Mutz Comedy Company.

The Mutz Comedy company met at the Fort Worth National bank last night, and in the absence of the president, Dr. Moore was appointed president pro tem. The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with, and the committee on plays reported. No play selected yet. Messrs. Lamborn and Kerens were appointed a committee to consult with Mr. Max Elser in ordering a number of comedies to select a suitable one from.

The following new members were added to the company: Messrs. Elliott, Bishop, Nunnally, Cravens and Dr. Lawrence.

Despair not, neither man nor maid,
Although your mouth has suffered sad,
Although your teeth are half decayed,
You can save them, if you will,
Little SOZODONT be sure
Will make all balmy, bright and pure.

WHAT WE'D LIKE TO SEE.

A first-class business boom.
More light at the Union depot.
A larger and better hotel built.
The Waxahachie Tap a reality.
The Santa Fe extended north.
A railroad from Fort Worth to Brownwood.
The Democrats make city nominations.
A large audience at the opera-house to-night.
More sidewalks and better ones.
Our public schools continue to prosper.
A city board of trade established.
Mr. Cleveland appoints a strong cabinet.
The Illinois legislature elect Bill Morrison.
Tom Ochiltree meet Robert Alexander.
The city own both halves of the water-works.
Everybody prosperous and happy.

Don't Answer the Bell.

When on Sunday the gongs of the Pan-Electric telephone, at 12 midday, begin a racket, don't pay any attention. Three distinct raps will be given at that hour to indicate that it is precisely noon. This will establish a uniform standard of time throughout the city.

For Alderman.

In this issue appears the announcement of Mr. J. J. Kane as a candidate for alderman from the First ward. Mr. Kane has all the qualifications which fit a man for an aldermanic position. He is a gentleman of sound judgment and ripe experience in financial questions, and his integrity is above suspicion. In the questions of important financiering, which are constantly coming before the city council, his judgment and recognized business ability could be exercised for the benefit of the city. The First ward has many prominent men whose presence would add weight and dignity to the council, and Mr. Kane is undoubtedly one of them.

An Anniston, Ala., special telegram makes this mention of a gentleman well and favorably known in Fort Worth: "Col. Bob Bacon, formerly Georgia's secretary to the railroad commission, is in our town. The colonel has transferred his interests to the Lone Star state, and now has the step and stately mien of a thoroughbred ranchero. He returns to Texas in a few days."

A telephone message was received at THE GAZETTE last night stating that Westwood Wallace, who lived near Keller, died yesterday about 3 o'clock p. m. Mr. Wallace will be remembered in this city as a clerk in the county clerk's office under Mr. John F. Swayne. He was a young man of much intellectual power, and his death will be regretted by a large circle of friends.

To Voters.

THE GAZETTE will not print "calls" for candidates unless paid for at the regular advertising rates.

The Pale Little Child.

Bloodless cheeks, hollow eyes, tight skin, joyless life. Poor little child. Do a good deed for it. Hand its mother a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. The druggist who sells this famous medicine will tell you what wonders it has done for feeble children. Don't think it is only for grown-up people. It is gentle in its influence, and not unpleasant to take. It cures weakness and indigestion, regulates the bowels and enriches the blood.

PLEASURE ON SKATES.

A Large Crowd and Hearty Enjoyment at the Rink.

The masquerade carnival at Bloom & Rich's rink last night was a success, if one could judge by the number in attendance and the degree of enjoyment shown by the skaters. The large hall was crowded by an orderly throng, who entered with keenest relish upon the sports of the evening. The costumes were of endless variety, and their choice and preparation showed a highly creditable taste and discriminating judgment as to the proprieties of the occasion. With a smooth floor, a spacious hall and agreeable company, the skaters had nothing to call for that could have added to the pleasures of the evening. The reporter, watching the graceful participants as they glided up and down, across and around the room, entered with hearty zest into the spirit of the fun, and in his heart partook of the enthusiasm that drew from an unknown rhymester the rhapsody:

See the maiden with her skates,
Dainty skates!
What a world of coquetry her manner indicates!
For her lover gazes at her
And he joins her on the floor,
And they chatter, chatter, chatter,
All unheedful of the clatter,
All unmindful of the rear;
Floating light as any feather,
Till they both sit down together
With a haste involuntary,
And a grin that intimates
'Twas the skates, skates, skates, skates,
Skates, skates, skates—
Love, alas! is too unwary
On his skates.

The $5 prizes for best costumes were awarded to Mr. Charlie Snead and Miss Beulah Smith. Other costumes were admirable in taste, but these were voted the best.

Messrs. Bloom & Rich conducted the affair with credit, and their share in contributing to the entertainment of our people will be appreciated and themselves liberally rewarded.

Maj. Joe H. Stewart, who lectures at the opera-house to-night, should speak to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in Fort Worth. His mission is a noble one and appeals to the patriotism of all citizens.

The Pan-Electric people have made arrangements to furnish each of their patrons with with correct "standard time" daily. The bell of each 'phone will exactly at noon give three short rings, thus enabling every one to verify or adjust their time-pieces.

The wide-awake and energetic members of the Christian church propose to remodel the interior of their house and make it more attractive and comfortable. Funds sufficient have already been subscribed, and we learn that work will commence immediately.

Mr. Max Elser, manager of the Pan-Electric Telephone company to-day received a telegram from the Memphis manager stating that he had just put in a Providence switchboard there and already had twenty-five telephones working, while the linemen are constantly at work, putting up lines and 'phones.

About 10 o'clock yesterday Mr. Zeller of Zeller Bros., fruit dealers, South side of the square, was thrown violently from a bucking horse, lighting on his head and shoulders, and was picked up in an insensible condition, caused by concussion of the brain, from which he slowly recovered and was resting easy at last accounts.

LAMPASAS SPRINGS.

Improvements, Hotels, Etc.

As the season advances business is improving here, and nothing is more flourishing than our new hotel, the San Gerard, which is one of the most complete and elegantly furnished and best situated houses in the state. It is convenient to business and has fine sample-rooms. Its corridors are all large and light, with high southern exposure. Its bath-rooms and springs are A No. 1, and with Thompson keeps the table with the best correspondence with the rest of the establishment, his reduced rate of $2 per day make the San Gerard very popular.

To the Directors and Stockholders of the State National Bank.

GENTLEMEN: We, your committee appointed to examine into the condition of the State National bank of Fort Worth, now respectfully submit our report:

We have examined the cash account on the night of February 7, and find it correct and that it corresponds with the report of the cashier. The loans and discounts, which we find satisfactory, and also the book, which we find are kept in a business-like and creditable manner. The officers and employes of the bank rendered us every assistance in our examination, and we find the bank in a sound, healthy and growing condition, the details of which we submit, and ask to be discharged.
