SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 13.

DALLAS IS ON A BUNG BOOM.

IT LOOKS AS IF EL MAHDI WAS A BIGGER MAN THAN OLD GLADSTONE.

HOW CAN A FELLOW BELONG TO THE OTHER PARTY WITHOUT BEING "OFFENSIVE"?

THE GRAIN CROP OF NORTH TEXAS THIS YEAR IS THE GREATEST EVER PRODUCED.

PEORIA, ILL., AND PITTSBURG, PA., HAVE JOINED THE MUNICIPAL RAID AGAINST GAMBLING.

MR. MORRISON'S PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECTS HAVE GOT TWISTED ABOUT LATELY INTO A HORIZONTAL POSITION.

IT IS NOT POSSIBLE IN THE NATURE OF THINGS FOR A REPUBLICAN TO DO A CIVIL SERVICE FOR A DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION.

WE FAIL TO FIND ANYWHERE IN THE LATE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM A COMPACT WITH THE MUGWUMPS TO KEEP THE RASCALS IN.

EVERY CHRISTIAN PATRIOT WILL NOT FORGET TO PRAY THREE TIMES A DAY FOR THE HEALTH OF VILAS, MANNING, HAY, AND HIGGINS.

GOOD, LAW-ABIDING CITIZENS HAVE SOME RIGHTS THAT CONVICTS ARE BOUND TO RESPECT—THE RIGHT OF PAYING TAXES, FOR INSTANCE.

THE OHIO HEATHEN STILL IMAGINE VAIN THINGS; THAT THEY ARE STILL RUNNING THE GOVERNMENT AND THAT PEOPLE CARE WHAT THEY SAY OR DO.

WHAT THE POST DON'T KNOW ABOUT THE LAND QUESTION, IF CONVERTED INTO SOLID MATTER, WOULD DAM UP THE BRAZOS WHILE ON A TEAR.

WITH BAUM DIED THE GREATEST BENEFICENT DALLAS EVER HAD. HE DID MORE TO ADVERTISE THE TOWN THAN ALL OTHER AGENCIES COMBINED.

WHEN THE GEORGETOWN RECORD AND THE EXAMINER GET IN HARNESS TOGETHER SOMETHING IS GOING TO DRAP BEYOND A DOUBT, UNLESS A TRACE BREAKS.

THE GATEVILLE ADVANCE HAS A COLUMN EDITORIAL ON "US." THAT IS PROBABLY A TWIN SISTER TO ITS ARTICLE ON "MR. CHRIST AND CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS."

AMONG THE INNUMERABLE HOSTS THAT GOT OFF AND GOT ON AT THE FORT WORTH DEPOT THIS WEEK WAS GOV. IRELAND. HIS EXCELLENCY NOW KNOWS HOW IT IS HIMSELF.

NORTH TEXAS WILL GET THE GOVERNORSHIP NEXT YEAR. SHE ALSO WANTS AND WILL GET A GREAT MANY OTHER THINGS WHICH SHE IS TOO MODEST TO MENTION JUST NOW.

IF THE AUSTIN & NORTHWESTERN IS EXTENDED FROM BURNET, AS IS NOW INTIMATED, THERE IS ADDITIONAL REASON WHY FORT WORTH SHOULD HURRY UP THE BROWNWOOD ROAD.

IF THE NEWS "HOLDS ALL TEXAS" LIKE IT HAS HELD GALVESTON, POLITICALLY, EDITOR STERETT MAY JUST AS WELL GO ON SLIPPING HIS BEER AND NIBBLING HIS CHEESE IN SILENCE.

THE REPUBLICANS AND JOHNNY McLEAN BOTH OPPOSE CLEVELAND. THERE OUGHT TO BE ROOM IN SO LARGE A STATE AS OHIO FOR A THIRD PARTY—A DEMOCRATIC PARTY, SO TO SPEAK.

FROM THE WAY SOME PAPERS ARE TREATING THE GAZETTE JUST NOW, THIS PAPER BEGINS TO REALIZE WHAT BOB INGERSOLL MEANT BY THE "ENVY OF FAILURE AND THE MALICE OF IMPOTENCE."

WE HAVE IT ON RELIABLE AUTHORITY THAT PARTIES WHO ARE TOO FREE WITH THE USE OF "AHEC!" WILL FAKE JUST THE SAME IN THE FINAL SETTLEMENT AS IF THEY HAD STUCK TO THE OLD VERSION.

IN THE REVISED BIBLE THE PRAYER OF JOB THAT HIS ADVERSARY SHOULD WRITE A BOOK IS OMITTED. GOOD. JOB WAS FAR TOO SMART A MAN TO GIVE HIMSELF AWAY TO SUCH A MAN AS THAT.

TAYLOR, BABCOCK & CO. WOULD NOT ATTEMPT TO COMMIT AN ASSAULT ON THE CAPITOL BOARD BEFORE THEY WERE UP IN HISTORY. ONE BLAST OF FABBOCK'S BUGLE HORN WERE WORTH THEIR THOUSAND MEN.

JOHN KELLY STILL RETAINS HIS GRIP ON TAMMANY. AS LONG AS HE HAS A BREATH AND THE SPILLS IN NEW YORK ARE WORTH CONTENDING FOR, MR. KELLY can always be counted on to flourish a gaudy tomahawk.

ONE Democratic editor has not been able to raise a joke over the re-election of Logan. The Age calls the Illinois senator, "the dirtiest dog in the Radical pack." We fear Uncle Dan's is a stalwart spoilsman.

IT IS NOW AN OPEN QUESTION AS TO whether or not Galveston has a charter. She had best hold fast to all she has, for as things go now she will never be able to get another under the general incorporation act.

THERE ARE VARIOUS RUMORS AS TO whether Gen. Butler is or is not to write a book, but at any rate he is to appear in literature in the July Harper's upon a subject on which he is an authority, that of yachting.

DANA IS TRYING TO WIN HIS WAY TO the graces of the president by praising his sister's book. The editor of the Sun is a very shrewd man, but he has yet to learn that the only way to salvation is through repentance.

THE DALLAS HERALD IS AGAIN INSINUATING that Fort Worth ladies are addicted to drink and that all our business men are gamblers. The Herald must expect to quit doing business at the old stand pretty soon.

BANKER FISH IS AMUSING HIMSELF from the Ludlow jail by calling Banker Ward a liar and other hard names. The Ward believes him and will now take the word of Banker Ward for any thing he has to say regarding his old partner.

MAX LOEWENTHAL (late of the "Devil's Auction company") has been engaged by Manager Chas. Benton as general advance agent for Milin, the tragedian. Messrs. B. Mendelin and Eugene Adamson will be his assistants.

GAIL HAMILTON'S SLASHING ARTICLE in the June number of the North American Review, on "Prohibition in Politics," is to be followed in the July number of the same periodical by one of similar character from her on "Prohibition in Practice."

THE TIMES IS AUTHORITY FOR THE STATEMENT that New York is to build the Dallas & Northwestern road. We are glad to see the Eastern metropolis taking such an interest in our neighbor. If New York will hump herself Dallas may yet grow to be a city.

IT MAY BE A GOD-SEND TO SOME TEXAS congressmen that appointments are moving slowly in this state. There are a few who might not be able to get back to Washington next year were it otherwise—that is, assuming their wishes are to be gratified in all things.

THE PUBLICATION OF THE MIDLAND Staked Plain is one of the best arguments we have yet seen against the lease law. Less than eighteen months ago Midland town and county were unheard of. They were a part of the great "staked plains," which were unfit even for grazing, according to the old atlas makers.

THE FOLLOWING NOTE EXPLAINS ITSELF: GATEVILLE, TEX., June 10, 1888. To the Editor of the Gazette:

I see a statement in your daily of May 10, from Iredell, which does the Rev. J. J. Harris an injustice in the statement, "charge for herey." No such charge was preferred in a church court, and no church court has taken action against him. Please correct and oblige yours, S. S. SCOTT, T. E.

A GREAT SENSATION WAS CREATED IN Washington when Fred Douglass rented a pew in the church which the president attends, and it was intensified by the refusal of the pastor, Dr. Sunderland, to preach because the presumptuous dandy put in his appearance. Douglass evidently wants a little notoriety, and he ought to have it by getting his name in the papers as another victim of Mr. Higgins.

THE MASON NEWS SAYS: "Work is progressing rapidly on the Aransas Pass railroad. When the road reaches Mason it will have the trade of Mason, McCulloch, Menard, Kimble, Crockett, Concho and a portion of Llano, San Saba and Tom Green counties grabbed. San Antonio will then boom as never before. The Times and Light advocate the building of the road and are continually whooping it up. It will be one of the best paying roads to the state when complete."

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE AGES OF THE well-known women named: Mme. Adam, 49; Mary Anderson, 26; Sarah Bernhardt, 41; Mrs. Besant, 38; Rosa Bonheur, 63; Miss Braddon, 48; Miss Gordon Cumming, 48; Lady Eastlake, 69; Empress Eugenie, 59; Emily Faithful, 50; Mrs. Gladstone, 73; Julia Ward Howe, 60; Mme. de Novikoff, 43; Jenny Lind, 64; Pauline Lucas, 45; Helen Medjeska, 41; Florence Nightingale, 65; Christine Nilsson, 42; Mrs. Oliphant, 67; Ouida, 45; Adeline Patti, 42; Christina Rossetti, 45; Ellen Terry, 37; Mrs. Weldon, 48; Mrs. Henry Wood, 65.—[Exchange.]

IT MAY NOT BE JUST THE THING TO SAY or believe a lady is older than she is said to be, but THE GAZETTE IS CONVINCED THAT MARY ANDERSON IS MORE than twenty six years old. About 1872 Mary was performing in Cincinnati, and was then said to be eighteen. If our own Mary ever sees thirty again, it will not be on this earth.

The Ohio Bourbons. The Bourbons of Ohio, who recently met and adopted a Republican platform, neglected to embody a plank tendering their gratitude and sympathy to those eminent Union soldiers, Guerrilla Mosby, Gen. Mahone and Gen. Longstreet. The Ohio Bourbons, in denouncing doubtful titles to the presidency, also neglected to refer to the husband of Mrs. Hayes, that gentleman, it will be remembered, having secured Tilden's salary by turning "the poor negroes of the South" over to Burke, Butler, Watterson and other rebels. The Ohio Bourbons and Johnny McLean will do all they can to attract public attention, but if Thurman, Pendleton and a few other righteous men could be gotten out of the Buckeye state, the remainder of the country would rejoice to see political fire and brimstone rained down on it until it was purified of its bloody shirt and coal-oil sins.

The Nuds in Art. There is but one topic of conversation at London dinner tables: Ought women to be painted in the garb of Mother Eve? There are two factions. One faction signs itself "Senex," "A British Matron" or "Outraged Virtue," and writes to the London Times deploring the nudities of modern art. The other is a bluff and practical faction. It calls "Senex" a "pottering lackaas," ridicules the "British Matron" and pours cold water on "Outraged Virtue." Mr. Labouchere, representing the latter, says: Dress is purely a matter of convention. There is no real reason, beyond custom, why a lady should show her arms and not show her legs.—[New York Herald.]

Before people begin a crusade against the nuds in art let them banish the low-necked dresses that are required of fashion's votaries. It is a strange whim of human nature that can affect to see more danger in the cold, lifeless statue than in the living, breathing form. When the scant drapery of official receptions and balls are made to give way to clothing that clothes the female form, it will be high time to urge fig leaves for lifeless marble and wax.

Hurry Up the Brownwood Road. The Brownwood special to THE GAZETTE of yesterday informs us that work on the Santa Fe extension from Lampasas is being rapidly pushed forward. The rich territory through which this extension will pass has hitherto contributed to the trade and greatness of Fort Worth; and THE GAZETTE'S Brownwood correspondent well says: "If Fort Worth really desires to retain the trade of this rich section, which she has worked so nobly to get, she had better take the advice of THE GAZETTE and go on to Brownwood. Unless she secured the immediate building of the Brownwood road, the old lady on the sea will swallow the plum which the Fort has been so tenderly nourishing for several years past. The Santa Fe will be completed to this place by November." Capt. Paddock knows the value of this trade to Fort Worth. He may be depended on to do all in his power to push forward the Fort Worth & Rio Grande. But let our citizens generally realize the necessity of early action and lend him all the aid possible.

Give Us Granite. Two or three meetings were held last week at Austin between the capitol board and representatives of the contractors, to consider the quality or kind of stone to be used in the building, but no decision was reached. Gov. Ireland favors granite, and believes the contractors will finally be compelled to adopt it on terms satisfactory to the state. The Day has always maintained that it would be almost a disgrace to use inferior stone in the erection of this great building—second in architectural beauty and grandeur to no state-house in the Union.—[Waco Day.]

The Texas capitol building will be erected for all time, and rather than see it constructed of inferior material the people would prefer to wait until arrangements can be perfected to build it of the best material. THE GAZETTE is informed that the Indiana stone turns dingy with time, and that, however durable, the Indiana state-house is not constructed of it. We have the granite in Texas; it is durable, susceptible of high polish, and will retain it. THE GAZETTE does not favor the Burnet granite simply because it is found in Texas, but simply because it answers all the requirements.

Advertising the West. Wilmett, of the Texas Christian, when it was published in Dallas, first called THE GAZETTE a "religious dally." The only one, he said in his article, that he had ever seen. The reasons he gave for it were, that that paper was liberal enough, it being up with the age in which it lives to give space for agitation and investigation of all the leading topics of the day of whatever nature. Since that time THE GAZETTE has had the honor of wearing that name. The Quill has always pursued that course, but it was not a dally at that time. But THE GAZETTE refrains from writing up the great progress, or any part of it, of the country west of Fort Worth, the country in which it is deeply interested. Why this? GAZETTE, give your readers out here a ten-line editorial, and let them smile once again. You may save some dollars, if no souls.—[Abilene Quill.]

THE GAZETTE FAILS TO SEE THE JUSTICE OF THE Quill's complaints. This paper is noted for the attention it pays to West Texas; it has a regular correspondent at each town and always dis-places other matter to make room for the news from West Texas towns. THE GAZETTE has no reason to neglect Abilene and is unconscious of having done so. Neither has THE GAZETTE favored any other town at the expense of Abilene. If THE GAZETTE'S correspondent at Abilene has failed to report the enterprises and the progress of his home, we have not been made aware of it. Abilene is too great a factor in West Texas development to be slighted, and THE GAZETTE is not aware that it has slighted Abilene. Will not the Quill specify its complaint, that the omission, if any exists, may be supplied.

Ennis is Ready. The following letter from a prominent citizen of Ennis to Messrs. Ball & McCall will be found of interest. Our good friends at Dallas will see that there will be no trouble about Fort Worth getting to the Central road—and beyond—even if Waxahachie should fail to raise its promised donation.

Ennis, Tex., June 11, 1888. Messrs. Ball & McCall, Fort Worth, Tex. GENTLEMEN: This morning I heard through a Fort Worth gentleman that Waxahachie was dead as to railroad interests. Also that he did not think they were going to raise the $25,000 asked for. He also stated that if Ennis would put the shoulder to the wheel they could secure the road to Ennis, missing Waxahachie. If such a thing were practicable, the citizens of Ennis would liberally assist in it. If Fort Worth capital has any such ideas, and will lay them before the citizens of this place, I am satisfied they can raise a reasonable amount in a very short time. If you can make any proposition I will give it to the property holders of the place, and they will act. Ennis has not the wealth of Waxahachie, but she is a good deal like the Fort: "what she's got, goes." I will be at the Waterman house in the Fort next Sunday.

San Angelo's Chance. Abilene Quill. That railroad from Fort Worth to Brownwood, and a tap across the way to connect Abilene with Southern Texas, would be the handsome thing. This is our neighbor San Angelo's chance.

Two Deep-Water Ports. San Antonio Light. Fort Worth seems to have "done up" Dallas in the matter of securing the Fort Worth, Waxahachie & Sabine Pass railroad, and raised $72,500 towards the project, being $2500 in excess of the amount desired. There will likely be two deep-water ports on the gulf coast in the near future, one being at Aransas Pass and the other at Sabine Pass, and both will not cost the $7,750,000 which was demanded for deep water at Galveston.

It Is High Time. San Antonio Light. It is about time that Texas had a convict penitentiary, which would do away with the hiring out of convicts all over the state. It is no punishment to the hundreds of criminals in Texas who are allured to work out their time, under guard, in fields and at other labor; in fact, many become criminals for that purpose; but if they realized that high walls and strong bars would hold them promptly and surely as a punishment, there would be less business for the courts and less expense to the people.

Terrell and Corporations. Waco Day. What the Day objects to, and the danger it sees in the avowal of such extreme views, is the tendency to arouse and give moral support to a very prevalent idea that the mere possession of wealth is a crime. Corporations being a consolidation of private wealth, come in for the first assaults, but the cry being fully aroused individual fortunes would necessarily be included. Judge Terrell, of course, treats the subject from a high legal standpoint; next come gentlemen of the temper of "Democritus," who mix no little of hostile to corporations per se with their conceptions of popular liberty; then come the large class whose envy of wealth leads to a greater extreme, and finally, the substratum of the agrarian idea, who would subvert society with dynamite. We protest that any politician who arrays himself as a leader of this sentiment is not a statesman—he is, consciously or unconsciously, a demagogue. He must, in the end, consent to be the leader of the sane outlaws or revise his wholesale proscriptions of corporate wealth, and modify his views to meet just reforms of abuses. The Day treats this subject in the abstract; it believes that wealth is a right and not a crime; that corporations have their uses and abuses, the one to be fostered and encouraged, and the other to be regulated and suppressed; that even Jay Gould is not an unmitigated evil, and that the present order of society, with all its faults, is preferable to the rule of God and Vandal and modern methods of dynamite.
