LOWDEN LIKELY TO BE RE-ELECTED

Gov. Cox, of Ohio, Already Being Discussed as Former's Running Mate. THOMPSON'S LOSS HELP TO LOWDEN Governor's Defeat to Mayor of Chicago Draws Much Favorable Comment.

By G. A. MARTIN. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 14.—It is surprising to no one that Governor Lowden, of Illinois, and William Gilman McAdoo, of New York, are the next standard-bearers of the Republican and Democratic parties. It is so well recognized at this time that the Democratic party, which has been in power since the death of Woodrow Wilson, is being discussed as the most likely choice for the White House in the fall. Illinois and Indiana, all pivotal states.

Nobody can tell from one day to another what will be the result of the election. It is in the hands of the voters who will elect the president. It is in the hands of the voters who will elect the president. It is in the hands of the voters who will elect the president.
