LECONTE WINS OUT IN HAITI

Entered Port-au-Prince in Triumph and Appointed New Ministry.

[By Associated Press.] Port-au-Prince, Aug. 7.—Cincinnatus LeConte, the revolutionary leader, made a triumphal entry into the capital yesterday. A new ministry has been tentatively agreed upon.

TIN SOLDIERS AT CAMP MABRY

[By Associated Press.] Austin, Texas, Aug. 7.—Approximately there were three thousand troops on hand at Camp Mabry when the annual encampment of the Texas National Guard opened this morning. A sham battle will occur later in the week.

OFFICIAL REPORT ON CHOLERA IN ITALY

Government Publishes Figures Showing 802 Cases and 319 Deaths in Five Days.

[By Associated Press.] Chiasso, Switzerland, Aug. 7.—The official report of the Italian government shows that from July 27 to July 31, inclusive, there were throughout Italy 802 cases of cholera and 319 deaths.

ADVANCE IN FREIGHT RATES SUSPENDED

Were to Become Effective October 28, but Interstate Commerce Commission Postponed Time to End of Year.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Aug. 7.—The proposed advances in class freight rates by railroads operating between the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, which were to become effective October 28, next, today were suspended by the interstate commerce commission until December 30.

CAN'T AGREE ON WOOL TARIFF

La Follette and Underwood Failed to Settle Differences Between Senate and House.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Aug. 5.—Senator La Follette and Representative Underwood, who were appointed as a subcommittee, failed to reach an agreement on the wool tariff revision bill and reported it this morning to the full conference committee of the house and senate for consideration.

The conference committee later sent the wool tariff revision bill back to Messrs. La Follette and Underwood to let them try again to come to an agreement.

Postponed Till Wednesday.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Aug. 5.—The senate finance committee this morning deferred action on the cotton tariff revision bill until Wednesday.

ROUTINE IN BOTH BRANCHES OF LEGISLATURE

Senate Still Working on Appropriations Bill—House Adopted Committee Substitute for Liquor Regulation.

[By Associated Press.] Austin, Texas, Aug. 7.—Routine had the call in both branches of the legislature early today. The senate spent most of the morning in considering the general appropriations bill.

The house, by a vote of 60 to 30, passed the committee substitute No. 1 for the house concurrent resolution asking the governor to submit a recommendation for a stricter regulation of the liquor traffic. The committee measure favors a limit of one saloon to each 1500 inhabitants, and an annual license tax of $750, with business hours from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m., and to prohibit the sale of alcoholic liquors except in unbroken packages.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING LODGE FUNDS

[By Associated Press.] Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 7.—H. C. Miller of Sherman, Texas, was arrested here last night on a charge of embezzling the funds of the Sherman lodge of Red Men. Miller says he will return to Texas without a requisition. The authorities say he admits to losing the money.

CLEARING HOUSTON OF WORTHLESS NEGROES

Shooting of Policeman Starts Officers to Realize the Danger of Idle Negroes in the City.

[By Associated Press.] Houston, Texas, Aug. 5.—Today the police inaugurated a vigorous clean-up of the undesirable negro element throughout Houston. The fatal shooting of Policeman John H. Cain yesterday by a negro, which followed other recent attacks by blacks on officers, caused this clean-up.

It is alleged that the city is full of worthless negroes, who can not be induced to respond to calls from the country districts for cotton pickers.

DESCENDANT OF TWO PRESIDENTS DEAD.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Aug. 7.—Capt. T. D. Adams, a direct descendant of President John Adams and of President John Quincy Adams, who died in this city yesterday, will be buried this afternoon at Newport News, Va.

Gates' Physicians Still Hopeful.

[By Associated Press.] Paris, Aug. 7.—The physicians attending John W. Gates reported today that the financier had a good night and his general condition is unchanged since yesterday. They are more hopeful of his recovery, as Mr. Gates continued to take nourishment, though his general condition and weak heart action caused much anxiety.

STATE CARPENTERS' UNION.

[By Associated Press.] Dallas, Texas, Aug. 7.—The state convention of the Journeymen Carpenters and Joiners' Union opened in this city this morning with delegates present from all over the state. Today was spent in organization. The meeting will continue three days.

A BUSINESS CHANGE

W. I. McCulloch Sells Grocery Business to Sim Cooper and J. V. Brogdon.

A business change of more than usual importance has just been closed up, by the terms of which Mr. W. I. McCulloch sells his entire grocery business to Messrs. Sim Cooper and J. V. Brogdon.

The deal does not take effect until September 1, at which time stock will be taken, all the details closed up and the new proprietors will take charge. As soon as the new firm takes possession they will move the stock of goods to the building now occupied by Howell & Newton, who are going into the new Howell building on August 22.

Mr. McCulloch will continue in business right along until September 1 and solicits the patronage of his friends and the public until that time. He is not yet ready to announce his plans for the future, but it is the hope of all that he and his family will remain in Bryan.

ANARCHY REIGNS IN HAITI

Efforts of Diplomatic Corps to Form Committee of Safety Failed and Fighting Seems Inevitable.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Aug. 5.—The efforts of the diplomatic corps in Haiti to form a committee of public safety have failed. Fighting between the revolutionary factions now seems inevitable.

Popular Citizen of Abilene Buried.

[By Associated Press.] Abilene, Texas, Aug. 7.—One of the largest funeral processions in the history of Abilene followed the remains of Capt. L. C. Wise to the grave this morning. Captain Wise died Sunday.

Washington, Aug. 7.—The postmaster general today designated fifty additional postal savings banks to begin business September 4. Three are to be located at Marshall, Paris and Wichita Falls, Texas, respectively.

DES MOINES STREET CAR STRIKE ENDED

Service Resumed as Usual and No Sign of Disturbance Visible.

[By Associated Press.]

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 7.—Normal conditions existed today with the entire street car service in full operation. There are no indications of there having been a strike. The controversy, which under the mandate of District Judge DeGraff became a legal question, apparently has been forgotten.

POSTMASTER CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL ASSAULT

[By Associated Press.] Dallas, Texas, Aug. 7.—G. W. Bowers, postmaster at Eagleford, is charged by affidavit with criminal assault on Myrtle and Mattie Adkins, aged 11 and 14, respectively. Officers have left to make the arrest.

Women Refuse to Serve on Juries.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 7.—Ten women drawn for jury duty at the coming term of the Spokane county superior court declare they will not serve unless compelled to do so by law. Mrs. Sarah Witherell, living at 1528 Ninth avenue, the first woman drawn for the venire, voiced the sentiments of her sisters in saying that while women should use their franchise in voting for good government she believes jury duty is a man's work. "I voted because I am a taxpayer," she added, "and because I had the right to vote." Mrs. Flora P. Atchison, 808 Shannon avenue, said: "There are certain cases where it is all right for a woman to serve on a jury, but they are scattered. I will not serve if called. My home is the place for me. I am not an advocate of the equal suffrage cause, although I think that women will be able to accomplish much good with their votes." Mrs. E. G. Hubbard, 2116 North Madison street, told her story in a few words: "I prefer to stay at home, for I think that is the woman's place. Woman jurors on a divorce case? Oh, my! No!"

Connecticut Germans.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 7.—One hundred and five societies of the German-American Alliance of Connecticut are represented here today in the annual state reunion and field day of the body. A parade and historical pageant opened the program this morning.
