

B. C. EVANS CO. The Leading Clothiers and Men's Furnishers

Will place on their counters this week the most desirable line of Neglige Shirts! Ever shown in this market in Oxford, Madras, Zephyr Cloths, Flannels, Silk Mixtures and pure Silks at greatly reduced prices.

DRESS SHIRTS, Plain and plaited bosom, open front and back, plain and fancy pique, satin stripes and hand-embroidered, full dress. Summer Night Robes Of the lightest fabrics, extra full and extra long, with puff bosom.

BAR COATS. All of Alfred Benjamin's latest novelties in this line, also a full line of Waiters' Jackets. See us on all kinds of midsummer goods this week. The celebrated Lithone water-proof collars for 12c, and 4-ply linen collars 10c each.

B. C. EVANS CO.

K. M. VANZANDT, President. THOS. A. ... N. HARDING, Cashier. THE FORT WORTH NATIONAL BANK. Capital Stock $500,000. Surplus Fund, $30,000.

J. C. MCCARTHY, President. CHAS. SCHUBERT, Vice-President. MAX ELDER, Cashier. CITY NATIONAL BANK. Capital $500,000. Surplus $80,000.

F. W. TAYLOR, Pres. E. E. CHASE, 1st Vice-Pres. ... A. B. SMITH, O. THE MERCHANTS NATIONAL BANK. Capital Paid in, $500,000. Surplus Fund, $50,000.

M. L. LOVE, President. ... E. B. HARRIS, Cashier. FIRST NATIONAL BANK. CASH CAPITAL $250,000. SURPLUS 125,000.

A. J. ANDERSON, WHOLESALE. Notions, Cutlery and Sporting Goods. 209-211 Houston St., Fort Worth, Tex.

BATEMAN & BRO., WHOLESALE GROCERS. Nos. 1619, 1621 and 1623 Main, and 1620 1618, and 1622 Rusk, Streets, Fort Worth, Tex.

ARANSAS HOTEL. Health and Pleasure Resort. E. G. WESTBROOK, Proprietor.

ELLIS HOTEL, FORT WORTH, TEXAS. Muller & Fort, Proprietors.

Hotel Pickwick, CORNER MAIN AND FOURTH STREETS, FORT WORTH, TEX. Rates $2.50 Per Day. Geo. C. Hudgins, Manager

DENVER - STATE - LOTTERY, Capital Prize $500,000. $26,370 PAID EACH MONTH!

MORTGAGE LOANS. Cash Capital and Surplus $100,000.

KANSAS INVESTMENT COMPANY. 401 Main Street, corner Third, up-stairs.

H. N. CONNER & CO. BOOKS and STATIONERY.

OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES, "STRETCHERS."

"Worcester Dictionary," Unabridged and Indexed, $10.00.

John F. Hardy, Typewriter Agent, Dallas, Tex.

WORLD'S FAIR OFFICIALS. Michigan Furnishes the President and Texas the Secretary.

CHICAGO, ILL., June 27.—The World's fair commissioners met this morning.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., June 27.—Early this morning Ransom Coleman, the colored cook of the Commercial restaurant, was shot through the leg by one of two negroes with whom he was quarreling.

G. O. P. TACTICS.

Blaine's Policy Either Suicidal or Murder to the Party.

How a Society Leader Worked the Rabbit's Foot and Carried Her Point, Then Skipped.

The Opposition's Policy on the Federal Election Bill—The Status of the Galveston Deep Water Bill.

POSSIBILITY OF DENIAL.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—There are rumors that the Democrats will absent themselves from the house when a vote is reached on the Federal election bill.

OUTLOOK FOR DEEP WATER. The status of the Galveston bill is unchanged from that mentioned in Monday's GAZETTE.

EAGLE PASS MILITARY POST.

A favorable report was made to-day by the house military committee on the bill to establish a military post at Eagle Pass.

Blaine vs. McKinley.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—It is a mistaken assumption that Harrison endorses Blaine's criticism of the McKinley tariff bill.

A SUCCESSFUL LADY LOBBYIST.

A sensation in society circles has been made by the widow of a certain former official of high rank, who came here last fall and renting a handsome mansion entertained extravagantly all winter.

John F. Hardy, Typewriter Agent

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The president has approved the dependent pension bill.

News from Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 27.—The government newspapers persist in claiming there is no revolutionary movement on the frontier.

Colored Cook Shot.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., June 27.—Early this morning Ransom Coleman, the colored cook of the Commercial restaurant, was shot through the leg by one of two negroes with whom he was quarreling.

THE COUNTRY'S TRADE.

R. G. Dun & Co's Weekly Resume of the Business World.

Condition of Trade, Past and Present, the Future Outlook at Leading Mercantile Centers of the Country.

NEW YORK, June 27.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: While the whole of trade as indicated by special reports, by bank exchanges at interior cities, and by railroad earnings, continues larger than in the same month of any previous year.

Business at other cities is well maintained, for the road and the exceedingly confident tone hitherto prevailing does not at all abate.

Business failures occurring throughout the country since the last week of May, number 202, as compared with 190 last week; for the corresponding week of 1889 the figures were 215.

MUCH TALK.

That's What the Mexican Revolution Amounts To—Another Encounter with Filibusters.

A Sensation in Italy.

ROME, June 27.—The Toscanelli is about to publish a pamphlet which will undoubtedly create a sensation throughout Italy.

Ceded to Germany.

BERLIN, June 27.—The sultan has consented to cede the Zanzibar coast to Germany.

Twenty-Five Persons Drowned.

LONDON, June 27.—Details of the damage done by the gales on the Scotch coast during the middle of this week show that nine vessels were wrecked and twenty-five persons drowned.

Panama Canal.

PARIS, June 27.—The committee which was sent to Panama to investigate the condition of the canal has made a further report on the prospects of the enterprise.

Turks Invade a Church.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—Advices received here from Erzerum regarding the troubles in that city state that a detachment of Turkish soldiers searched a church there while services were being held in belief that a quantity of arms were secreted in the building.

An Ex-Confederate Dead.

HUNTSVILLE, TEX., June 27.—Mr. W. B. Rome, who has been clerk of Walker county for twenty-five successive years, died last night after a short illness.

Work Resumed at Cairo.

CAIRO, ILL., June 27.—The Illinois Central strikers resumed work at 5 p. m. to-day and trains are being made up to go north and south at once.

A BLUE BOOK.

England's Newfoundland Fisheries Dispute with France.

Movement for Shorter Hours for Shop Clerks—Orkney Islands Gale.

Why Pope Leo Failed to Carry Out His Plans to Leave Rome—Riot in a Church, Salisbury Ministry.

NEWFOUNDLAND FISHERIES DISPUTE.

LONDON, June 27.—The blue book on the Newfoundland fisheries dispute with France which the government has been expected to issue for some days past made its appearance to-day.

SHORTER SHOP HOURS.

Cardinal Manning and a number of other prominent men called on the lord mayor at the Mansion house to-day with a view of enlisting the co-operation of the lord mayor in a scheme for the protection of the interests of the shop clerks whose long hours and low wages appeal to the sympathy of the more favored classes.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

At All Kemrite, Prussian Silesia, last night, a miner named Spronger waylaid a postman and shot him dead. He then opened the letters in the postman's bag but found nothing of value, whereupon he shot himself and fell dead by the side of his victim.

CHICAGO, ILL., June 27.—The last advices from the strikers' meeting are to the effect that the strikers are still in session, but matters have progressed so far that a settlement of the differences between the men and company is considered certain.

IT IS SETTLED.

At the conclusion of the meeting this afternoon the strikers fled out and announced that by a vote of 306 to 105 they had decided to accept the terms of the company and return to work.

General Superintendent Sullivan was seen after the settlement, and at the close of the final conference he said that the strike was settled, not upon the basis of any concession on the part of the railroad company, but by a complete and entire surrender of the men.

Trunk Line Presidents.

NEW YORK, June 27.—One of the most important meetings of the year of trunk line presidents was held to-day. The presidents were called together to devise means for putting an end to the rate cutting and fix upon a scale for eastbound rates.

Ripe for a Revolt.

LONDON, June 27.—Signs of an early collapse of the Salisbury government are increasing on all sides. The ministry have unquestionably become alarmed, and are planning a new deal, which they hope will strengthen the new cabinet and restore the popularity of the government with the many who have become disgusted with its tergiversation and indecision, and are ripe for a revolt against

HOGG TO-NIGHT.

The Distinguished Gentleman will Be Accorded a Fitting Reception—At the Opera House.

Admitted to Ball. Special to the Gazette. Mr. VERNON, Tex., June 27.—To-day Jack and Ed Riburne, sons of W. R. Riburne, who killed J. D. Williams on the 25th inst., in this county, waived examining trial and by agreement of the county attorney were admitted to bail in the sum of $1500 each, which they very readily gave. The whereabouts of W. R. Riburne has not as yet been found.

Attorney-General J. S. Hogg, candidate for governor of Texas, speaks in Fort Worth to-night, and as a result of the efforts put forth by the central Hogg club at its meeting on Thursday night the distinguished orator will be received by his Fort Worth adherents in a manner befitting his position and possibilities.

THE LOTTERY BILL.

The Bill Reported Back with an Addition of $6,250,000, Insuring its Passage. Special to the Gazette. NEW ORLEANS, LA., June 27.—The senate committee to which the lottery bill passed by the house last Wednesday was referred, reported it back, increasing the amount to be paid by the Louisiana state lottery company for the privilege to $1,250,000 a year instead of $1,000,000, and for the entire period of twenty-five years $31,250,000 instead of $25,000,000.

MANY LIVES LOST.

Official information of the results of the recent gale off the Orkney Islands is now being received, showing that thirty-five vessels were wrecked and thirty-five men, comprising their crews, were drowned. The effect of the gale upon the islands was also very serious, and a large amount of property was destroyed which the fishermen will find it extremely difficult to replace.

THIEVING EDITOR.

The editor of the Volks Timmel, a socialist paper published at Geestemund, Hanover, has absconded with a large sum of money of which he was the trusted custodian. The victims of his defalcations are several socialist organizations and a number of poor people, for whom the editor acted as banker.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

At All Kemrite, Prussian Silesia, last night, a miner named Spronger waylaid a postman and shot him dead. He then opened the letters in the postman's bag but found nothing of value, whereupon he shot himself and fell dead by the side of his victim.

A Sensation in Italy.

ROME, June 27.—The Toscanelli is about to publish a pamphlet which will undoubtedly create a sensation throughout Italy. The pamphlet declares that last year a project had been fully matured by the Italian government, and would be declared to be Italian property. The pope thereupon renounced his intention of leaving the city, fearing that if he did so he might never be able to return.

Ceded to Germany.

BERLIN, June 27.—The sultan has consented to cede the Zanzibar coast to Germany.

Twenty-Five Persons Drowned.

LONDON, June 27.—Details of the damage done by the gales on the Scotch coast during the middle of this week show that nine vessels were wrecked and twenty-five persons drowned.

Panama Canal.

PARIS, June 27.—The committee which was sent to Panama to investigate the condition of the canal has made a further report on the prospects of the enterprise. The committee says that the construction of the canal at the calculated level would cost twenty years and would cost $1,757,000,000 francs.

Turks Invade a Church.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—Advices received here from Erzerum regarding the troubles in that city state that a detachment of Turkish soldiers searched a church there while services were being held in belief that a quantity of arms were secreted in the building.

An Ex-Confederate Dead.

HUNTSVILLE, TEX., June 27.—Mr. W. B. Rome, who has been clerk of Walker county for twenty-five successive years, died last night after a short illness.

Work Resumed at Cairo.

CAIRO, ILL., June 27.—The Illinois Central strikers resumed work at 5 p. m. to-day and trains are being made up to go north and south at once.