

HOLT STILL ON THE HUSTINGS. Speaking Last Night in the Outskirts of the Fifth Ward.

There Will Be a Big Rally Tonight at the Opera House When Holt, Kirby and Coleman Will Be the Orators.

The opera house has been secured for the Holt meeting tonight. The reason that the Holt committee has adhered thus far to open air meetings is inadequate to accommodate the crowds that flock to the Holt meetings. This was demonstrated in the use of Turner hall, the largest in the city outside of the Auditorium, when not more than half of the crowd could be accommodated.

Shor Talks. With Prominent Visitors to and Citizens of Houston Who Have Something Interesting to Say.

Mr. H. W. Lottman is one of the extensive manufacturers of this city. He said in a Post representative yesterday: "I am in the business of manufacturing furniture, and I wish there were a number of such establishments here. If there were this place would soon become a center for such products and the business would be greatly increased in volume."

Mr. M. Mayer of San Antonio is in the city. In speaking of his city, he said: "San Antonio and its immediate section are all right, but the far Southwest country was all suffering very much for rain when I was there last time. There was no water and no grass, and stockmen were suffering by starvation and thirst."

Mr. P. Balderewitz of Corpus Christi is at present in Houston on a prospecting tour and has about concluded to locate here. To a Post man he said yesterday: "I have been recently in all the principal cities of the State and I have about concluded to make my home here. My country is great for truck farming and will, if irrigation is properly inaugurated, become the principal section of Texas for the raising of cabbage, watermelons, etc."

Mr. J. E. Caldwell of Nashville, Tenn., president of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company, Mr. H. J. Pottenger of Boston, vice president; Mr. J. H. Farnsworth of Dallas, general manager, and Mr. E. K. Baker of Austin, superintendent of the South Texas division, are at the city. A YOUNG CHICAGO GIRL. Saved from Ruin and Despair by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lillie E. Sinclair's Letter and Portrait Here Published to Lead Other Sick Girls to Be Cured.

Is there anything more truly pathetic than the cry for health that springs from the anguished heart of a young girl, — a beautiful girl who sees ahead only suffering and uncertainty? But O, what joy and gladness her young heart pours forth when she realizes that her deadly enemy is gone, — banished forever.

MISS LILLIE E. SINCLAIR, President Women's Century Bicycle Club, Chicago, Ill.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality."
