and scene, and the sincere and universal grief of those present told more eloquently than words how hard was the blow that took her from among them.

The following invitation to the superintendent and teachers of the city public schools is self-explanatory:

The executive committee of the Wise County Educational association, do hereby notify you that we will hold an institute at Home on Saturday, December 11, 1886, and we extend to you an earnest request to be with us.

Through the courtesy of Superintendent Frost, of the Denver, only one fare will be charged for the round trip, and thus, at a very slight expense, the teachers may enjoy an exceedingly pleasant day with their collaborators at Home.

The late memorial tribute by the Knights of Pythias to their dead brothers, Moore, Quickenstedt and Ziegler, were in the highest degree impressive.

After his name Mr. T. J. Powell, the brilliant young lawyer, who more than sustained his reputation for oratory. His speech was pronounced "a gem" and of its kind one of the best ever delivered in Fort Worth.

Following is a weekly statement of the average actual enrollment, attendance and tardiness in the city public schools of Fort Worth for the week ending Friday, December 3, 1886:

Table with columns: School Name, Enrollment, Attendance, Tardiness. Includes schools like No. 1, No. 2, No. 3, etc.

While there is a slight falling off in the week in actual enrollment yet there has been an attendance of over 90 per cent.

The opera last night. The Bijou Opera company played "The Bridal Trap" to a large house last night, and to say that the audience was pleased would be a weak way to express it.

That little remark of Col. J. Britton about the number of people that get out of the cars at Fort Worth still goes.

The local political pot is simmering in connection with the coming city election.

The question just now agitating the minds of interested parties is, whether, in the event it is decided to nominate candidates, it is best to have a primary election, or to hold a convention to do the nominating work.

Yesterday the final arrangements were perfected by which Mr. Edward Muller of Galveston leased the handsome and spacious new hotel known as the Ellis house, on Throckmorton and Third streets.

Mr. Muller is a well-known hotel man, having for a long time conducted the Girarden house in Galveston.

On account of bad weather, Wrisley's Alphabet procession was postponed until Monday afternoon.

The City Pastor's association will meet to recognize on Monday at 9:30 a. m., at the St. Paul's Methodist church.

Funeral of Mrs. Tully. This noble lady was laid to rest yesterday afternoon, amid a large number of sorrowful friends and heart-stricken relatives who had assembled to see her when they so fondly cherished in life.

GOOD ROADS. AN EFFORT TO BEGIN THE GOOD WORK. There is to be presented to the county commissioners at their next meeting a petition for the straightening of one of the principal roads in Tarrant county, and which will, if established, shorten the distance between terminal points by seven miles, or nearly one-third of the present distance.

What will comprise the Christmas and popular presents for the season.

Two weeks from next Saturday is Christmas day, when the old custom of giving and receiving presents will be again observed.

The Paper Box Factory. No one has any idea what the Fort Worth Printing House is doing in this industry unless a visit has been made through this department.

Hot Cakes Don't Sell Faster. Mr. John C. Peters stated yesterday that he had never known a brand of candy to sell as the P. Oakes brand is doing.

NO TIME FOR NEWSPAPER MEN. An effort to obtain an advertisement from E. J. White for to-day's issue of the paper was a failure.
