Dryer News.

October 16th 1911.

Well it seems as if the rainy weather is over.

Everyone has a smiling face as the fall gardens are prospering so nicely.

Everybody received a windy note from old crimp, October 7th, reminding them that winter was near at hand.

My, we'd hate to have been present up in McComb-Miss. during the "strikebreakers" riots of a week ago. A few years back everything at that place was quiet and peaceful as when Bill A. was there.

Mr. T. V. Holley made a flying trip to our "city" yesterday.

There was quite a crowd from Dreyer or went fishing last night, down on the river. The writer failed to learn what success they had, but suppose they caught a few "suckers."

Miss Laura Dooley visited home folks Saturday and Sunday, at Yoakum. She was accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Neighbors of this place.

There was quite a crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Holley Saturday night, those present were: Mrs. J. W. Neighbors and children, Thada Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Moore, Arthur and Leona Klohs, Katie and Albert Crawford. All reported a jolly time.

Mr. Joshua Edgar and bride were visiting in Dreyer Sunday.

Mr. Richard Boysen made a business trip to cheapside Friday.

Mrs. R. L. Moore and daughter Katie visited Miss Brooksie Moore at Laurel, she is teaching the Reed school at that place. Miss Brooksie is missed from our burg by all. The writer wishes her much success in her undertakings.

The Dreyer school is progressing nicely, there are 25 pupils enrolled here at present, and much interest is taken in the school by all.

Mr. J. C. Neighbors of Wealden was visiting in our burg last week.

Mr. Judge Hamon was seen in Dreyer yesterday.

Mr. Hermann Dreyer passed through our city yesterday, en route to Yoakum on business.

Cotton picking is very rare in this part of the country, but corn gathering is the order of the day.

Health in our burg is good excepting a few colds.

Mr. Charlie Crawford of Hochheim was in Dreyer Thursday and Friday selling mules.

Well news is scarce, come again "Gittie" and a friend we are.

This is all until next week.

MOON BEAN.

The Mothers' Club announce that they will give a supper at the Opera house on Friday evening October 27th, for the benefit of the school. Everybody invited. The supper will be ready at 6:30 p. m.

Trickling of Blood Disclosed Death of Bob Neeley.

Flatonla, Tex., Oct. 14.—While passengers were waiting for the north-bound Sap train blood was noticed trickling from a box car on the sidetrack of the railroad. Investigation disclosed the body of Bob Neeley, a young man who resided eight miles south of here near Moulton, with the entire left side of his face shot away.

He had been at Moulton for several days en route to Uvalde to visit his brother. He was about 25 years of age and leaves numerous relatives in the county and West Texas. The gun was purchased about 2 o'clock, thirty minutes before the deed was committed.

Lame back is one of the most common forms of muscular rheumatism. A few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment will give relief. For sale by all Dealers.
