

About Broadway Plays And Players

NEW YORK, July 23.—John Gert announces that a new musical piece called "The Jam Jams" will be launched by him in Atlantic City during the week of August 20. Harry L. Gert and George B. Stoddard have written the book and lyrics and James Hanley the music. In the cast will be Ada Mae Weeks, Percy Pollock, Ned Sparks, Elizabeth Murray, Zoe Barnett, Gattison Jones, Olin Howland, Joe Brown, Virginia Clark, Parich and Fern, Clara Ross, Fress and Lane and the King sisters.

By WAY OF DIVERSION. They call him Crippled Jimmy Lee because he wears a brace to make it easy for his neck and keep his head in place. But Jimmy Lee is a dandy kid—you bet your life he is! All the fellows Jimmy knows are loyal friends of his. One day I saw him take a dog an automobile hurt an' bind its leg up with a rag he tore right off his shirt, an' then he took the pump some an' give it force to eat. I tell you what, a kid like that is mighty hard to beat.

NELLIE BUTLER BACK. The Rialto had a visitor yesterday afternoon. She was Nellie Butler, who used to act bit roles in the Charles H. Hoyt companies. In those days Miss Butler exhibited a pair of Frankie Ballou's that were the talk of the town. She wasn't very old then and she isn't very old now. In fact, Nellie is here from her home near Boston seeking a theatrical engagement, and we'll eat your hat if she looks a day over 25. She dropped in Dandruff Soon Ruins The Hair. Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff. For it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.

John Golden will put "Turn to the Right" in rehearsal August 2. Charles Purcell, in "The Poor Little Blue Girl" opened at the Central Tuesday evening. F. O'Neil, in "Passion Flower," will begin a transcontinental tour in Philadelphia late in August. Leo Ettrichstein and Lee Shubert presented "The Americans in France" in Stamford Friday evening last. Susan Oliver, Kate Gondal, Robert Williamson, Harold Howard and Robert Lee Allen have been engaged to support Grant Mitchell in "The Chamberlain."

FOULMOUTH. A girl by the name of Lucie, once wanted to hear a pig squeal. And it let out a wail. "Delightful, indeed!" said Lucie. A THOUGHT FOR TODAY. Arthur Guus, of Wellsville, became the father of a boy Monday and the

to see Eddie Dunn at the Sam H. Harris offices and called him "Dad." A "FLORODORA" WEDDING. The first "Florodora" revival wedding took place at St. Paul's Episcopal church on West End avenue when Ethel Lora, a member of the old fashioned sextette, became the bride of Maj. Harry E. Clark, 8th infantry, U. S. A. Capt. Robert Wynn, U. S. A., was best man and Betty Palmer of "Florodora" maid of honor. Miss Lora will retire from the life of the stage to take up that of diabetes and dieting.
