meet at the church to-day at 4 p. m. to practice singing and other exercises preparatory to children's day services.

Prof. Prewitt entertained his college students and their fair lady companions at a picnic at the pavilion yesterday.

The authorities of the Broadway Presbyterian church have purchased an additional plot of ground in the rear of the present site, which now gives them a lot 100x150, affording ample room for the projected enlargement of their church.

The gospel tent lately used by the Fourth Street Methodist church, is being put in fine order and will to-day be erected corner Houston and Seventh streets.

Mr. R. H. King informs THE GAZETTE that he has not been nominated for any office by the county alliance and denies that the Farmers' alliance has made any nominations, nor united with any other sect or order for any such purpose.

The compress company has purchased from Mrs. Henricks five acres of ground 500 yards northeast of the Santa Fe coal sheds, and Superintendent Kerr is very busy having the old building torn down and removed.

County Judge Furman indicated to THE GAZETTE man yesterday that in so far as the Farmers' alliance had endorsed him he deemed it merely commendation of his official work, and does not regard it exactly in the light of a nomination.

The Fourth Street Methodist church Sunday-school will have their picnic to-day. The attendants will be taken from the church between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning.

At school No. 2 yesterday afternoon the regular Friday exercises were held. A well-selected and executed programme was provided and the largest number of scholars, teachers, parents and friends were present of the session.
