CUNNINGHAM WON ANOTHER TROPHY

LIFTED CONSOLATION PRIZE IN ROCKY MOUNTAIN TOURNAMENT AT DENVER.

STILL PROUD OF TEXAS PLAYERS

Says Tennis Men of Colorado Don't Appreciate Fine Points of Game as Do the Sports of Texas.

Mr. J. L. Cunningham of this city, who has just returned with his wife from a three weeks' trip to St. Louis and Denver, won a beautiful silver tennis tournament at Denver. It was the consolation prize in singles. Speaking of the tournament and the part he played in it, Mr. Cunningham, in conversation with an Enterprise man, said yesterday:

"I was very much surprised to win a trophy at Denver, as I had thought the fellows up there played crack tennis and would put me out of the running quickly. As a matter of fact they did put me out of the running in the straight play in singles. I drew an exceptionally good player and was beaten in the first round. They had a consolation prize up there, though, that was a unique arrangement. The men who were beaten the first day, of course, were out of the running, but an arrangement was made to have them start in again among themselves, draw partners and play out a tournament for a consolation cup. I went down to finals in this contest and won easily from my man at the finish."

Mr. Cunningham says he has more respect for the Texas lawn tennis players since seeing the Colorado men play. "I thought they were more up on the fine points of the game, I think, with our players here. If Tom Holland or Semp Russ had been up there they would have taken everything easily. The men don't play their best tennis well and in doubles fall down badly from what we call good playing down here."

"I experienced considerable difficulty playing because of the altitude," mentioned Mr. Cunningham. "I had great trouble in getting my breath. It seemed as if somebody was sitting on my chest. One thing I noticed, though, was that I didn't get as tired from play as I do here and I woke up the next morning without being sore or stiff and was refreshed and ready to play again. The courts out there were very fast. The courts here, which consist favorably with courts elsewhere."

Mr. Cunningham recently won the cup in singles in the Beaumont club's city tournament and with Ross, the city champion, while in St. Louis. Mr. Cunningham witnessed the tournament in which Ross Cresson won the doubles.

LOUISIANA DAY.

Exercises at World's Fair Marked by Parade of Militia.

St. Louis, Sept. 14.—Elaborate exercises marked the celebration of the State of Louisiana at the exposition. The exercises were inaugurated by a parade composed of several military companies, under command of Gen. Blanchard, the directors of the exposition, President Francis, Gov. Blanchard and Gov. Warfield of Maryland all being mounted. The route of the parade traversed the principal avenues of the exposition ending at the Louisiana State pavilion where a formal welcome was extended by President Francis.

The feature of the day was the reproduction of the historic ceremonies which attended the transfer of the Louisiana Purchase territory to the government of the United States. Gov. Blanchard was introduced and made an address.

HISTORY OF THE STRIKE.

Called July 12, Settled July 20 and Declared on Again the Next Day.

The strike of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen was called at noon July 12, when 41,000 packing house employees walked out in the seven great packing centers to secure an increase in wages for the common laborers. It was the first general packing house strike, and scarcely had the men left the great plants when meat prices began to rise in all parts of the country. In Kansas City 7,000 men struck and 5,000 others were affected.

For twenty-four hours the meat industry was paralyzed, no killing being done in any of the packing houses. Then the packers began to recover. Strike breakers were rushed in and killing began again. The union officials made every effort to prevent disorder and the police found little to do.

Seriously was the strike ordered than conferences between the packers and strike leaders were arranged with the result that on July 20 the strike was called off, the packers agreeing to reinstate the strikers and the wage scale being left to arbitration. All the men expected to be re-employed at once, however, and when the packers failed to do this such a term of protest was raised that the leaders again ordered a strike and both sides prepared for a fight to a finish. Many other unions joined the strikers and some of the plants were forced to close down.

In this city the Cadaby, Ruddy and Schwarzschild & Sulzberger houses were closed for a week. The Armour plant, however, was little affected and did much to break the strike. Kansas City was just recovering from the second flood and many of the strikers had lost heavily. The packers rushed in strike breakers and one by one the plants resumed. The strikers soon began to feel the need of money and profits to work. The laborers for whom the others struck were the first to desert. The other butchers held out and stood by the action of Chicago. They admitted they had lost the strike but declared they had put up a "game fight to the end."—Kansas City Star.

St. Louis City, Sept. 14.—The strike sent out from Boston of the almost discovery of a plot to assassinate President Roosevelt is characterized by the police here, as a scandalous and simple.

GORMAN TO LEAD.

Reported That He Will Take Charge of Campaign Instead of Taggart, Chicago, Sept. 14.—Judge Alton B. Parker may go on the platform with in the next six weeks and respond personally to the questions asked by President Roosevelt in the latter's letter of acceptance, according to National Chairman J. G. Johnson of Kansas.

Mr. Johnson, who arrived in Chicago today, declared that Senator Gorman is to have charge of the campaign, superseding Chairman Taggart and Executive Chairman Eshelman. Headquarters will be opened in the West, said Mr. Johnson, and that is why Chairman Taggart is coming to this city next week. It is the purpose of the national committee to wage a hard fight in Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Idaho, Washington and California.

Nevada is looked upon as being Democratic. In the Middle West, Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana will be the battle grounds. Judge Parker will go to New York this week and consult with the national committee. It is the belief of the members of the national committee that he will go on the platform and reply to some of the queries of President Roosevelt. Former President Cleveland and Mr. Bryan also will speak for Parker.

Petroleum in Arkansas.

Little Rock, Sept. 14.—Information has been received in this city to the effect that petroleum has been discovered by Geo. M. Hatley, near Daleville, in Dallas county. The operations in that field have been kept secret, but one of the men interested in the operations stated today that one well has been drilled, striking oil at a depth of 550 feet, with an estimated production of 15 to 20 barrels a day. The well is now being drilled deeper with the expectation of securing a bigger yield and arrangements are being made to sink other wells in the same territory.
