U. S. Places Humanity First

President Wilson's implication but his hearers interpreted his remarks as meaning that while the United States would remain at peace, it would not be convinced by Germany's injustice to mankind of the tragedy of last Friday.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 11.—Fifteen thousand Americans, united in national purpose no matter where their place of birth, heartily cheered president Wilson late Monday when he delivered an address in Convention hall for the particular benefit of 4000 naturalized Americans.

Washington, D. C., May 11.—President Wilson said today he would make a decision on the policy to be followed in the Lusitania case as soon as he had all the elements in mind.

Consul Urges Measures to Recover 1100 Bodies

London, Eng., May 11.—Walter H. Page, the American ambassador, has received a message from Wesley Frost, American consul at Queenstown, urging him to make clear to the German government and the British admiralty that "really effective measures to recover the 1100 missing bodies from the Lusitania are imperative."
