It's the girl who tries to coquette and can't who deserves real pity.

About Broadway Plays And Players

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. - Having snatched "Happy Days" on what should be a highly successful engagement at the Hippodrome, R. H. Burnside will now turn his attention to the work of producing Fred Stone's next starring vehicle, "Tip Top," which was written by Anna Caldwell and Mr. Burnside with music by Ivan Caryll. The new piece will open in September.

A NEW MACK PLAY.
A. H. Woods will place in rehearsal soon a new play by Willard Mack, entitled "The Girl of the Dance Hall." The cast will include Lowell Searman, Robert McWade, Elwood Postwick, Frank Monroe, Belle Bennett, Jess Robertson, Lucille Manning, Fletcher Harvey and Carl Jackson.

BY WAY OF DIVERSION.
I love to look back to the days when one of my brothers, was youngsters living on the farm—the days of Dad and Mother. I call to mind some things which kept the old folks guessing, among them was "outlin' up" when Father asked the blessing.

MISS ROLFE'S DEBUT.
Josephine Rolfe, a great granddaughter of Joseph Jefferson, is making her stage debut in the production of "The Four Little Girls" at the Central. She is a niece of Glen MacDonough, writer of musical comedies. She has short brown curly hair.

"HONEYDEW" COMING.
Joe Weber will offer the Ebbroff Zimballer opera, "Honeydew," at the Casino in the fall. Ebbroff Terry and Dorothy Bell will be in the cast which will include Hal Ford, Kay Kendall, John Park, John Dunsmuir, Frederick Marshall, Thomas Maxwell Conover, Milla Marguerite and Frank Gill. Mabel McLean will be featured in "The Little Blue Devils." Harry Pack will play opposite her.

THE TWO EXTREMES.
Harry Cunningham of Springfield, Mass., once called the most beautiful girl in America, is at the Hotel Majestic. She is to be in a new Broadway production, "The Little Blue Devils," an English film beauty, is also at the hotel. As a direct contrast to the two beauties, Odd McIntyre lives at the Majestic, too.

ISN'T LIFE FUNNY?
Herbert H. Levenne notifies us that a young man friend of his called on a girl recently. As he was leaving he said: "Give me a ring when you call again." Now comes the funny part. She meant a ring on the telephone. Quer how people get things wrong sometimes, eh?

GOSSIP.
Joy Maxwell is with "The Little Whopper."
Paul McAllister has been engaged for "Mystery."
Alice Bromley Wilson will join "Not So Long Ago" soon.

Reflections Of A Bachelor Girl

SOMETIMES it looks to a woman as though a man takes up golf just in order to have something to get "swearing mad" about.
Nobody who has not been snappish in a bathing suit by a relentless summer kodak fiend knows how irritating a woman can be "misrepresented" in this life.

Perhaps if a bored husband could watch his wife act all through a few real movie drama without hearing her utter a word, he would fall in love with her all over again. It isn't his eyes, but his ears, that grow so weary after marriage.

When a man says, "Let's forgive and forget" he means that if the girl will do the forgiving, he will do the forgetting.
