ANNUAL CHARITY BALL A BRILLIANT EVENT IN THE TOLTEC CLUB ROOMS

THE annual charity ball Wednesday night was attended by a brilliantly gowned throng of society folk. The ballrooms of the Toltec club were elaborately decorated with quantities of smilax studded with red carnations, twined about the pillars and festooned over the balcony. Through the dining room and the parlors were baskets of carnations and ferns. In the receiving line were the officers and board of directors of the Associated Charities, who were Messrs. J. M. Wyatt, Robert Krakauer, R. F. Burges, Dr. W. C. Klutts, Dr. W. L. Brown, Dr. J. A. Rawlings, Mrs. W. L. Foxworth, Mrs. Paul Ginther, and Mrs. H. W. Broaddus. The guests were introduced by Mrs. W. R. Brown. The opening march in which a number of fancy figures were executed, was led by Mrs. Josephine Nations Morfit with Sterling Blackshear, and Miss Marion Young with Ernest Sauer.

A pleasing feature of the ball were the exhibition dances given during the intermission period. W. R. Brown announced the dancers. An oriental fantasy was danced by Mrs. H. B. Stevens, jr., and Miss Georgina Martin. Mrs. Stevens wore a Turkish costume of red velvet trousers, with the dark green velvet bolero, white blouse and red fez. Miss Martin wore a yellow skirt, with broad red and black horizontal stripes, a white blouse, black velvet bolero and red bloomers.

Six girls costumed in the early Victorian period performed a graceful dance, "Allegretto." The girls taking part were Misses Marion Calnan, Frances Oppenheimer, Sadie Ruth Aldridge, Dorothy Vellerteen, Phyllis Lorie and Sophia Williams. Miss Ida Hunter played their piano accompaniment. The girls were costumed alike in very full dresses of white net, the skirts made with many ruffles piped with black. The small bloused waisted bodices were trimmed with narrow bands of black velvet ribbon. The old fashioned little lace pantalettes which extended below the skirts were also edged with the black. The girls were their hair in curls and tiny flowers in their hair. Mrs. H. B. Stevens, jr., trained the girls for the dancing.

Miss Karma Dean gave a solo dance to the "Barcarolle" from "Tales of Hoffman." She wore a costume of rainbow hued chiffon, ranging from deep orange to pale green and trimmed with pearls. Small clusters of roses caught in the folds of the skirt. She wore a turban of black velvet with blue feathers.

The music for all the dancing was contributed by the musicians' union.

During the dancing punch was served and a salad course was served in the dining room the latter part of the evening.

ANCIENT POTTERY AND CHINA SUBJECTS FOR WOMAN'S CLUB WEEKLY MEETING

AMERICAN Ceramics were the discussion topic of the art department of the Woman's club at its meeting Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium of the First Christian church. Mrs. A. P. Averill, the department chairman, presided. As her message to the department from the state federation in Brownwood, Mrs. Averill spoke of the idea of using a stereopticon lantern so that pictures might always be kept before the art department. She announced the recommendation of the board of directors of the club that the paintings of Allen True, of Denver, be brought to El Paso for an exhibit under the management of the art department. Mrs. Branch Craige talked about Mr. True's work. Mr. True is a native El Pasoan. The house in which he was born stood on the site now occupied by the First Presbyterian church. Mr. True studied art in the Corcoran school in Washington, D. C., and was a pupil of Howard Pyle in New York. After giving up illustrating, he went into mural painting and has been a pupil and associate of Brangyn, the famous English mural painter, whose murals of the four elements of nature—fire, earth, wind and water—were the masterpieces of the Panama-Pacific exposition. The paintings to be exhibited here will include about 50 pictures, 20 of which are of New Mexico and southern Colorado scenes.

Mrs. Frank Seward was in charge of the program of the afternoon. The current events in art were given by Mrs. S. J. Freudenthal and Mrs. A. P. Averill. Mrs. Freudenthal talked about garden pottery, of cement and terra cotta. Mrs. Averill spoke of the art department meeting of the state federation convention.

Mrs. C. H. Campbell gave an interesting talk on the potteries of the eastern states, illustrating her talk about the various manufacturers by specimens of different kinds of glass, china and pottery.

Mrs. Henry Warren read a paper on western pottery. She spoke of the cliff dwellers' work in pottery and exhibited specimens that she had found herself in Arizona. She mentioned the pottery plant in California, which is a philanthropic institution where tubercular girls from the stores, shops and factories may support themselves while seeking health.

Mrs. S. M. Janes talked interestingly upon the pottery of the cliff dwellers, which she illustrated by three very unusual pieces of their handicraft. The pieces of pottery are of the sort used to hold the seeds and grains which were placed beside the dead at their burial. One is quaintly ornamented with a design of tadpoles within and frogs outside. Another in the shape of a modern rose jar is ornamented with symbolic lightning and other symbols in red and brown. A cup with a handle was ornamented in the same design. Mrs. Janes exhibited some very small cliff dweller arrow heads. She also exhibited arrow heads of the same size found in Texas. These are recorded by the Smithsonian institute as belonging to a prehistoric period antedating by a long time the use of the larger arrow heads more commonly found. The same miniature arrow heads were found in great quantities in Death Valley, California, by government service men.

Mrs. Janes also exhibited a piece of bronze luster ware that dates back to the Mayflower period.

Among the pottery and china exhibits was a jewel case, said to have belonged to Marie Antoinette, which is of Sevre ware, ornamented with gold, a plate from the service of the great Napoleon; a quaint French pitcher, which contains two compartments, one for coffee and one for hot milk, each with a separte opening in the spout an old liquor bottle containing four compartments for the serving of mixed drinks, and an old Dutch blue plate, all the property of Mrs. Paul Ginther.

Mrs. S. V. Young exhibited a signature vase of Tiffany and a piece of Tiffany Rockwood pottery.

Mrs. Miles Hansen exhibited an old piece of Coalport china, a bit of old Goss wear, a pitcher and sugar bowl of old china over a century old, and a Lancasterian Pilkinton pitcher from the potteries of west England.

Mrs. R. E. Thomason exhibited a glove box of Tiffany's Favrile glass, a piece of Teco ware, a Rockwood vase and two plates of Crackle ware, made in Deerfield, Mass., reproductions of very old Oriental ware.

There were two pieces of Rockwood pottery exhibited that were made by Mrs. J. C. Mee, who is also the owner.

A quaint "John Gilpin" pitcher was exhibited by Mrs. K. L. Simons. A pitcher similar to this is in the British museum. The pitcher is ornamented with bas-reliefs of John Gilpin upon his horse with his wife and children in the chaise. Mrs. Simons also exhibited a cup and saucer that has been handed down through her family since the days of George Washington. Specimens of cut glass and art glass from local stores formed an interesting part of the exhibit.

At the close of the exhibition of the pottery pieces, Mrs. Elizabeth Darwin, of the state pure food commission, spoke of the observations of her inspections here. She urged the women not to buy bread and cakes that were not wrapped in sealed papers, and also urged them to insist on their dealers keeping the fruits, breads and meats for display under glass, so that they would be protected from dust and germs.

Mrs. S. H. Sutherland announced that Mrs. Darwin would make her daily start from the chamber of commerce instead of the city hall, as at first announced, and that anyone interested would be welcome to accompany Mrs. Darwin upon her inspection trips Friday and Saturday at 9:30 o'clock in the mornings and at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoons.

The club members were reminded of the "buy it made in Texas" week and urged to bear this in mind.

At the conclusion of the program, Miss Belle White sang "Life and Death" and "At the Spring," with Miss Margaret Young playing her piano accompaniment.

L. Foxworth. The rooms were most attractively decorated with red carnations and ferns and red candles in silver and crystal sticks were used. Mrs. Thomason, Mrs. Darwin and Mrs. J. W. Lorentzen, the regent of the chapter, received the guests. Mrs. Thomason was gowned in a soft, deep red silk, with the bodice of lace, trimmed with brown fur. Mrs. Darwin wore a white lace gown over white net, trimmed with narrow ropes of green beads. The vest and trimmings were of silver lace. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, tied with red, white and blue streamers, the gift of the hostess. Mrs. Lorentzen was dressed in a gown of accordian pleated yellow silk, veiled with pale blue chiffon. Tea was served in the dining room. Mrs. L. L. Robinson and Mrs. W. S. Tilton poured the tea. The table was centered with a basket filled with red carnations and ferns. Red candles in silver sticks were about the table. Each guest was presented with a little silk flag. A Fine Aid For Mother-to-be

We are all greatly indebted to those who tell their experiences. And among the many things which we read about and are of immediate importance to the expectant mother, is a splendid external remedy called "Mother's Friend." This is applied over the muscles of the stomach. It is deeply penetrating in its influence. Mothers everywhere tell of its soothing effect, how it allays pains incident to stretching of cords, ligaments and muscles. They tell of restful comfort, of calm, peaceful nights, an absence of those distresses peculiar to the period of expectancy, relief from morning sickness, no more of that apprehension with which so many young women's minds become burdened. It is a splendid help. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" from your nearest druggist. Ask your husband to get it for you. Then write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 405 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a very handsome and instructive book. It is filled with suggestive ideas of great help to all women interested in the subject of maternity. And best of all are some letters from mothers that are real inspirations. Write today.

SHE WAS A MERE SKELETON

This Lady Suffered From Severe Pain in Left Side, Was Very Weak, and Confined to Bed For Month at a Time

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Mrs. Dora Funderburg, of this city, says: "When I was 14 years old I was very poorly, and was told that my case was very bad.... The medicine I took did me no good, and I only spent my money for nothing, as I got no relief, but when I commenced taking Cardui, I began improving.

Before taking Cardui I was a mere skeleton, and was very weak and was confined to my bed at times, sometimes as long as a month at a time. I was unable to go to school regularly for two years, on account of my bad health. I had cramping every month, and a severe pain in my left side....

My mother told me of Cardui, and after taking one bottle I was greatly relieved of the pains. I have continued taking it until I feel like a different woman, and I cannot praise Cardui enough.... I am now gaining in weight, and all my friends that see me speak of how much better I look in the last month, and I tell them I am taking Cardui.... I highly recommend it to all suffering women."

Try taking Cardui for your troubles. Get a bottle today. You won't regret giving it a trial. Your druggist sells it.—Adv.
