BOWIE MAN HAS CACTUS GARDEN

Prices Now Offered Are Netting Owner $15 Yearly For Each Plant.

Bowie, Ariz., Nov. 12.—C. G. Bray, a local farmer, has a small cactus garden which is attracting considerable attention here. He has the best fruiting variety of Burbank spineless.

The plants are now two years old. They are almost as high as a man's head and average more than 20 slabs, or leaves, to the plant. The plants purchased from the Burbank nursery cost $2 each.

Mr. Bray has been offered 50 cents each for the slabs on his plants. At this rate he could clear $15 per plant on the cacti in two years.

Has Studied Cactus Culture.

He has made a careful estimate of the amount of forage per acre the cacti will produce. The rows should be nine feet apart and the plants three feet apart in each row. In the second year they produce 20 slabs to the plant, which makes 48,300 slabs. At one and a half pounds each this would be 37 tons per acre.

The pears on this cacti are an excellent food, being used principally for preserves and jellies. They find a ready sale and a considerable amount would be realized from these on one acre of ground.

RAISES CELERY 22 INCHES LONG

Alpine, Tex., Nov. 12—Celery 22 niches long was raised and marketed by J. B. Spence on the old Edwards place, just east of Alpine. Mr. Spence also is raising and marketing other unusually large and fine vegetables, and is demonstrating that the soil and climate here are especially adapted to the successful growing of garden truck.

Seasonable rains have made the crops in the Alpine country excellent this year and farmers are finding ready sale for their products.

CURB STOCK COMMITTEE DISSOLVES; WORK DONE

New York, Nov. 12.—The committee on unlisted or curb stocks, which was formed soon after the opening of the war to exercise supervision over purchases and sales of these issues, was dissolved today. The stock exchange committee stated that because of the improvement in the general financial situation there no longer remained any reason for the continuances of the committee.

The ordinary cost of a Want Ad in The El Paso Herald is 25 cents. It reaches an average of about 85,000 readers each issue.

SEED OF EL PASO ONION IS LOST

Finely Flavored Product of the Valley Disappeared When Water Stopped.

LOST—The seed of the El Paso onion lost many years ago in the El Paso valley. Reward if returned to Maj. W. J. Fewel.

The El Paso onion and the mission grape, two of the El Paso valley's most famous products, have disappeared from the market and many older El Pasoans, who knew the fine flavor of the mission grapes and the equally fine flavor of the El Paso onion, long for these two products of the lower valley which became famous throughout two republics.

The old timers differ as to the exact date when the El Paso onion ceased to be a commercial product of the valley. Maj. W. J. Fewel, who offered a reward of $5 for anyone who would bring him the seed of the El Paso onion, says that the onion disappeared at the same time that the water was taken out of the river in the upper reaches and the native ranchers were forced to abandon their onion farms and mission grape vineyards. Other pioneers say that it was not more than 20 years ago that the El Paso onion disappeared and that the mission grape may be found in a few places in the valley even at this time, although it has disappeared as a commercial commodity.

El Paso Onion Once Famous.

The El Paso onion was the most famous product ever grown in the El Paso valley, even excelled the cantaloupe, which became famous in recent years. It was a silver white onion, had a fine, sweet flavor and was without a trace of fire in it. The onion grew to a large size and Al Howard says he has seen them which measured 11 1-2 inches across. They were shipped to the east and to all parts of Texas and commanded the highest price on the markets of the country, being especially sought by the easterners, who bought them in boxes. It is even said that they were sold on the fruit stands in New York just as fruits and melons were offered.

Like the cantaloupe, which took its place in popular favor among the products of the El Paso valley, the El Paso onion's fine flavor depended upon the quality of the seed from which it was grown. Father Ortiz, the revered priest of the Ysleta church, was said to have made it his work to raise the seed of the El Paso onion and to distribute it among his parishioners as long as he lived. In this way the standard of the onion seed was kept up. But after he died the older residents of the valley say, the seed became mixed with the Bermuda and other onion stocks and became inferior in flavor. The onion stock is said to have run down until it was finally lost entirely.

No Seed Obtainable.

In spite of the reward, Maj. Fewel was unable to find a single seed of the famous onion. He heard that there was some in the San Lorenzo settlement, on the Juarez side of the river, but has never been able to obtain any of the seed. Several years ago Z. T. White wished to plant some of this seed on his ranch and asked the late D. M. Payne to get him some. Mr. Payne, who was then in the commission business, sent to the interior of Mexico, where he had heard that the seed was grown. But it was sterile, and failed to germinate. Charles Stevens also made an effort to get some of the seed, but failed, although M. Lowenstein, of Ysleta, told him that it could be had at one place in the Juarez valley, but it was never found. He says that there is an onion seed that is shipped here from Michigan which is called the El Paso onion seed, but it did not produce the same onion as the one the pioneers knew.

Col. Eugene Van Patten, of Las Cruces, says that there is an onion grown by the indians near Mesilla Park which resembles the El Paso onion, but which is red in color.

DOUBLES ACREAGE OF WINTER OATS

Alamogordo, N. M., Nov. 12.—The Alamogordo Improvement company has just finished planting 77 acres in winter oats. The company last spring harvested an average of more than 80 bushels to the acre, from the 32-acre tract near La Luz. The management was so much pleased with this big yield that the acreage has been more than doubled.

BOMB EXPLODES, JUDGE INTENDED VICTIM, BELIEF

New York, Nov. 12.—Judge Louis D. Gibbs, who presided in a number of white slave cases recently in which foreigners were involved, is believed to be the intended victim of one of two bomb explosions Wednesday night. The first explosion occurred alongside the Bronx borough court house and did much damage to the building. The shock of the explosion was felt blocks away.

Judge Gibbs, at the time of the explosion, was preparing to leave his chambers in the building in company with his private secretary, Samuel Phillips.

The judge was shaken by the concussion but escaped injury.

The police said the bomb was of the time explosive type and was set to go off at about the hour judge Gibbs usually left his chambers.

Shortly after the bomb had exploded at the court house, a second explosion blew up in front of the office of city marshal John C. Hoefling, nearby. Hoefling had just left his office. He was not hurt.

Oh! the Charm of Beauty

Let Stuart's Calcium Wafers Restore the Color to Your Cheeks and Remove the Cause of Pimples, Blackheads, Etc.

Everyone envies a beautiful skin, just as every one envies a healthy person. Unsightly faces filled with pimples, discolorations, blackheads, etc., are nothing but unhealthy faces due to blood impurities. Cleanse the blood and the facial blemishes disappear.

"Life to me now is a beauteous thing, for I have made all skin troubles a thing of the past."

You must not believe that drugs and salves will stop facial blemishes. The cause is impure blood filled with all manner of refuse matter.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers cleanse and clear the blood, driving out all poisons and impurities. And you'll never have a good complexion until the blood is clean.

These little wafers may be used with perfect freedom. Science knows no more powerful blood cleanser. They are entirely free from harmful drugs or opiates. Your doctor prescribes these hundreds of times a year.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers go right into your blood. Their purifying, beneficial effect upon the blood is felt throughout the body, not in a year or a month, but in a few days. You feel better all over because your blood, the life-giving fluid, is doing its work properly.

No matter how bad your complexion is, Stuart's Calcium Wafers will work wonders with it. You can get these little wonder-workers at your druggist's for 50 cents a package. If you wish to try a small sample first it will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., 175 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.—Advertisement.

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS AND FOOD FERMENTATION

By a Stomach Specialist.

As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Hyperacidity irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and they comprise over 50 per cent of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking in a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, from one to two teaspoonfuls of bisurated magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only really effective antacid and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bisurated magnesia, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.—F. J. G.—Advertisement.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter wil be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
