Senator Pollock of Cheraw, S. C. has been sworn in as a member of the senate from South Carolina. He will serve until March 4 and will then be succeeded by N. B. Dial. Mr. Pollock is given much of the credit for defeating Cole Blaise. He was elected on a pro-Wilson platform over two opponents. He is a lawyer and a farmer.

When Airmen Fight.
One imagines picturesque duels to the death, between A (the great French or English ace) and X (the German competitor)—the multitude of stalling, upturned eyes, the distant rattle of shots, the flaring spin of the loser. As a matter of fact, a duel between two monoplane, hand-dred by pilots of anything like equal skill, who are aware of each other's presence, is not unlikely to end without bloodshed. Bear in mind that they can shoot only forward, that the gun must be aimed by aiming the whole machine (to which it is fixed, immovably) and that a twisting, climbing, banking airplane, traveling at over 100 miles per hour, is no joke to fit in its small vitals, and you can see that this must be so.

Polishing Brass.
For polishing brass or copper, make a paste of rottenstone and cottonseed oil. If there are bad spots or stains, use a little oxalic acid solution to remove them, but rinse off immediately with warm water and rub over with the cottonseed oil.

DR. CHEEK TREW AWAY OVER $3,000

TROUBLES DISAPPEARED WHEN HE TOOK TANLAC—HE HAS GAINED TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS IN WEIGHT HE SAYS.

From Dr. M. C. Cheek, a well known physician who resides on R. D. No. 1 out of Hawkinsville, Georgia, comes the following remarkable statement regarding the extraordinary powers of Tanlac. Dr. Cheek, who has practiced his profession in Hawkinsville and vicinity for years, declares he spent three thousand dollars trying to get relief and it was just like money thrown away, as he didn't improve.

Writing to R. W. Goode, the progressive Hawkinsville druggist, Dr. Cheek said: "I spent over three thousand dollars trying to get rid of stomach trouble. I had the best treatment, a local find in this state and was even treated by a specialist in Chicago, without relief. I had weight and went down hill until I only weighed one hundred and seven pounds. "I began taking Tanlac on the first of January and took four bottles. I gained twenty-five pounds and now weigh one hundred and thirty-two and my troubles have gone." "Statements of this kind coming from well known people and published every day in the community where such and every fact can be investigated and verified, have nothing to be desired in establishing the merit of the widely called-of medicine, Tanlac.

ERNESTO MADERO ENTERS PLEA TO LARCENY CHARGE

FORMER MEMBER OF MEXICAN CABINET AND TWO OTHERS PLEAD GUILTY

New York, Dec. 23.—A plea of guilty to first degree grand larceny was entered in court here today by Ernesto Madero, former minister of finance in the cabinet of his nephew, Francisco I. Madero, who was president of Mexico, from 1911 to 1913, and who was assassinated in a suburb here last year. Madero's name, also pleaded guilty. The three defendants will be tried on Jan. 2.

Mrs. George Barnett, wife of the commandant of the U. S. marine corps, was the first American woman to visit the Marne battlefields after the American engagements there. She decorated with towers many of the graves of American heroes. Mrs. Barnett was summoned abroad suddenly a few weeks ago because of the illness of her husband. This picture was made with her son, Basil Gordon, a lieutenant in the marines.

Will Be Toothbrush Next.
The tall bookkeeper wound about three yards of flower limb around the leg of the tube and remarked as he gazed off into space:

"I would like to know just what some people's idea of inconvenience is. For instance, the other day a small child belonging to one of our neighbors knocked at our back door."

"What can I do for you, little girl?" I asked.
"Well," she said, "my papa says he hopes it won't inconvenience you any, but he has sent our ice box down-town to have a new lining put in, and he wants to know if you will lend us your refrigerator for three or four days until ours gets fixed."

"Can you beat that?"—St. Joseph Gazette.

Truth About Books.

Some of the most famous books are least worth reading. Their fame was due to their doing something that needed to be done, but the work done, the virtue of the book expires.

DISGRACEFUL SURRENDER HUMBLING HUNS

CONDUCT OF SAILORS IN ACCEPTING PAY FOR DELIVERY OF U-BOATS MARKS LOSS OF LAST REMNANT OF HONOR SAYS NEWSPAPER

London, Dec. 23.—(British wireless service). Commenting on the handing over to the British of the German submarine U-175, the German crew who sailed this morning to sea, 297 marks per man paid by Germany as compensation for taking the boat to England, the Cologne Volks Zeitung says:

"Even when the astounding history of the Russian rifles given to the German security agencies was related we had patience. We had indeed still one consolation. Through this gift of universal indifference the splendor of our arms fame glinted with un-friendliness, never to disappear so long as men walked upon earth."

"Shall we now be robbed of this consolation in the solitude and silence of our misery? Is it possible in Germany that even 'good' sailors could have sold for 297 marks the last possible remnant of honor of an undying hero? A British admiral (Hextley) denounces the handing over of a U-boat which, as victor, he wishes with noble gesture to bestow upon the vanquished as one is accustomed to leave his sword to the brave commander of a conquered fortress. Revolutionary in German naval uniform pants we are told, 299 marks.

"These dishonorable men venture again to tread German soil with their 'swags of sin.' Can it really be true? Must a tear would flow in the German homeland? So everything is lost, including honor. We could not be lower in the estimation of the world."

AMERICAN SOLDIERS LOCATED IN GERMAN PRISON CAMP'S

By The Associated Press.
Washington, Dec. 23.—Names of two officers and 102 enlisted men of the expeditionary force reported as prisoners in German camps were made public today at the war department. Fourteen of the enlisted men were listed as being at Camp Havel, previously reported as having been evacuated with all prisoners there returned to France.

Half a Century Ago

Half a Century Ago every community could be supplied to some extent with locally dressed meat, drawing on live stock raised nearby.

Now two-thirds of the consuming centers, with millions of people, are one to two thousand miles away from the principal live-stock producing sections, which are sparsely settled.

The American meat packing industry of today is the development of the best way to perform a national service.

The function of providing meat had to develop accordingly. Those men who first grasped the elements of the changing problem created the best facilities to meet it—large packing plants and branch houses at strategic points, refrigerating equipment (including cars), car routes, trained organization, profitable outlets for former waste—which became the natural, inevitable channels for the vast flow of meat across the country.

If there were a better way to perform this necessary service, American ingenuity and enterprise would have discovered it, and others would now be using it.

During 1918, Swift & Company has earned a profit on meats (and meat by-products) of less than 2 1/2 cents per dollar of sales—too small a profit to have any appreciable effect on prices.

"LORD" BARRINGTON IS PAROLED IN MISSOURI

ENGLISHMAN WHO MURDERED JAMES MCCANN, THE ST. LOUIS RACE TRACK MAN IS TO GO BACK TO ENGLAND

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 23.—Three holiday parties to take effect tomorrow were announced today by a state board. Among them will be issued one to Frederick Seymour, "Lord" Barrington, who has been an inmate of the Missouri penitentiary since August, 1907. He was convicted of the murder of James McCann, a race track man of St. Louis, and was sentenced to death. The penalty was commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Folk.

Barrington, who is an Englishman and posed as a rich nobleman, is paroled to the society of St. George of New York City. An English organization has agreed to send him back to England within sixty days.

ASSOCIATED PRESS WINS INJUNCTION

The court not only sustained the injunction of the Associated Press, but issued an order in the proceedings to provide the International News Service charge that the Associated Press, through buying news rights of the same practices admitted by the defendant.

Revealing the great loss of publishing and distributing news to the Associated Press, the court said that the International News Service, through their own operations, the opinion of the court was that the defendant had a right to sell to its clients or customers news taken from public sources or early edition news papers and wires.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard of the valuable testimonials for my stomach trouble and immediately ordering with expectation's rights to-day. Hereafter of it, may be adjusted, but to the point that news for commercial use, in competition with competitors which is what defendant has done and seeks to do—'is a very different matter.' "Despite of all disputes, the process amounts to an unauthorized interference with the normal operation of competition's legitimate business, operating at the point where the profit is to be made, in order to direct a universal portion of the profit from these who have earned it to those who have not, with special advantage to dependent in the competition because of the fact that it is not furnished with any part of the expense of gathering the news, the latter speaks for itself as to the point of profit, and it is better long in characterizing it as unfair competition of business."

In regard to injunctions that the district court will be to specify in describing when the commercial value of the news reported by the district court, it is difficult to modify it at this stage, leaving the lower court to deal with the matter.

The Associated Press brought proceedings in this case, last January, charging that after being expelled from England, Canada and France, the International News Service had been operating and selling to its customers the news gathered by The Associated Press at a great expense, for its members. The Federal District Court of New York granted injunction against the robbery of employees and the formation of Associated Press papers to furnish news but refused to restrain the admitted practice of the defendant in systematically pirating news from public sources and wire editions on the ground that such piracy was not sufficient to cause an injurious loss of trade, the legal question was one of the first impression and an injunction should await the outcome of an appeal. Both parties appeared, and the court's order of appeal, not only sustained the injunction order issued, but remanded the case with directions to cause an injurious loss of trade to be taken by the court against the badly taken of words or substance of complainant's news until its commercial value of news was passed away."

Washington, Dec. 23.—Senator Mason of New Hampshire, introduced a resolution tonight calling on the committee of public information to supply the Senate with all further filed in Europe by the committee or any of its agents since December 3, which was for cable or telegraph communication to the United States or to any neutral country.
