HASTE NOT JUSTIFIED.

It is stated that the question of universal military training may be reopened. Under existing conditions, which are strictly competitive between the nations, a huge military establishment is necessary. On the other hand, it is far too soon to presume upon the conditions which will follow the declaration of peace. If a practical plan for disarmament can be agreed upon, military expense is certain to be greatly reduced, since it is not, in any sense, productive. The time to consider universal training is when universal training is ratified as essential. The League of Nations is not Utopian; it has a foundation in fact. From the alliance of a group, for the special interests of those countries affected, it is only a step to the alliance of civilization. At any rate, it will be right to await developments. Vast expenditures which seem to be warranted to-day may be uncalled for to-morrow, and peace in its most official status is only a few weeks or months off.

GETTING ADJUSTED.

Building restrictions have been removed; food regulations have been modified. Quite rapidly the world will acquire its normal habits, and set about the unfinished tasks. In this section of Texas there is going to be an era of prosperity. The extent of that era will be determined by the spirit of the people. There will be a great deal of capital searching for profitable investment, and much money will flow from the East to the agricultural regions. Peace is not going to bring plenty in a day, but good times will come on none the less surely. Only in the industrial centers, where there must be a great shifting of momentum, will there be any serious disturbance, and there is good reason to believe that all problems will be solved with the minimum of lost motion. The world has got to be made up for democracy.

DANGER AHEAD.

The spread of Bolshevism is a serious menace to Europe, and it is by no means certain that anarchy will not touch some of those very nations which have proved most secure through years of strife. Revolution is in the atmosphere. The reign of the classes has produced widespread abuse, and the masses, who have fought and bled and determined the issue, are truly restive their enormous strength. It is not that the principle of democracy is not inherently sound. Government ought to be participated in by the people as a whole. But it will be a sad day for humanity when the masses supersede the classes without the training or skill to produce good government, and how much skill is not a matter of red flags and surrender jealousy.

VICTORY SERVICE NEXT SUNDAY AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH GOOD SHEPHERD

The Reverend J. W. Sykes, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd yesterday made the following announcement:

"Victory service Sunday at eleven o'clock in the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd.

Let us make this a day of genuine Thanksgiving both for the return of peace and for the special blessings which have been bestowed upon our city.

"In what better way can we express our gratitude than by returning many thanks to the "Author and Giver of Every Good and Perfect Gift."

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Furthermore, the best Christmas gift you can give this year is a package of those little green War Savings Stamps.

Even though peace comes don't delude yourself with the idea that those pledges to invest in Government War Savings Stamps are "scraps of paper." They are binding personal obligations.

Be in a position to back up that New Year's resolution for 1919 by having bought all of the War Savings Stamps you pledged for 1918.

Our idea of a first class slacker is the person who cashes his War Savings Stamps when he is not compelled to do so by circumstances.

Stop! Look! Listen! Buy those War Savings Stamps now.

There is only one commodity you have any moral right to be extravagant over just now. That commodity is W. S. S. Extravagance for War Savings Stamps is the kind of spending that any long-headed banker will aid and abet you in.

Do your Christmas shopping early and get 'em at the postoffice—W. S. S., you know.

Send your dollars over the top with the United War Work Campaign.

Help the boys through the United War Work.

I dreamed that a battle worn, boy-soldier knocked at my door and I said "Come in, Buddy! the best I've got is yours!" Then I woke up, and cried because my dream chance was gone. But with the help of God, and the United War Work Campaign and my dollars, I am going to send the "best in the house" to that boy just the same.

Help the war workers do their wonderful work; GIVE. Be a soldier too.

APPLE POSSIBILITIES

The U. S. Food Administration reminds us that every fall apples has its possibilities for winter desserts or relishes and that none should be allowed to be wasted. Here are some recipes from the Food Administration:

Canned Baked Apples

Wash and core good, sound, tart baking apples. Fill the cavities with 1 tablespoon of syrup or honey for each apple. Bake the apple until tender in a pan containing a little water. Pack the apples into a hot sterile jar, add the juice remaining in the pan. Fill the jars completely with a syrup made by boiling together for two minutes, water and syrup in the proportion of 1 cup of water and one-half cup of syrup. Seal the can.

Chipped Apples or Pears

Hard fruit (apples or pears) eight pounds. Ginger root or crystallized ginger one ounce. Sugar, one pound (two cups); syrup, 3 pounds (4 cups); 3 lemons and 2 quarts of water.

Wash and prepare fruit. Weigh after it is prepared. Add sugar to syrup and water. Add lemon juice and chopped rind and fruit. Cook slowly until fruit is tender and product is thick and dark.

Apples and Carrot Conserve

Carrots, ground or diced, 2 quart of drum, 2 cups salt, apple tarts, diced, 3 quart, oranges sliced 2.

Cook the carrots in sufficient water to cover them, until they are tender; do not drain them. Add the other ingredients, and cook the mixture until it is clear.

News and Views as Told to Caller Reporters

Dash little pumpkin seed don't you cry,
You'll be a Turkey Day pie, bye and bye.

Here is a little story about five cents worth of pumpkin seed that continues foreshadow thrift, luscious pumpkin pie and free advertising for the Robinson Waffle factor, all rolled into one.

Some months ago Mrs. Anna G. Robinson, foreseeing possibly that she was to soon open a Waffle Parlor, invested five cents in pumpkin seeds which she planted in her backyard on South Shaft. The seed like all well nurtured and carefully selected pumpkin seed grew fat and sassy and ultimately developed into vines from which four big pumpkins have already been plucked and converted into thrifty, big pies that sold at a half dollar each while 20 other pumpkins from the same patch are soon to be converted into Turkey Day pies.

Remember! Peace or war the United States Government has to pay its debts and consequently expects you to see that W. S. S. pledge.

SPANISH INFLUENZA STRIKES SUDDENLY

PNEUMONIA OFTEN RESULTS—VICTIMS SEIZED WITHOUT WARNING MAKING PRECAUTION DOUBLY NECESSARY

Much of the difficulty experienced by health authorities in checking the spread of the Spanish Influenza lies in the fact that it strikes the victim without warning.

Although State and Federal authorities are taking every possible precaution in their effort to stop the spread of the epidemic, the disease in many sections of the country has gotten entirely beyond control and is claiming its victims by the thousands.

It is universally agreed by all well informed persons that the surest preventative is to put the system in the best possible physical condition in order to be able to throw off the infection. As has been previously stated it is possible to perfect the powers of resistance of the human system so that it can throw off almost any infection, not excepting Spanish Influenza, which is one of the most contagious diseases known.

Medical authorities agree that people who are weak and run-down are the earliest victims of the Influenza epidemic. If you find yourself weak or losing flesh, or if you are in a generally run-down condition, you are really in great danger if you should come in contact with the Influenza germ.

As a powerful reconstructive tonic and system builder, Tanlac is without equal. This is a statement of facts and is ably supported by recognized authorities. According to all accepted reference works, including the United States Dispensatory, Encyclopedia, Materia Medica and medical text books used in the school of medicine, the principle ingredients of Tanlac possess the most valuable tonic properties known to science. This statement is further proven by the fact that millions of persons who have actually taken Tanlac have testified to its extraordinary merit as a medicine.

Tanlac purifies, builds and strengthens the weak and run-down system by enabling every organ of the body to perform its proper function in a natural way. It creates a healthy appetite for good nourishing food and an iron strengthening tonic for persons who are in a run-down condition and who are suffering from the aftereffects of influenza, fevers or intestinal troubles.

Tanlac is sold in Corpus Christi by the Hirsh Drug Store.
