MORMON COLONIES SHIP UP POTATOES AND BEANS; CROPS ARE BEING PLANTED.

A passenger train in due from Chihuahua city at 8 o'clock this evening and during the night three freight trains are scheduled to arrive from Chihuahua. The freight trains are Sunday loaded with coal. A freight and passenger train arrived Sunday night from Casas Grandes. Most of the freight brought in consisted of potatoes and beans. F. S. Fox, a passenger on the Casas Grandes train, stated that conditions were unusually quiet in that part of Mexico and that the Mormon colonists had begun their spring planting.

The third car of boxes sold by Carranza officials to the Stearns-Brown Hilt Company, New York, crossed the border Monday morning and, after going through the usual formalities of importation, was switched to the G. L. & S. A. yards, where it entered into a train bound for W. H. Hilt, secretary for the Panhandle & Southwestern Cattle & Horse Association, and Master of the association, would take no action of the car of hides and that protest was hopeless.
