

CHRISTMAS SONGS.

I.
Christmas is Here.

Sing we all merrily, Christmas is here—
Day that we love best of days in the year;
Bring forth the holly, the box and the bay,
Deck out the cottage for glad Christmas day.
Cocoa.—Christmas is here—Christmas is here,
Sing we all merrily, Christmas is here,
Repeat.

Sing we all joyfully, sing of Christ's birth,
Sing when the angels sang, "Peace upon earth!"
Parents and children in bright garments dress'd
Hasten to church to sing praise with the rest.
Cocoa.—Christmas is here, etc.

Sing we all merrily, Christmas is here,
Day that we love best of days in the year;
Kisters and brothers and friends far away,
Oh, how we wish they were with us to-day.
Cocoa.—Christmas is here, etc.

II.
Merry Christmas.

Merry Christmas! Merry Christmas!
For the Saviour came to-day;
Ev'ry care and grief and sorrow
From our joyful hearts away!
See the tree with lights all gleaming
Among the branches fresh and green!
Ah, what strange fruit 'tis laden,
All we wish can there be seen.
Cocoa.—Merry Christmas! Merry Christmas!
Merry Christmas to you all! —Repeat.

Merry Christmas, Jesus brought us
When He came from heav'n above,
He bath'd our souls in His love,
Kind and faithful friends and teachers,
Pastor ever good and true,
Thank you loving children offer,
Merry Christmas now to you!
Cocoa.—Merry Christmas, etc.

III.
Joy to the World.

Joy to the world—the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the earth—the Saviour reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonder of His love.

Bulletins from Smith.

It is a protracted business. The papers generally get hold of the man a week before he breathes his last, and then they keep him hard at it until the breath really leaves his body. In the good old-fashioned days of our grandfathers a man was dead but once in the newspapers. Now the agonies of dissolution are kept up as long as possible "for the benefit of our readers."

- Thus:
- Sept. 1—Mr. Smith is dangerously ill.
  - Sept. 2—No hope of Smith's recovery.
  - Sept. 3—Mr. Smith will not live through the night.
  - Sept. 4—Smith is sinking.
  - Sept. 5—Smith has bidden a last farewell to all his friends.
  - Sept. 6—Smith rallied a little yesterday.
  - Sept. 7—Smith is dead.
  - Sept. 8—The report that Smith is dead is false.
  - Sept. 9—Smith was able to partake of a little tea and toast last evening, and bid his friends a second last farewell.
  - Sept. 10—Rev. Mr. — spent the night with Smith, who is resigned, etc.
  - Sept. 11—Smith feebly rallied this morning, expressed a few devotional wishes and asked the price of Lake Shore.
  - Sept. 12—Smith is sinking again.
  - Sept. 13—Smith is able to sit up.
  - Sept. 14—Smith was seen at Delmonico's down town restaurant, yesterday, stuffing himself with mock turtle and pumpkin pie.
  - Sept. 15—Smith won the athletic foot race to-day.

What Christianity Is.

Christianity is not a conversion to certain doctrines and dogmas, but a conversion to a certain mode of living, in and for itself invigorating, inspiring, gentle, loving, pure, hopeful—to a life which puts in man a heart to forgive and forget, to lift up the fallen, relieve the suffering; and the religion that creates in man a heart that produces such a life, is Christianity, and that man is a Christian. The religion that makes home beautiful, the father kind, the mother thoughtful, children obedient, man just to his fellow man and true to his own convictions, is the religion the world wants, and for which men and women are dying. They will create a millennium in every household, and the dawn of the thousand years in every heart, and by the fruit projecting from the avenues of affection, conversation, benevolence, humanity, etc., do we judge the Christianity in man, and the man of Christianity.—Independent Age.

TUTT'S PILLS

A Noted Divine says
They are worth their weight in gold.

READ WHAT HE SAYS:

Dr. TUTT.—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation, and Piles. Last spring your pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

Riv. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

Dr. Tuttt has been engaged of medicine thirty years, and for a long time was demonstrator of anatomy in the Medical College of Georgia, hence, persons using his Pills have the guarantee that they are prepared on scientific principles, and are free from all quackery.

He has succeeded in combining in them the heretofore antagonistic qualities of a strengthening, purgative & purifying tonic.

Their first apparent effect is to increase the appetite by causing the food to properly assimilate, thus the system is nourished, and by their tonic action on the digestive organs, regular healthy evacuations are produced.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their capability to nourish the body, and hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, melancholy, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, singleness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system. Sold everywhere. Office, 35 Murray Street, New York.
