The little ones present were: Johanna Schwartz, Katherine Howard Wilson, Benton, Paul Overman, Barbara Brown, Edward Millican and Daisy Millican.
The monthly social of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church was held Thursday night in the church parlors. Games of various kinds were played. "Kahoots" and a "Mum" social afforded much fun. Miss Helen Westgaard won the prize in the letter game, a little toy telephone, filled with candies, in the croaker eating contest. Miss Buena Gilder won the prize. A clothes pin doll dressing contest also added much merriment. Refreshments were served by the hostesses of the day, who were: Misses Alice Wilson, Margaret Iverson, Estelle Colford, Emma Laughlin, Margaret Iverson, Helen Westgaard, Margaret Laughlin, Emma Laughlin, Mildred Hughes, Kate Krause, Ruth Keating, Mary Keating, Nettie Louise Rowland, Vera Hewitt and Allene Stansel; Messrs. Receptions.
In honor of the new members of Trinity Methodist church who have joined the church since October, a reception was given by the Women's Missionary society of the church Thursday night in the church parlors. A program was given in the upstairs auditorium of the church, and then in the latter part of the evening, the guests went to the large rooms downstairs, where refreshments were served. The platform and pulpit upstairs were decorated with quantities of palms and pink carnations. Rev. C. Wesley Webb, pastor of the church opened the meeting with an invocation and made a short address, greeting to the new members. Mrs. W. A. Traylor, second vice president of the missionary society, greeted the guests of honor on behalf of the church members of the church and the missionary society. J. E. Congdon sang. Mrs. C. N. Cornington recited a selection from Mark Twain. Mrs. W. O. Owen and Mrs. Adine Owen played a piano solo. A double quartet, composed of Mesdames W. D. Howe, A. A. Lawler, J. C. Griffith, N. Miller, Misses Irene Gaylord, Lila Gaylord, Vera Ballard and Emma Hoffman, sang several selections. Mrs. J. J. Pearce was the accompanist. Then the guests went downstairs, where a salad course was served. The rooms were decorated with quantities of red and green Christmas decorations. Red candles in crystal sticks were on the little supper tables, which were laid with Cluny lace doilies and centered with bouquets of red carnations. The new members were distinguished from the others by wearing a little pink and white bow of ribbon and centered with a white carnation. The missionary members of the board of stewards each wore a white carnation. The "ghet" hand was extended to the new members in the form of little cardboard hands upon which was written the name of some member of the church who was to give them a good Methodist hand shake. The reception was very well attended by the church people.
