who requests it. A trial will convince any one who may be in need of it. Regular size bottles 50c and $1.00. For sale at all druggists. Be sure and mention this paper.

BUT ONE ANSWER TO ALL QUESTIONS NOW

New York, N. Y., Feb. 22.—Col. Roosevelt was back at his desk today but prepared to depart tomorrow for Boston. He was uncommunicative, saying to the newspaper men:
