

Real Dramatic Treat

El Pasos have a treat in store for them next Monday and Tuesday in the visit here of Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, the eminent English actor and scholar.

Let's Have the Christmas Tree

That big Christmas tree idea advanced by Geo. H. Clements, publicity commissioner of the chamber of commerce, is a good one and should be carried out.

Christmas Books With a Purpose

Attention of The Herald has been called to the work Miss Elizabeth Banks is doing to raise a fund for the wounded in the allied armies on the fighting line in Europe.

Getting Business Men Together

The Herald is pleased to note the number of business men's meetings that are being held of late around the banquet board.

Short Snatches From Everywhere

A Texas Democrat is one who prefers pie to proverbs—Waco Times-Herald. Instead of a big stick president Wilson recommends a magazine rifle—Chicago News.

Southwest Copper Mines Surprise Japanese Schools Will Need $40,000 For Next Year

THE copper operations in this country, and especially what I have seen in the southwest, are of proportions far beyond the immediate reach of copper companies in Japan.

Further, we have had to take into consideration the fact that the compulsory education law will be in effect after September 1 of next year and preparations must be made to take care of the great increase in attendance that will result.

bring about a great amount of good by an increase in knowledge and a quickened knowledge of what is unsanitary and what is not among both dealers and patrons.

ABE MARTIN

Cheer up! Ther hain't nobuddy ever-buddy likes. Some fellers say nothin', but draw th' line on sawin' wood.

Turkey Is National Bird of Thankfulness Reigns Upon Bills of Fares and In Dreams

THE turkey is the national bird of thankfulness. He reigns not upon our coins or in our poetry, but upon our bills of fares and in our dreams.

has never been tried on a dinner and ward politicians is an exasperating mystery. We are indeed a careless nation.

for this. He is a most capricious un-healthy bird. Knowing that the appetite of the nation will be whetted for him in November, he takes a positive pleasure in dying in June.

Thanksgiving

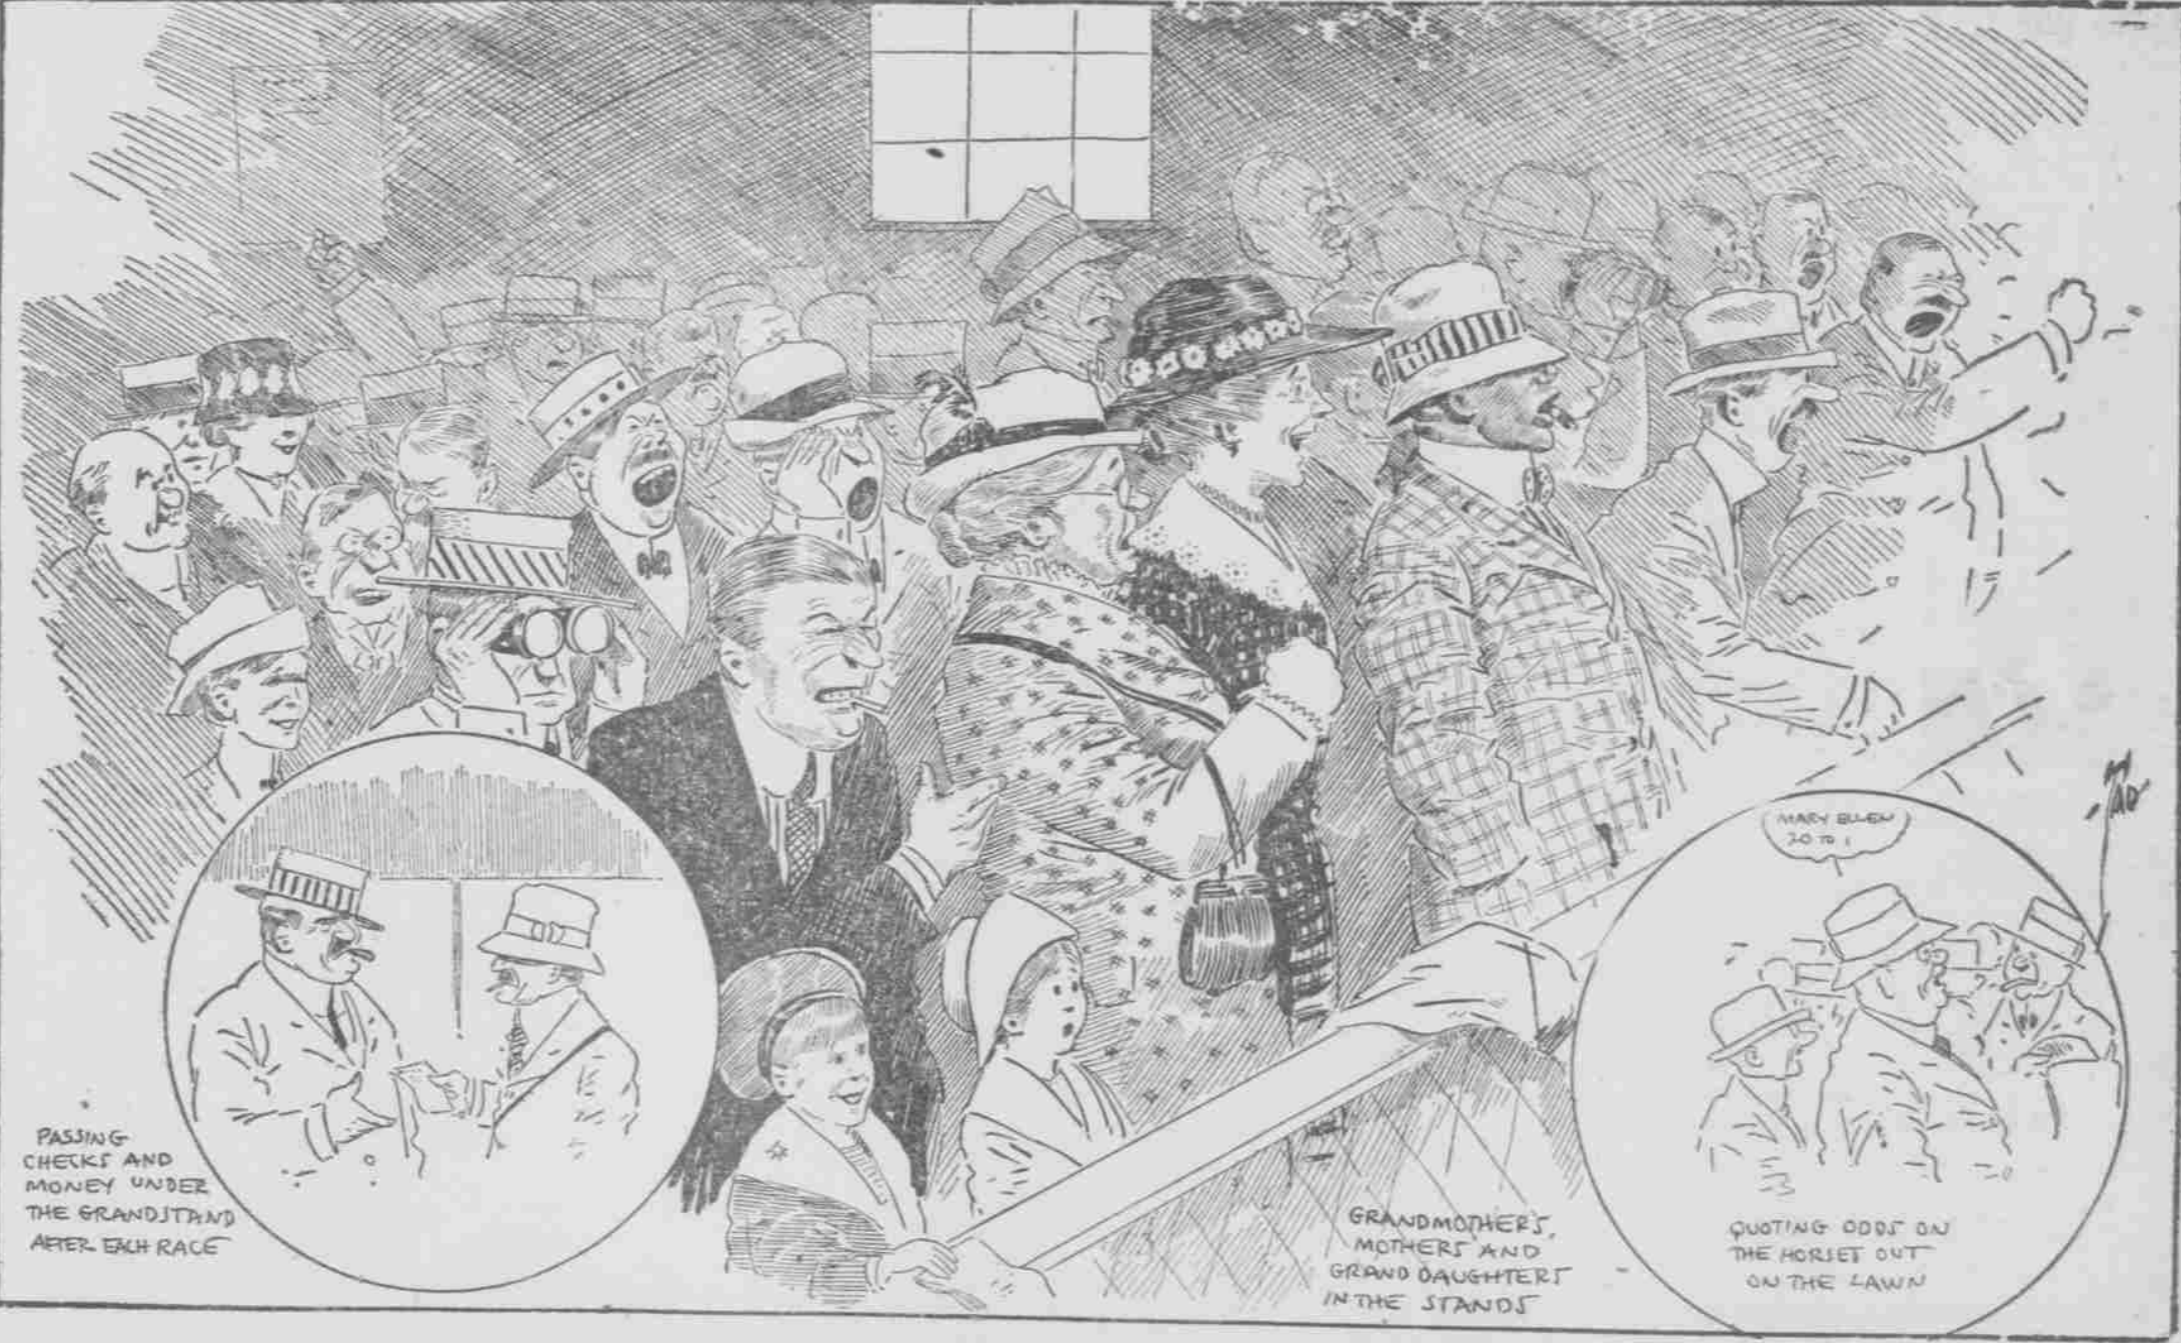

THE sun of peace strongly shines upon our figures and our vines, the justly famous dove, that blood-tinted clime are fighting for, its pinions all unstained by war, is fluttering above.

ENTERTAINMENT TO BE GIVEN BY TROOPERS AT FORT BLISS An entertainment by the soldiers at Fort Bliss will be given this evening at the post gymnasium at 7 o'clock.

EL PASO HERALD

DEDICATED TO THE SERVICE OF THE PEOPLE, THAT NO GOOD CAUSE SHALL LACK A CHAMPION AND THE EVIL SHALL NOT THRIVE UNOPPOSED.

WHERE MONEY IS LOST AND CHARACTER IS DESTROYED

PASSING CHECKS AND MONEY UNDER THE GRANDSTAND AFTER EACH RACE

GRANDMOTHERS, MOTHERS AND GRAND DAUGHTERS IN THE STANDS

QUOTING ODDS ON THE HORSE OUT ON THE LAWN

14 YEARS Ago Today

F. L. French with Col. E. K. Smeot, the Texas river and harbor contractor, has stonished this city by announcing that he is to open an office here for the company which is building a harbor for the Mexican government at Manzanillo.

Mrs. G. E. Bovee arrived home this morning from Little, Williamson county, Texas, where she has been visiting her son George. She also visited in Austin a day or two before getting back.

TAFT WOULD CONVERT BUREAU OF EDUCATION TO UNIVERSITY

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 25.—The conversion of the United States bureau of education into a national university for school teachers was advocated here today for former president W. H. Taft.