Paris, July 27.—An explosion occurred in one of the collieries at St. Etienne to-day, and a number of miners were imprisoned. So far eight dead bodies have been recovered.

SPAIN.

The Cholera Scourge.

Madrid, July 27.—Returns from all but five of the cholera-infected districts in Spain puts the number of new cases yesterday at 2542, deaths 879. The contagion is spreading to the province of Logrono, where several cases have already occurred. The troops stationed in the city of Saragossa, where the disease is raging, have been supplied with guitars to keep up their spirits. The music of these instruments can be heard day and night.

The cholera here remains inert. The largest number of cases occurs in Saragossa. The late storms appear to have an adverse effect upon the epidemic. In some places distressing scenes are witnessed. The majority of the inhabitants have fled and the remainder are incapable of attending to the sick.

ANGLO-RUSSIAN.

Russia's Idea of a Frontier Line.

Berlin, July 27.—Nord says Russia presents to a frontier on the Afghan side, which is topographically closed and easily defensible, but insists upon a well-defined Russian side to prevent Afghan incursions. The best method would be to draw the broad lines in London and settle the details on the spot in order to remove misunderstanding where the Afghan line is given to different interpretations.

Undecided Negotiations.

London, July 27.—Little progress is being made in the negotiations between England and Russia, touching the Afghan boundary. The disputed Zulfikar question is still undecided, neither government seeming disposed to yield its claim.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Queen Victoria Indorses the Work of the Salvationists.

London, July 27.—Mrs. Booth, wife of the commander-in-chief of the Salvation army, after the publication of the Pall Mall Gazette revelations wrote a letter to the queen asking her majesty's indorsement of the work which the army had undertaken for the suppression of pauperism and the relief of the poor. The queen on Thursday last sent Mrs. Booth a personal letter conveying her majesty's strongest sympathy with the reform work mentioned.

Prostrated by Mental Strain.

London, July 27.—Much suspense has been caused by the sudden abandonment of the Radical meeting which had been arranged by Sir Charles Dilke, and at which he was to have been the principal speaker. At the last moment Sir Charles excused himself, saying he was utterly prostrated in consequence of the mental strain of the past few weeks.

MEXICO.

A New Revolution—Business Improving.

City of Mexico, July 27.—It is reported here that a petty revolution has broken out at Tuxpan, but the government does not consider the matter at all serious. It is thought the object of the outbreak was to plunder the custom-house of a few thousand dollars.

The business situation is gradually improving and the banks continue to meet all demands. It is reported that the government will, after the editors and students have been convicted and sentenced for seditious utterances, issue a decree liberally modifying the sentences imposed.

THE DARK CONTINENT.

Negotiating with Italy.

London, July 27.—The British government, distrusting the result of the proposals made to Rosaloula, for the relief of Kassala, on condition of a subsidy of £100,000 and a donation of arms, has reopened negotiations with Italy for an advance on Kassala early in the autumn. Italy received the overtures favorably, but asked English co-operation to the expedition if it be undertaken.

Kassala to be Relieved.

London, July 27.—Mr. Robert Bourke, under foreign secretary, announced in the house of commons this evening that the government had received news confirming the report that the garrison at Kassala had repulsed El Mahdi's besieging army, killing a great number of the enemy and capturing nearly all their cattle. Mr. Bourke added that the government was making arrangements to relieve the beleaguered garrison. This statement was received with cheers.

CHINA.

A Railway Paymaster Robbed by Bandits. ANKOW, CHINA, July 27.—Friday night last several bandits with masked faces attacked the paying office of the Ananco railway, at present in course of construction. They were provided with revolvers and rifles. The cashier after receiving three shots delivered the cash, amounting to some $5000 or $6000. Thirteen hundred dollars, which the bandits did not seem to know of, remained in the safe. Three detachments of cavalry and infantry have started in pursuit of the bandits.

GERMANY.

Investigations to be Made Into Socialistic Outrages. BERLIN, July 27.—The government has ordered an investigation into the circumstances of the Socialistic outrage at Frankfurt on the Main with a view, it is reported, of declaring the city in a state of siege. Such a declaration would place the town so absolutely under iron rule that the government believes it could entirely suppress Socialism there. It is reported that the government has decided to make an elaborate inquiry into the whole subject of Sunday labor.

SPLENDID CABLE SERVICE.

London, July 27.—To-day is the nineteenth anniversary of the completion of the Atlantic cable and from that day to the present there has not been a moment's interruption in telegraphic communication, some of the cables being always in working order.

A BIG SCANDAL.

England All Agog Over a Most Disagreeable Affair in High Official Life.

London, July 28, 3 A. M.—A Radical member of the house of commons, and of the late cabinet, is seriously annoyed by a prevalent scandal, according to the current story this statesman, who is a widower, took to his private residence, a few weeks ago, the wife of another well-known London gentleman. They entered the room together, and to the horror of the lady, she discovered another woman in the apartment. This compromised the lady so much that she bitterly upbraided the statesman and there was a terrible scene. She finally left the house in desperate anger and confessed the whole circumstances to her husband and begged the aid of a noble earl and a most popular commoner, both ministers of the late cabinet, to suppress the reputation of all the ex-ministers have consented to try and they have employed the past fortnight in efforts to make a settlement. The friends of the accused are willing to pay any sum to prevent an exposure. Both houses of parliament are fully possessed of the facts, and the scandal is the sole topic of conversation in all the West End clubs. The Tories are grieved, and the present ministers have high hopes of raising, by an exposure, the famous citizen and diplomat who is incriminated. The Tories are straining every nerve to secure an exposure so as to destroy the chance of Radical success at the general election. They are urging the husband not to concede and are promising him legal aid and social protection. The subject engrossed the attention of all in the lobbies of the house last night. It is alleged that the accused gentleman refrained from addressing a great political meeting last night which he intended to address.

MADE TO TOE THE MARK.

How the Lee Boys Pressed a Stranger Into Service. GAINESVILLE, TEX., July 27.—Last Friday morning a stranger on horseback was wending his way over the prairies of the B. I. T. when he was halted by two men who said they were hunting cattle and insisted on the stranger helping them. The man refused to fall in with the wishes of the two men, but all resistance was quickly withdrawn when the two men announced themselves to be Jim and Pink Lee. The trio then proceeded to hunt cattle and at evening the Lees gave the stranger his supper and told him to depart.

CLEBURNE.

Arrest of An Abandoning Postmaster—A Murderer Skips. CLEBURNE, TEX., July 27.—A United States deputy marshal from Waco reached here yesterday and left for that place this morning with J. H. Hamilton, charged with embezzling postoffice funds at McGregor. Hamilton was captured at Blum and brought here by Constable William Stewart of this county. It is said that he has been to Mexico and various parts of Texas since he abandoned some months ago. He at first denied his identity, but letters and papers were found on his person fully identifying him. One letter was written by him to his brother, expressing an intention to commit suicide. A sensation was caused here to-day by the lastation of a number of attachment suits against J. F. McCollum, a well-to-do farmer of this county, who left here Friday and did not say where he was going. It now transpires that McCollum's real name is Baker, and it is alleged that he is wanted in Mississippi for the murder of his brother. He has been living here more than eight years, has bought a homestead, married and amassed some property. Hearing that the authorities were on his trail, he skipped. His debts amount to about $2100, for supplies and for agricultural machinery principally. The law firm of McFarland & Green has been dissolved by mutual consent.

THE LEGISLATURE TO ATTEND THE FUNERAL.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 27.—Gov. Hill yesterday determined to invite that legislature to participate in the funeral ceremonies of Gen. Grant. Formal invitations will be issued by the governor to the members of that body.

ON THE MOUNT.

The Private Body-Guard on Duty—Floral Tribute. MOUNT MCGREGOR, N. Y., July 27.—A few visitors are on the mountain this morning, and the guard detail and the private body-guard are in charge of the cottage. Only U. S. Grant, Jr., of the general's sons is with the family. Col. Fred and Jesse left the direction of affairs to him and the private body-guard. A handsome cluster of roses came to the cottage this morning to be placed near the dead general. They will be replaced by the lilies to-morrow and by other and fresh flowers each day. This thoughtful tribute is due to the detail from the U. S. Grant post of the G. A. R. of Brooklyn. Eight men came yesterday morning, and five from Brooklyn reinforced them to-day.

FUNERAL MARCHES PLAYED.

LONDON, July 27.—As a mark of respect for the late Gen. Grant the military bands throughout England refrained from playing the usual Sunday selections yesterday but played dead marches instead.

AN OPPOSITE COMPARISON.

LONDON, July 27.—The Daily Telegraph, referring to Gen. Grant's anxiety to finish his book, says: There is something of Walter Scott's heroic grappling with financial ruin in this last act of the deceased warrior's life, which ought to be remembered along with his other great claims to English respect and admiration when the service in Westminster Abbey is held.

THE FUNERAL CAR.

How the Remains Will be Removed From the Mountain. MOUNT MCGREGOR, N. Y., July 27.—Manager D. R. Conda of the Mountain railway has to-day determined upon the arrangement of the train that will convey the remains and family of Gen. Grant from here to Saratoga. The body will be placed on what is known as an "observation car." This is thirty-five feet long, with standard posts at the corners and sides which support a roof over all. The car is closed on all sides to a height of three feet from the floor, with seats running lengthwise of the car on each side. These seats will be removed. The rear of the car will be entirely open and every part of the car will be entirely draped in mourning. The remains will be placed upon the funeral car from the rear, and will rest upon heavy pedestals in the middle of the car, and upon this car there will be twenty-five men attending the remains; thirteen of them will comprise the guard of honor from the U. S. Grant post, and the other twelve will be from the regulars who are expected here from Fort Porter by order of Gen. Hancock. The car bearing the remains will be attached directly to the engine, and behind the remains will follow the ordinary passenger coach of the road, in which the family will be accommodated. This latter bears the name "Eastern Outlook," which is the name of observation to which Gen. Grant was last wheeled in his invalid chair the Monday before he died. It is the same car in which the dead general ascended the mountain just seven weeks before the hour on which his remains will arrive at Saratoga Tuesday, August 4. If other cars are attached to the funeral train, they will be for the convenience of those most nearly concerned in the conduct of the obsequies. The train will consume one hour in running down to Saratoga from the mountain top, this being twenty minutes more than the usual schedule. The transfer of the remains will be made at Saratoga, the terminus of the mountain road, this being necessary because the mountain funeral-car is mounted upon narrow-gauge trucks, while the connecting roads are of the usual broad gauge.

THE NATION SLIGHTED.

The Remains Should be Interred in National Ground. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 27.—The uprising all over the country which has been caused by the selection of Central park as the resting-place of Gen. Grant finds considerable vent in this city, where resides the dead hero's most intimate friend, Mr. George W. Childs, who is constantly in receipt of letters and telegrams from public and private citizens who recognize the impropriety of the course proposed and the fitness of some national plot as the place of sepulture. Although for obvious reasons no appeal can be made to the family, Mr. Childs and other friends of the ex-president in Philadelphia are decided in their conclusions that the remains belong to the nation and should repose in one of the national burial grounds like Washington or West Point. As to Central park there is but one opinion, that of all places it is the most inappropriate.

Knowing Gen. Grant's views on the subject, said Mr. Childs this morning, he had talked with me about it long before he was taken sick. I feel that he ought to be buried on national ground. This would not interfere with New York and other cities erecting monuments to his memory. If Gen. Grant were interred at West Point it would be in violation of his wish that he should be placed where Mrs. Grant could be beside him, for there are women already buried there. Gen. Grant belonged to the nation, and his remains should properly be among those who have dedicated their lives to the national weal.

Mr. Childs said further that Gen. Grant never regarded New York as his home until lately when he went there to live. Philadelphia was more his home than any other city in the Union. His warmest friends lived here and he always spent his leisure time in this city. Fairmount park had as just a claim upon his remains as Central park.

A MEETING AT FANEUIL HALL.

BOSTON, MASS., July 27.—The mass-meeting at Faneuil hall to-day to express the public feeling in the death of Gen. Grant was fully attended by an audience of representative men. The mayor presided. Hon. Joseph Mallahan offered prayer. Gen. Robinson followed in an eulogy of the dead man, and other speeches were made by Hon. F. O. Prince and Gen. Devens. Suitable resolutions were adopted.

GALESTON.

The Gray and the Blue Reunited. GALESTON, TEX., July 27.—The first meeting of the committee of veterans to formulate a programme of the ceremonies to be observed here on the occasion of the funeral of Gen. Grant was held to-day. The proceedings indicate the intention to have a display of great magnitude, embracing a street parade of the military, the firemen and all the civic societies. There will be services at the church and orations at the place to be designated by the sub-committee of arrangements having the matter in charge. All the federal and Confederate soldiers are to wear sashes on the left arm and blue and gray badges. Cannon are to be fired throughout the day, beginning at sunrise, and all places of business will be closed during the services. This will be the first event of a general reunion of ex-Confederates ever had in this city.

REASONS NOT MADE PUBLIC.

Private Reasons for the Choice of Central Park. WASHINGTON, July 27.—Adjt.-Gen. Drum, who was sent to Mount McGregor with the president's message to Mrs. Grant, returned home to-day. In an interview regarding the selection of Central park, New York city, as the burial place of Gen. Grant, Gen. Drum said: Col. Fred Grant, in a conversation which I had with him when I was at Mount McGregor, explained to me the reasons for the choice, and I am convinced that they are good and sufficient reasons. Just what they are I am not at liberty to state, as they were explained to me in confidence in a private conversation, but I then say whether or not there are to be military honors, and this is precisely what has been done. The president has not proposed to interfere in the selection of the site. He has only undertaken, according to the wishes of the family, to have the general buried with national honors in the grave which the family has chosen, and that, as I understand it, is all that is implied in a national funeral.

CENTRAL PARK INAPPROPRIATE.

A Brass Band Will Grind Music Over the Hero's Tomb. NEW YORK, July 27.—The Post this evening in speaking of the decision to bury Gen. Grant in Central park says: Although his son, Col. Grant, has expressed a desire for his interment at Central park, at the head of the grave, we feel that further consideration in calmer moments would satisfy him as well as the other members of the family that a place of popular amusement, like the park and particularly the portion of the park in which the band plays and lovers of amusement congregate, is hardly suitable for the tomb of a national hero. The fact that the soldiers' Home is on the border line between the North and the South gives it a peculiar fitness as a place of interment. The soldiers' Home is national in character, and is near to the scenes of the dead hero's greatest triumphs, both military and civil. It is within sight of Arlington, that great head-quarters of the war, where so many thousands of his countrymen lie. It is the monument of the first war in which he took part, but most of all, it overlooks the two great sections of our common country that claim an equal right to render homage to his tomb. The claims of the nation are superior to those of New York, and it cannot be supposed that the delicate condition of our country would be opposed to the desire of the whole nation to have a share of the perpetual testimonial to his greatness.

TO ORGANIZATIONS INTENDING TO ATTEND THE FUNERAL.

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, N. Y., July 27.—Organizations other than military, intending to participate in the funeral ceremonies of Gen. Grant at New York city, are requested to address Col. John P. Nicholson, adjt.-general to Gen. Hancock, at Governor's Island, N. Y.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE CALLED TOGETHER.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 27.—Gov. Hill to-day issued an invitation to the members of the state legislature to assemble informally at the capital on August 4, to take such action as may suitably express the sentiments of our state in regard to the death of Gen. Grant.

A NATIONAL MONUMENT.

Samuel J. Tilden One of the Committee to Raise the Funds. NEW YORK, July 27.—Mayor Grace to-day received replies from the following gentlemen who agree to become members of the committee to raise New York's quota for erecting the monument to Gen. Grant: SAMUEL J. TILDEN, EX-GOVERNOR, A. B. CORNELL, ROBERT OGDEN, CORNELIUS BLISS, JOHN H. SHERWOOD, LEONARD STEWART, JOSEPH M. WOOD, ARTHUR M. DODGE, CORNELIUS VAN DERBILT, CAPT. M. J. KERWIN.

Mr. Tilden writes as follows: GREENSTOCK, YORKERS, July 27, 188. DEAR MR. GRACE: I have the honor to receive your letter requesting me to act as one of the committee of citizens appointed to consider the ways and means to raise the quota to be subscribed by the citizens of New York city to provide for the erection of a national monument to the memory of the great soldier, whose death the whole country deplores, and asking me to attend a meeting of the committee to be held at the mayor's office Tuesday, the 28th inst., at 3 o'clock. I regret that the delicate condition of my health will not allow me to go to the city to attend the meeting. I shall, nevertheless, have a melancholy satisfaction in co-operating with such measures as the committee desires for the erection of the monument to commemorate the transcendent services of Gen. Grant to our country. Very respectfully yours, S. J. TILDEN.

SELECTING THE SEPULCHER.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Col. Grant, Mayor Grace and the president of the board of aldermen visited various points in Central park this afternoon with a view to selecting a place for the final resting-place of Gen. Grant's remains. The mayor favors an elevated spot in the as yet unfinished Riverside park on Hudson river. Col. Grant said he could not decide upon any point without first consulting with the other members of this family. He left for Mount McGregor this evening.

CONDITION OF MRS. GRANT.

MOUNT MCGREGOR, N. Y., July 27.—Reports which have been sent out in regard to the condition of Mrs. Grant are unduly alarming. She expects to accompany the remains to Albany, and no reason is known to the family why she should not do so. Mrs. Grant had not, until the last days, been convinced that no remarkable cure was to be effected in the general's case as she had believed, and when his death occurred the effect of disappointment and hope, combined with the natural shock of her bereavement, produced a reaction from which she has not yet recovered so as to mingle as freely with the family as before the general's demise. She is not confined to her bed, but on the contrary she yesterday felt that she would like to descend to the cottage parlor and view the general's remains. From this purpose Mrs. Grant was dissuaded by those who felt that the experience would further trouble and depress her. There has been a reaction and no unusual prostration from the cause, stated has followed. Two days were occupied in the thorough embalming of the remains, the cavities and arteries being supplied with embalming fluid which displaced the blood as it was introduced in order that the present favorable condition of the remains may be preserved. The embalming fluid is now active and will be to-morrow displaced and replaced by another operation with fresh fluid. The process of absorption also renders frequent treatment of the remains necessary.

CONDOLENCE.

From the American Order of United Workmen. MOUNT MCGREGOR, July 27.—Among the messages of condolence and suggestions to-day were the following: WARRENSBURG, Mo., July 27. To Mrs. Gen. ARTILLERY ORDERED TO THE MOUNT.

MOUNT MCGREGOR, N. Y., July 27.—Gen. Hancock has issued orders that a company of artillery, armed as infantry, shall soon be sent to Mount McGregor and that several pieces of light artillery shall be here fully equipped for the purpose of offering salutes at the proper time or times in honor of the dead.

A SUGGESTION AS TO PALE-BEARERS.

NEW YORK, July 27. To Col. F. D. Grant: I suggest that the pale-bearers for your distinguished father be none other than the president of the United States and his cabinet. No greater honor, nor one more appropriate, could be conferred. E. A. PARSONS of Virginia.

LABOR MATTERS.

AN INHUMAN ACT. CLEVELAND, OHIO, July 27.—Recently there was a strike on the Payne avenue street railroad and the police had to be called to disperse the turbulent conductors and drivers. Yesterday eighty-seven of the company's horses were poisoned with croton oil. Three have died and the remainder are in a terrible condition. No arrests have been made but the police are investigating the case. The inhuman wretches will no doubt be apprehended. The reduction of the miners' wages in the Tuscarora valley will, in the opinion of President McBride of the Ohio Miners' union, cause a strike. Fifteen hundred men will go out.

COLLIERS IDLE. LONDON, July 27.—Thousands of colliers at Merthyr Tydfil, Wales, are idle, owing to the depression in trade.

MICHIGAN MILL STRIKE ENDING. DETROIT, MICH., July 27.—State Representative T. B. Barry, who has been the leader of the strikers, telegraphs to the Evening Journal from East Saginaw that after two hours' delay A. Wellright & Co. resumed work after compromising with their men on ten hours' work and a proportionate reduction in the wages of all receiving over $1.50 per day. This being one of the largest mills on the river, indicates an early settlement of the difficulty. McLeod's mill also resumed work this morning, conceding all the strikers demanded. Several other mill owners are consulting with their men with a view to a settlement. Everything indicates an early and satisfactory settlement.
